

HITCHCOCK'S MANAGEMENT QUESTIONED BY PRESIDENT

Many Campaign Criticisms Reach "Teddy"

MUST EXPLAIN TODAY

Chairman Will Visit White House Today For Conference With the President

DISCOURTEOUS TO LEADERS

Report Reaches President That Hitchcock's Treatment Toward Prominent Republican Leaders Has Not Been Just Right.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Chairman Hitchcock of the republican national committee, is expected in Washington tomorrow and a general understanding is here, that while in the city he will call on the president for the purpose of changing views with him regarding the conduct of campaign on behalf of Secretary Taft.

It was reported here today that the president had summoned Hitchcock for the purpose of requesting from him an explanation of the many criticisms which have recently come to the White House concerning the management affairs both in New York and Chicago but Secretary Loeb tonight denied portions of the report which are attributed to Hitchcock's coming to a special request from the president.

There is however, excellent authority for the statement that a number of complaints as to the management of the campaign have reached the executive mansion and the understanding is that although he will not request the presence of the chairman of the national committee the president will welcome an opportunity to talk with him and obtain from him such explanation of these criticisms as he may be able to make.

Censure seems to point to the fact that there has not been the usual cooperation between the national committee and congressional committee. Complaints it is understood have come from the republican candidates for congress. On the other hand it has been explained to the president that the national chairman has been very busy arranging details of the campaign and has been inclined to give the major portion of his time to that subject, considering the congressional committee abundantly able to look after the interests of the congressional candidates without his particular assistance.

Reports of discourteous treatment at national headquarters toward prominent republicans have also reached the president, and while it probably is not his purpose to inquire into details of office management of committee affairs, he is so thoroughly impressed with the importance of absolute party harmony that he feels no matter too small for his attention.

NEW YORK TEAM FALLS BACK TWO POINTS

Double Header at Philadelphia Ends in Even Brake

For an off day in baseball, the few games as played yesterday were of vast importance to the pennant chances of the three leading clubs. New York played two games at Philadelphia and was able to get only an even break, while Chicago defeated Cincinnati. The result is New York fell back two points and enabled Chicago to draw two points closer to New York. This leaves Chicago and Pittsburg tied for second place.

Only the second division teams of the American league played yesterday, leading teams being on the road. This leaves the relative standing of the teams unchanged.

GOULD DIVORCE CASE DISCLOSES FAMILY SKELETON

Howard Wants Time to Get Witnesses to Prove That His Wife Got Drunk

DENIES THAT HE FLIRTED WITH SHOW GIRL

Mrs. Gould, in Proceedings for Alimony, Denies All of Her Husband's Charges and Declares He Only Wants to Blacken Her Character and Gain Time

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—To permit counsel for Howard Gould an opportunity to submit affidavits of three disinterested persons who have seen Mrs. Gould intoxicated, a hearing on Mrs. Gould's application for alimony at the rate of $120,000 a year was adjourned by Justice Diegerich in the Supreme Court today.

The adjournment followed a spirited discussion between counsel, in the course of which Clarence J. Shearn, attorney for Mrs. Gould, declared the application for adjournment was merely jockeying for delay "to save Mr. Gould a few paltry dollars and to attempt to get on the records wicked and scandalous statements against Mrs. Gould in an attempt to further blacken her character."

Mrs. Gould's suit is for a separation upon the ground of abandonment and cruelty. She has received an allowance of $25,000 a year from her husband since they separated. During the course of his argument for an adjournment, Delancey Nicoll said it was set forth in Mr. Gould's answer that he was justified in abandoning his wife because of her frequent intoxication. Mr. Nicoll said that once while she was grossly intoxicated at a bridge party at the home of Mrs.

George Kirkpatrick, in this city, Mrs. Gould attempted to assault several of the women present, and bit Mrs. Kirkpatrick's arm. He said that on another occasion, when Mr. and Mrs. Gould were at a theatre, Mrs. Gould wrongfully accused her husband of flirting with one of the actresses on the stage, and of having winked at the actress.

"We will prove," said Mr. Nicoll, "that not alone was Mr. Gould not intoxicated, as his wife asserts, not alone that he did not wink at or attempt to flirt with an actress, but that Mrs. Gould was so drunk that she had to be led from the theatre."

Mr. Shearn, replying, asserted that all these charges were false and were an outrage. He entered a vigorous protest against any adjournment.

"This request of Mr. Nicoll is merely jockeying for delay," said he, "and I insist that this matter should be disposed of now."

After Mr. Nicoll had told the court that three witnesses from whom he desired to procure depositions had refused to make affidavits and that it would be necessary for him to ask for a court order to compel them to submit to an examination, the adjournment was granted.

BRYAN CRITICIZES TAFT ON CAMPAIGN FUNDS

DECLARES PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW WHERE CONTRIBUTIONS COME FROM.

NECESSARY BEFORE ELECTION

Democrat Concludes by Asserting That Taft Must be Expecting Contributions From Sources That Would Arouse Suspicion.

LINCOLN, Oct. 1.—Declaring that "Every disinterested voter knows that large contributions have been used to secure mortgages upon officials," Colonel Bryan tonight issued at Fairview a statement criticising Taft's adopting President Roosevelt's announced views on the subject of publicity of campaign contributions. Bryan expresses surprise that Taft should have adopted Roosevelt's view and then goes on to argue that publication of campaign expenses before election is necessary to show whether corrupt methods have been employed in the election; and to show the main sources from which the contributions come in order that the public may know which party predatory interests are supporting. Bryan takes particular notice of Judge Taft's statement that candidates will be charged in ease of publicity before the election, with being completely under the control of those who make the contributions.

Bryan declares this to be an insult to the intelligence of voters and does little credit to Taft's judgment of men

Engine Stalls, Brakes Refuse to Hold—Train Rolls Backwards Down Hill

HITS CURVE AT HIGH SPEED

Engine And First Car Make Turn Successfully But Coupling on Car With Workmen Breaks and Car Leave Track Piling up in a Mass

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—A work train on the logging railroad of the Chapman Logging Company, was wrecked about five miles west of Scappoose this afternoon. Six members of a repair gang which were riding on one of the cars was killed and six others injured, two seriously. The dead:

The train was on its way to repair a piece of track. When about five miles out of Scappoose the engine became stalled on the slippery track. The brakes failed to hold and the train began to roll backward down the hill. The engineer called to the workmen who were all on the third car, telling them to jump, but for some reason no attention was paid to his warning. The train quickly gathered terrific momentum and while traveling at this rate, struck a curve. The engine and first car rounded the curve successfully, but the coupling to the third car broke and it left the track, piling up a mass of wreckage with the twelve unfortunates beneath. None of those on this car escaped injury. The dead and injured were recent arrivals in the camp and were almost complete strangers.

to whom he is making his appeal. Bryan concludes by asserting that Taft is either expecting contributions which would excite suspicion among intelligent people or contributions which if known would arouse unjust suspicion among a people too ignorant to form a correct judgment of the facts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—This afternoon attorneys for the government filed a demurrer to the amended complaint filed by the railroads this morning in the matter of the railroad's petition for an order restraining the interstate commerce commission from fixing a rate on lumber between Willamette Valley points and California points. Government counsel base their objection on the grounds set forth in previous action that the complaint does not show sufficient cause for action. The case

REPUBLICANS WILL HOLD THEIR OWN

Judge Taft Pleased by Conditions and Says Party Will Carry Usual Majorities

OMAHA, Oct. 1.—"I am going to be elected." This statement was made tonight by Judge Taft, sums up in a word what the candidate thinks of the effect of his speech-making tour thus far. This belief is based, Taft explained on the manner of his reception in the states thus far traversed, in which there were reported to be defections among the republican ranks. As to the national ticket, Taft now believe there is no reason to doubt that the republican party will hold its own, and should this prove to be the case, Taft says there is no doubt he will get the electoral vote of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakota and Nebraska, states in which disaffection is supposed to exist. Thirteen speeches were made by the candidate today in his spin around the southeastern part of Nebraska, terminating in Omaha tonight where two big meetings were held. Throughout the day crowds were larger than usual during the short stops. At several stops, Taft left the car and spoke from the platform. At practically every station the local band in attendance to greet his arrival and departure.
