THE TIMELY INJUNCTION.

We draw a sigh of relief when we realize that the fishing imbroglio on the Columbia is quiescent under the soothing, yet temporary, influence of a couple of injunctions. There are conditions that make the injunction a thing of joy and this is one of them, since we know from experience all about the lengths to which fishing troubles can be carried and want no more lessons of the sort.

All men are hoping that the issues raised to bolster the interposition of the federal court in this instance may be so clear and comprehensive, so amenable to conclusive construction, and so plain and perpetual as to lay, for all time, the aggressions and disturbances that have marked the business for all the years of its career; or in default of this, it is cordially hoped the waters of the Columbia and all that therein is may be turned over to Uncle Sam for his careful and forceful control and authority. It is probably the ultimate end of our local squabbles; and the sooner it comes the better for all concerned, especially for those most nearly concerned.

In the meantime it behooves the leaders of this industry to put their wit to work for its salvation and devise ways and means for its perpetuation at the hands of the States at interest, or of Congress, and strive as earnestly for the rehabilitation and continuance of the traffic as they do for its annual profits.

CLATSOP'S ONE THOUSAND.

There is nothing to prevent Clatsop turning over to Hon. William H. Taft a neat little package of 1,000 Republican majority votes this fall, if by the exercise of a fraction of its old party spirit its real strength can be rallied to expression. There was never more need of it when one considers the obligations of the State in this behalf and the chance that exists for a slump.

If every county organization in the State will do its home-best, irrespective of the confusion and discord in the party as a whole, there will be no need to discount results on the 4th of November; and for one Clatsop can lead in this work without involvement in the demoralization that marks the party status in Oregon. It is up to us to keep our own faith and do our own work. Let those who will, beyond our borders, scrap on!

Imagine Bryan in the shoes of Roosevelt and the reaction that will ensue in the business and industries and finances of the country, and neglect your plain duty, if you dare! It is easy enough to contemplate Mr. Taft in the position and retain our equanimity when we recall the standards he represents and the policies to which he is committed by years of public service that fix warranty to his future in such a place, as well as the unimpeachable endorsement of his great chief. We have nothing to fear nor argue against in our popular championship of the man, his history, his simple commitment to every clean and decent program the people want, and to which they are becoming, happily, inured. We have only to stand pat this year and do the same straight voting that was done four years ago, unless it shall be just a bit more so!

MUNICIPAL CLEAN-UP

Astoria is in no sense a dangerously dirty town; in fact, she is among the cleanest of the seaport cities in the land. But she has "spots" where certain unsightly and uncleanly things are permitted to congregate and fester and fume until they become noisome and dangerous, just as all large communities have.

For such as these the good work inaugurated by Dr. Reames, the city health officer, and abetted by Acting Police Chief Oberg, is destined and the whole city commends the energy and tact with which the task is being carried out. It takes something besides two full tides a day to regulate the niceties of municipal life in this old city, and that the cue is given officially once in a while as to when and how and where to do it is very essential and convincing.

But if the people above tide line will exercise the most ordinary precaution in dispensing their refuse and directing it securely and constantly where the play of the ebb may take it over and exhaust it in the vast salt plain at our municipal doors there need never be complaint of threatening conditions in "this man's town."

This year's corn condition is 80 per cent. of normal in the leading corn-growing States—a bad omen for Bryan.

In trying to make Kentucky a reliable Democratic State the Legislature only succeeded in making it reliably doubtful.

The cranks continue to pursue Roosevelt and Taft. They do not seem to have anything against the other tickets.

Mr. Bryan is disposed to be satirical about Mr. Taft's stumping tour. Any attempt to divide the public ear is regarded by Mr. Bryan as stealing his thunder.

Missouri will be one of the States in which Mr. Taft will speak during the campaign. The State that cast 321,000 Republican votes in 1904 will show Mr. Taft that the number is growing right along.

In New Hampshire Winston Churchill is speaking for the candidate who beat him two years ago. With such perseverance Mr. Churchill is reasonably sure to get acquainted with the sensation of winning.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suitcase and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water-tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in 20 minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." THE CHEAPEST FAT-REDUCER IS THE BEST

The attention of all who are half-choked and generally bedeviled by an excess of fat which, by the way, always seems more excessively excessive during the sultry season than any other, is called to the Marmola Prescription Tablets. Seventy-five cents secures enough of these remarkable fat-reducers from any druggist to last you a good while—in fact, it buys an extra large case. This is enough to make a very desirable change in almost anyone's weight. Taken one after each meal and at bedtime, the loss of as much as a pound of fat a day has been attained innumerable times.

This is a royal result that seems all the more remarkable when one realizes these tablets are cheaper by a half than anything else your druggist has. But the net loss they bring about is not the only good feature of these tablets. They are pleasant to take, don't disturb the stomach, don't require one to exercise a particle or diet a mouthful, and last, but not least, do not cause wrinkles. They reduce one quickly but evenly—naturally. They produce, in short, the identical results of the famous Marmola Prescription, with which they are identical in composition. Try a case. If your druggist is sold out then write the makers, the Marmola Company, of Detroit, to send you one by mail.

SALOON LAW INVALID.

Federal Judge Declares Iowa Mule Law Is Illegal.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Sept. 19.—According to a decision rendered yesterday by Judge Smith McPherson of the U. S. Circuit Court, the Iowa Mule Law system, under which saloons are now operating, is illegal. Judge McPherson further declares the Iowa Mule law is no license system in Iowa for the last quarter of a century, and for that length of time these has never been a lawful sale of liquor as a beverage within the state of Iowa. He further holds that no person under any circumstances can lawfully sell liquor as a beverage in Iowa. The decision was made in a suit of the United Breweries Company of Chicago, versus the Civic Federation of Davenport. The complainants charged the Federation with a conspiracy and sought to enjoin them from abating property on which a saloon had been closed. Judge McPherson denied the application for a writ of injunction. Under the Mule Law, Iowa saloonkeepers have been paying $600 annually as a tax with the understanding that it legalized their sale of intoxicating liquors and gave them relief from the old prohibitory law, which is still on the statute books.
