BODY OF FISHERMAN PICKED UP YESTERDAY MORNING AT COHASSET BEACH.

Through the courtesy of the United Wireless Station on Smiths Point in this city, the Astorian is advised of the finding of the body of a man, unknown, and unidentified in any way as yet, on Cohasset Beach, near Westport, Wash., yesterday morning, by the Ocean Park Life Saving crew under Captain Connick.

The body is in a very fair state of preservation, with the exception of a bad bruise or cut over the right eye, and evidently had not been in the water very long. The man was of very heavy build, about five feet and eight inches in height, with a brown moustache; there were leather hip-boots on the cadaver, and it is thought there that he was a fisherman by the name of Alfred Johnson who was reported lost on Tuesday night last near the entrance to Gray's Harbor.

The Coroner took charge of the remains yesterday afternoon and will prosecute all legal inquiries in due course. The man was probably 40 or 45 years of age.

The news of this finding was sent out by the Westport wireless agent direct to the Astoria station.

Shipped It Back—

The Callender Navigation Company, of this city, yesterday received a wire from the National Supply Company, of Los Angeles, owners of the 784 feet of eight-inch iron piping, which arrived here in July last, for the Gas & Oil Company, of Deep River, and which has been on their hands ever since the failure of that concern through the wrongful manipulations of its menial manager, Mr. Lee, now in hock at Portland, to ship the stuff back to them via the steamship Roanoke yesterday, and would have done so but the steamer was loaded to the guards and could not take it. It will go forward on the Geo. W. Elder next week.

Ordered To Fort Stevens—

Col. Charles D. Parkhurst, U. S. A., of the Coast Artillery, has been ordered to Fort Stevens, in this county, to take over the command of the forts at the mouth of the Columbia river, including Stevens, Columbia and Canby. Colonel Parkhurst stands 93 in the list of 117 officers of that rank in the service, and is said to be one of the most accomplished tacticians in the army, as well as a brilliant electrician. He has been lately doing special service at one of the great forts in the harbor of New York. It is not known just what time he will report out here for duty, probably early in October.

The Finest Ever—

George C. Flavel has just returned from the great Horse Show at Portland, and declares it to have been the best exposition of fine stock, including everything rated under that title, from dainty high-bred poultry to smashing broadsided Clydesdales and Holsteins, he has ever seen in Oregon and especially of Oregon production. Mr. Flavel says it hard to estimate the extraordinary advance that has been made in the culture of all manner of livestock in this state, and that the realization of it is conducive to a real pride.

Stamps Must Be Whole—

The new order from the postal department has gone into effect requiring that all stamps used in the transmission of mail matter must be perfect and whole, or they fail of their duty to carry. Blemished, or torn stamps of all denominations, no matter how slightly they are abused, will be rejected and the matter they are attached to will be posted at the various offices where mailed, for two weeks after detection. It is not known yet if they are redeemable as under the old regulations, but it is presumed they are, as Uncle Sam generally makes good all such things so long as the necessity arises in good-faith.

Water Bailiff Returns—

W. A. Mack, the newly appointed water bailiff for this district, who has been up at Portland conferring with the master fish warden and also making preparations for his future residence in this city, returned last night.

Getting Along Well—

Ernie Erickson, the little boy who was injured while attempting to jump on a wagon a few days ago, is reported by Dr. Reames, the attending physician, to be getting along in nice shape. The lad suffered a compound fracture of one of his legs, but it is hoped that he will soon be as well as ever.

Funeral Today—

Albert Olsen, the Necanicum farmer who was accidentally shot and killed by his hunting companion, will be buried this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Gilbaugh chapel. The interment will be in Ocean View. The services at the chapel will be conducted by a minister, though just which one had not been definitely settled last night.

For The Encampment—

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the members of the First Company will start on their march for the encampment at Young's Bay where they will remain until tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. There will be a sham battle at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and it is probable that many visitors will go out to the camp if the weather be fair. The boys are looking forward to the camp with much pleasure. They will go with full equipment.

Important To All—

A mission will be opened by the Redemptorist Fathers at St. Mary's Church, corner Fifteenth street and Grand avenue, Sunday, September 27, at 10 o'clock a. m. Evening exercises begin at 7:30, Sunday. On weekdays the services will be held at 6 a. m., 8 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. All non-Catholics as well as Catholics are cordially invited to attend and to hear the eloquent Missioners speak on the great truths of life. Rev. John Waters, rector.

Other Criminal Cases—

There are two other criminal cases set for trial at this term of the circuit court, namely, the case of the state against Emil Janssen, the Belgian who cut several Hindus, and the case against Charles Bertleson, the saloonkeeper who is accused of having pointed a loaded revolver at Police Officer Houghton. The Janssen case is set for September 30, and the Bertleson case for October 7. C. J. Curtis is attorney for both the defendants. It is presumed that in the Bertleson case the defense may endeavor to show that the police officer had no right to make the arrest, especially without a warrant, and that therefore he may have been justified in resisting.

GRAND JURY MAY LOOK INTO OLSEN'S DEATH

MATTER IS EXPECTED TO COME UP TODAY FOR CONSIDERATION.

Johannes Hjorteland, the man who shot and killed his hunting companion near the Necanicum postoffice on Wednesday, mistaking him for a deer, may have to answer to the grand jury for the accident which flicked out the life of Albert Olsen.

It is understood that the grand jury is preparing to take up the matter today, and yesterday a number of subpoenas were sent to the Seaside and Necanicum districts presumably for witnesses in the matter.

That the slaying of Olsen was purely accidental no one doubts in the least. Yet the right of the grand jury to investigate the matter is, of course, entirely clear, and it is said to be possible that a true bill for Hjorteland might be returned charging him with manslaughter.

So numerous have these accidental deaths been in Oregon that there seems an imperative need of some deterrent means to enforce greater precautions on the part of careless hunters.

To shoot at some object in the woods, not knowing whether it is a cow, a man, or some wild animal, seems so criminally careless to the ordinary citizen that to many it seems high time that such matters be at least investigated with the greatest of care.

The grand jury did not yesterday consider this matter and others that it intends to take up because of the fact that the prosecuting attorney and his assistant were busy in court with the Casey trial.

WANTON SLAUGHTER OF ELK FOR TEETH

SEVEN FINE ANIMALS SLAIN
TOUCHED, SAVE THE JAWS

There has been a shameful thing developed in this county during the past few days; one that calls for the interposition of the law and the interest of the Elk craft in this State.

A group of Portland "huntmen" (save the mark!) headed by a party by the name of C. L. Doty (a saloonkeeper, and a reputed Elk), numbering seven in all, has been in the Nehalem woods for a week or ten days past, running down Elk, killing seven of the rare and noble animals and leaving hair, hide and meat, while they carried away every tooth borne in the jaws of the seven big beasts.

This may be alright, since it was done in the month granted for such work in the law setting up the ten-year prohibition against the killing of this game; but, to the ordinary layman, it looks like a piece of unparalleled hoggishness, and a concession to the cheap and niggardly spirit of traffic rarely met with in men who are presumed to be above such practices.

These facts have been gathered from the utterances of the party engaged in the work and there is some strong comment going the rounds here in regard to work done by these people that may eventuate in an investigation, that will demonstrate the sheer difference between wanton slaughter and sportsmanlike killing of great game.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sinnott and family wish to return their sincere thanks the Knights of Columbus and friends who extended their sympathy and kindness during their late bereavement.

PERSONAL MENTION

George Sorenson, of Portland, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

John Mancini will depart this evening for the Nehalem Valley, on a hunting and an outing, going in via Clatskanie.

Dr. T. Forsstrom returned from the metropolis yesterday after an enjoyable visit to the Horse Show.

Mrs. F. L. Hurlburt, of Greenwood, spent the day in Astoria yesterday, with friends.

Captain Charles R. Spencer, of the fine steamer of that name, was in the city yesterday, on matters of business connected with the closing up of the Spencer's service here.

Daniel Petersen left yesterday for Northone, Minnesota, on a homing trip and will be gone for sometime.

J. K. Gamble, of Portland, is in the city, and is domiciled at the Occident Hotel.

W. N. Barrett, of Hillsboro, ex-deputy prosecuting attorney, is in the city on legal business, and is quartered at the Occident.

J. I. McConnell, of Woodland, Cal., arrived in the city last night to make a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Finch.

Mrs. E. M. Crawford, who has been up in Portland arrived home last night by train. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford expect to go over to South Bend next week.

Has Bad Arm—
Andrew Anderson, janitor at the city hall, has been quite ill for several days as the result of an abscess on his arm.

For Citizenship—
Severin Halson, native of Norway, filed application in the office of the county clerk yesterday for admission as a citizen.

Case This Morning—
The case of F. L. Darling vs. Mrs. Nellie Taylor et al, a civil suit, will be the first case on the docket in the circuit court this morning.

Patrolman Returns—
Police Officer Hanson, who has been out of town for a portion of his vacation, returned last night. His beat is in the eastern part of the city, and at the depot.

Made a New Purchase—
Martin Franciscovich has purchased the Atlas saloon at Seaside from C. C. Clarke, and will at once take over the management of the place and make it one of the best of its kind in the State.

Called To Moscow—
Rev. J. W. Nelson of Moscow, Idaho, has been called as pastor of the Swedish Lutheran Church and it is hoped that he will except the call and become permanently located here as the co-worker of Rev. G. E. Rydquist.

Quite Ill At Collins—
Jack Adams, the well known mechanic in metals, returned yesterday from Collins' Springs, where he left Mrs. Adams quite ill with what is thought to be partial paralysis, but she is steadily improving under careful treatment.

Jewish New Year—
At sundown last night the Jewish New Year commenced and all the stores kept by Jewish merchants who retain the faith of their forefathers will be kept closed today, until 6 o'clock, and according to the Jewish calendar, this is the 5669th year since the creation of the world.

A Junior Jaloff—
At 10 minutes to 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fine and hearty son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Jaloff, of this city, and the new little citizen and mother are both doing admirably. The parents are both happy in the arrival of a son, who will counterbalance the charm and solitary dominion of his little sister.

From The Upper Coast—
Charles Larson, the well known proprietor of the Workingman's Store, in this city, has just returned from a trip to South Bend and other points on the northshore, and reports that business is practically at a standstill over there, and that Astoria is lively compared with some points he visited; though all are hopeful of a pick-up as soon as the November elections are disposed of.

Of Infectious Disease—
Henry W. Wroten, quite well known as a resident of Astoria, died yesterday morning of spinal meningitis after an illness of short duration. The disease was pronounced by the attending physician to be of a virulent and malignant form and the house was therefore thoroughly fumigated later in the day. The funeral was held privately in the afternoon with interment in Greenwood.

Frosty Mornings These—
Eugene Bussing, who lives on the summit of Seventh street and who has to get up at a very early hour in the morning, avers that on Friday, yesterday morning, the water in pails at his door was frozen over with a palpable sheet of ice, and there are others who back the statement. No one in this office can vouch for the truth of it, because most of the Astorian force goes to bed just about "freezing time."

Pleasant River Party—
A pleasant marine party was held yesterday under the cordial hostessship of Mesdames W. F. McGregor and Frank Patton, Hon. W. F. McGregor being the only male in evidence. The launch patrol was the vehicle for the excursion and lunch was served on board the ship Henry Villard now fast in "Bryan's Bone-yard," and the trip was later extended up the pretty reaches of Young's River. The ladies enjoyed the day immensely.

Charter Granted—
Dr. Jay Tuttle and O. I. Peterson, of this city, were homing passengers on the night express last night, from Grants Pass, where they had been in attendance upon the Grand Commandery of the State of Oregon, which great body granted full and final charter to St. Aldamar's Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 11, of Astoria. They report having had a splendid time fraternally and socially, and that the meeting of the exalted Masonic body was one of the most enjoyable ever known in the jurisdiction of Oregon.
