BAILEY RECEIVED BIG SUMS

Hearst Attacks on Senator Are Similar to Those Made Upon Governor Haskell Charging His Acceptance of Money From Trusts.

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 3.—Declaring he would "Give one final review of Mr. Bailey's spectacular career and then resign into the hands of his constituents to be reverently reposed on the vacant democratic slab beside the late lamented Mr. Haskell of Oklahoma," W. R. Hearst carried his fight against the junior senator from Texas into his own state when tonight he read in the courts of his speech letters from Bailey to Pierce, a copy of a note for $8000 and extracts from a speech by Bailey in defense of Joseph Sibley. He said: "Foraker received a polite message from Archbold requesting his attendance at the captain's office."

Bailey being a democratic denies the Standard Oil association and attempts to evade it." Hearst then read the following addressed to H. C. Pierce of St. Louis and bearing signature "J. W. Bailey dated 3-28-1901. "Send me New York Exchange for $1750. Have it made payable to my order so it will not be necessary for you to endorse it. Send it at once, as I ought to have had it several days ago."

Next he produced a photograph of an entry upon the Waters-Pierce Oil Company's book:

"To J. W. Bailey, Gainesville, Texas. "For legal expenses account Texas matter, $1750, as per letter J. W. Bailey, herewith attached, dated May 28, $8000."

"Washington, D. C., March, 1901. "Four months after date, I promised to pay to the order of H. C. Pierce at his office in St. Louis, Mo., J. W. Bailey."

"Next," said Hearst, "Photograph of an entry on the books of the Waters-Pierce Oil Co.:

"St. Louis, March 6, 1901."

"For amount of loan as per the note in the hands of treasurer, $8000."

NATIONAL CLUBS ARE NEAR THE STRETCH

PITTSBURG, CHICAGO AND NEW YORK NECK AND NECK FOR PENNANT.

PITTSBURG IN SLIGHT LEAD

By Taking Last Game Today From Chicago Pittsburg Will Have the Prize—Famous Tie Game to be Decided Monday.

So close will be the finish in the race for the national league pennant that any one of the three leading clubs may win. The defeat of New York yesterday was costly, for even by winning the three remaining games New York has to play with Boston, Pittsburg can win the pennant by taking the last game of the season today. On the other hand if Chicago defeats Pittsburg and New York wins the remaining games, New York can do no better than tie with Chicago. Thus it is seen that the game between Pittsburg and Chicago today will be the crucial test of the entire series, disposing entirely of the chances of one or the other of the two clubs. If Pittsburg loses the game that team will be behind Chicago in the final team standing. In figuring the possible outcome it must be remembered there is still the

SUFFERING GREATLY AT ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL

Had But Recently Arrived From Behring Sea Where He Served Three Years as Light Keeper—Gleam of Romance in His Sad Story

Frederick Larson lies at St. Mary's hospital in this city, hovering between life and death as the result of an attempt to take his own life in the Anchor saloon, on Astor street yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Larson has but very lately returned from a three years' absence in Alaska, where he served all that time as one of the keepers of the Scotch Cap lighthouse, coming down on the tender Armeria. He had saved practically all his salary for the time and his intimate friends report that he has in the neighborhood of $1400 laid by to show for his provident life in the far north. He came here by way of Seattle, Tacoma and Portland, and for the past week has been around the city with his friends, in a convivial way, but not noticeably intoxicated at any time. His best and chosen friends here are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson, who reside at No. 591 Grand avenue, at whose home he has been domiciled since his return, and who speak in the highest terms of the stricken man, as do all who know him here. He is about 42 years of age, quiet, dignified, neat in his dress and friendly of manner, yet very self-contained and not at all communicative, even with those who knew him best.

It is said that when he left the northern station, he took out with him salary checks to the number of PORTLAND, Oct. 3.—In the most unusual report the grand jury of this county deprecates the crusade which is now being carried on in this city's restricted district, declares such a crusade should never be inaugurated, and pronounces the unfortunate existence of statute which permits such crusade. Jury further recommends the enactment of a law providing for strict police supervision. Continuing the report states the jury does not wish to be considered to be condoning vice which the city authorities are at present attempting to eradicate, but believes the crusade will have only the effect of spreading this class of people throughout the city to exert baneful influence upon those with whom they, if kept isolated and under strict supervision never would come into contact.
