

The Week in Astoria Society

Items of local interest are solicited for these columns and should be sent direct to the Astorian office to insure their insertion.

The first theatrical event of importance this season will occur tonight at the Astoria theatre when the well known comedians, Kolb and Dill, will be seen in "Lonesome Town", a musical comedy said to be among the leading productions of its kind on the road this season. Manager Hanlin has some rare treats in store for his patrons during the next few months, his booking sheet showing the best selection of plays and players Astoria has ever seen in so short a time. Among the stars who are already contracted to appear at his house are: The Jefferson Brothers in "The Rival"; Henry Savage's New York production of the "Devil," and a return engagement of the "Isle of Spice." The last mentioned musical creation scored a decided success last year, and their return is already anticipated with much pleasure by the many admirers of this variety of amusement in this city.

Mrs. O. B. Estes and daughter, Frances, who have been visiting with friends in the northeastern portion of Washington have returned to Astoria after a most enjoyable trip. Mr. Estes visited with her daughter, Hazel, at Walla Walla during the trip. Miss Hazel is attending the Whitman College in that city. En route to this city Mrs. Estes stopped at Seattle where her daughter Frances was visiting with Mrs. Jones Estes, and grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Estes, who accompanied her to this city for a visit of several months.

A delightful launching party was tendered by Mrs. F. Patton and Mrs. W. F. McGregor to their friends, Thursday on the U. S. Patrol. They visited the American ship Henry Villard at Young's Bay and later extended up the pretty beaches of Young's river. During the trip lunch was served on board the Henry Villard and a splendid time was experienced by all.

At the first rehearsal last Wednesday of the Philharmonic Society, a large number of the ladies' chorus was present and an excellent beginning was made. The concert to be given this season promises to be far in advance to the one given last year. The entire affair is under the capable management of Dr. Enna Enna, who is spending much time, on the matter and the musical numbers especially promise to be very successful. The date of the coming concert has not been decided on as yet.

Clatsop county is well represented at the Oregon Agricultural College this year. Among them attending from Astoria and vicinity are: Roy I. Chambers, Herold Turley, Miss Mable Turley, Miss Maud Turley, William Wilson, Park Sims, Harry Barr and W. O. Reith; Seaside, Albert H. Utzinger, Harry McIntosh, Alfin Johnson, Gladstone Dawson, Lester Kindred, and W. O. Rieth.

The Merry Widow Club gave a fancy dress party at the home of Miss Marguerite Taylor, one of the members, last Thursday evening which was a decided success. The affair was the opening one of the season and for that reason no pains were spared to make it perfect in every detail. The party was given in honor of Miss Mary Gregory and Miss Gertrude Upshur, who are to leave the first part of October for an extended visit to Honolulu and the east. Miss Taylor entertained her guests with cards during the evening. The fortunate winners of the pretty prize gifts were Miss Winnifred Higgins and Miss W. Van Dusen. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Helen Taylor. Those present at the pleasant affair were: The Misses Irene Simington, Mable Simington, Winnifred Van Dusen, Maud Van Dusen, Gertrude Upshur, Mary Gregory, Lois Parker, Winnifred Higgins, Fay Ball, Ellen Nowlen, Freda Foard, Laura Fastabend, Mary Eakin, Barbara Eakin and Leta Drain.

A pleasant little party, made up of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carruthers and children and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tallant and children are spending a week at Seaside and are occupying the Kendall "Crow's Nest Cottage" during their stay.

Mrs. Chas. Halderman and Miss Bess Reed entertained members of the Saturday Afternoon Club last Friday. Mrs. Halderman entertained the ladies in the afternoon and in the evening they were the guests of Miss Reed.

At Mrs. Kirchoff's home on Franklin avenue last Friday afternoon, the Ladies' Guild of Grace church entertained its members and friends at a tea. The affair was the first of a series to be given by the ladies during the coming winter months. A large gathering was present to enjoy the pleasant session which included a splendid musical program rendered in fine manner. The home was daintily decorated with Virginia creepers and many beautiful cut flowers.

Mr. George C. Flavel returned from Portland the latter part of last week from the horse show that was held there recently. Mrs. Flavel declared the show to have been the best exhibition of fine stock ever shown in the state, especially the Oregon production which made a splendid showing.

The home of Mrs. B. Van Dusen on Franklin avenue was the scene of a delightful gathering last Thursday afternoon where cards were the feature of the day. The pretty residence was handsomely decorated and a large number of guests were present.

Mrs. E. M. Crawford, who has been on a short visit at Portland arrived home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford are planning a visit to South Bend some time during the present week.

The sewing society of the Relief Corps met at the home of Mrs. Jeffers on Harrison avenue last Wednesday. The session was well attended and the ladies accomplished considerable of the work they had on hand.

Dr. Nellie Vernon will leave the early part of this week to visit with friends at Bridal Veil Falls on a well-earned vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gaston returned home on Wednesday evening from a two weeks' visit at the State Fair at Salem and the horse show at Portland.

Mrs. J. A. Monroe and two young sons, Masters Roy and J. A. Jr., returned Tuesday on the steamer Miller, after an over-Sunday visit at up-river points.

Captain J. A. Munroe and daughter, Miss Hazel, returned from Brookfield yesterday and he will spend Sunday with his family.

Mr. Ingval (Happy) Severson is visiting his parents at his old home in Chetek, Wis. Word was received from him the past week, stating that he is having the time of his life.

Miss Marie Utzinger and Miss Hattie Utzinger spent a pleasant visit last week at the North Head Light-house, the guests of Mrs. Pesonan.

Miss Ellen Nowlen is on a short visit at Seaside, the guest of Miss Long of Portland.

Miss Harriett Tallant of this city is at Portland spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brink.

Mrs. T. J. Heacock and Miss Lattimer of Seaside are in Astoria for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Donnerberg.

The steamer Rose City yesterday carried away Miss Phoebe Binney of California who had been visiting with Miss Grace Stokes during the summer. Miss Binney's home is at Berkeley.

Miss Dame and Mary Lyons of Portland who have been visiting at Long Beach for the summer are now visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. Jane Smith.

Best Treatment For a Burn.
If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in the treatment of burns. It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

Good For Biliousness.
"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night, and I feel 50 per cent better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone, of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.
