Bids For Wharf—

Bids for the street work and public wharf at Forty-sixth street will be opened tomorrow afternoon.

License To Marry—

A marriage license was issued at the office of the county clerk yesterday to Asarias W. Arvola and Miss Mary Jarol.

Petition For a Light—

A petition will be presented to the council tonight asking for an electric light at Twelfth and Grand avenue. The petition is signed by F. A. Fisher and seven others.

Appraisers Appointed—

In the matter of the estate of Edwin L. Sinnott, the probate court yesterday appointed as appraisers Austin Osburn, J. R. A. Bennett and J. M. S. Hawthorne.

Another Test Fire—

The Astoria Clay Products Company has just laid another kiln of 35,000 bricks for burning and hopes to have markedly satisfactory results to show for the second trial.

Iiwaco Man Dies—

F. Hendricksen of Iiwaco died at St. Mary's Hospital at an early hour yesterday morning. He was 45 years of age. Pleurisy was the cause of death.

Day of Atonement—

Monday, tomorrow, will be the Jewish Yom Kipur, or Day of Atonement, and the mercantile houses of that faith in this city will be closed during the entire day.

Slow But Sure—

The work of driving piling preparatory to the rebuilding of the Allen lumber mill at Uniontown, goes quietly but steadily forward, and the resumption of business there may be looked for in good time.

Chimney Fire Alarm—

Yesterday morning at 11:45 o'clock the fire department answered a call to the Merwyn Hotel where a blazing chimney was causing more or less excitement. It was handled quickly and successfully without damage or trouble.

Up From The Port—

First Lieutenant E. J. Callen, of Fort Stevens, was spending the day in the city yesterday, with his many friends here. He says that things are quite normal at that big post, and that there is no news at hand yet as to the date of arrival of Colonel Parkhurst, the new commandant.

Into Effect Today—

The winter schedule of the A. & C. Railway Company goes into effect all over the line today at high noon. The only changes noted in it are, that the evening train leaving Portland for Astoria departs at 6 o'clock instead of 5:30 and reaches here at 9:50 instead of 9:20, and stays here, except on Saturday evenings when it goes through to Seaside.

Chocolate And Cream—

This is to be the color scheme of the new and handsome Allen building at the corner of Twelfth and Exchange streets, the home of the Astoria Amateur Athletic Association, and when Contractor Larson gets through with it, it will be one of the most striking and handsome buildings in all Astoria. The combination of colors has no counterpart in the city.

The Dress Uniforms—

At 3 o'clock this afternoon in the armory, Captain Abercrombie and Lieutenants Knobloch and Sutton will begin the distribution of the dress uniforms and the members of the First Company are expected to be present. Wednesday night will hold the quarterly inspection. Lieutenant Knobloch and Lieutenant Sutton received their formal commissions yesterday.

Will Recommend—

The board of assessors on the improvement on Twenty-third street, Commercial to Exchange and also on separate contract to a point 75 feet north of Exchange street, met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of equalizing the assessments. No remonstrance was offered, and therefore the board will recommend to the Common Council that the roll as made be confirmed.

Ready For Filing—

The petition in behalf of the Port of Astoria bill and its submission to the people of this city, is ready for presentation to the proper authorities, with 220 names subscribed thereto, and will take its place on the roster of public matters to be submitted to the popular vote in December. Of the names attached, G. Wingate secured an even 200 and Charles Wilson gathered the remainder; nor was there any trouble about it, either.

They Kick, Too—

Badollet, the well known grocer, has a kick coming on delayed freights. On September 30th last he ordered ten cases of fresh eggs from his dealer at North Yakima, and they are not here yet, though he holds the shipping receipt under that date. It is but 130 miles of a haul, and plenty of trains for the hauling, but the eggs are still en route, and Mr. Badollet dreads their arrival during the coming week, since they are likely to come afoot in the cases and cheeping, or—otherwise.

Street Work Approved—

Various street improvements have been approved by the council committee on streets and the city surveyor and the superintendent of streets, and the formal act of approval filed with the city auditor, as follows: Tenth street, Irving to Kensington; Heckard Bros., contract price, $4000; Eighth street, Harrison to Irving; Chris Larsen, contract price, $1070; Ninth street, Jerome to Kensington; W. A. Goodin, contract price, $1400; Fourteenth street, Duane to Franklin; John W. Welch, $2665.

Authoritative Word—

C. M. Celler, a prominent member of the Astoria Regatta Committee, yesterday morning informed a reporter for the Astorian that the delay in presenting the report of the 1908 Regatta was due to the fact that a number of the contributors to the festival fund has failed as yet to make good on their subscriptions and that while none of them would forego the obligation it was a difficult matter to effect a settlement of the sums still outstanding. It will be made and presented to the public as soon as these are closed.

New Wholesale Project—

There is a quiet, but well defined movement on foot in this city for the early establishment of wholesale grocery here, backed by trained intelligence and plenty of capital, a quantum of the latter being furnished by a well known Portlander; but the plan is wholly Astorian and it will be established and maintained as of this city and will be ready for wider and fuller publicity when the parties at interest have carried their plans to a ampler degree of certainty. The matter is well backed and has all sorts of encouragement. The Astorian is not permitted to say more than this now.

Want Information—

City Surveyor Tee and Mr. Kearney, the street superintendent, have addressed a communication to the common council for presentation at the meeting tonight, asking for further information in regard to the Adair drain. The council recently referred the matter of the drain to these officials with power to act. The question now has arisen whether the power to act extends over only that portion of the drain mentioned in the petition on which the action was taken, or over the entire drain. The people in that vicinity are asserting that it is to be— or should be—over the entire drain.

Wedded Last Evening—

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dench, No. 3734 Eighteen street, in this city, last evening at 5 o'clock, their daughter, Miss Johanna Dench became the bride of Mr. Edward Long, and the happy young people departed on the steamer Lurline for a honeymoon trip on Puget Sound. They will return to Astoria in about 10 days and will make their home here. Mr. Long is a well known, energetic young citizen of Astoria and a valued employe of the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company, in its bridge department; and the pretty bride is one of the most popular girls in the city, charming and womanly, with hosts of friends who will wish them both an abundance of all things that make for happiness and success.

Smoker For Visitor—

Members of the Chamber of Commerce will give a smoker at the rooms of the association Thursday night in honor of W. T. Forsythe of Philadelphia, who is here investigating the outlook for the new electric line to Seaside and Cannon Beach. The plan is to make the affair an informal one, when business men and other citizens can meet Mr. Forsythe and extend a welcome to him. That the city of Astoria is taking a great interest in the line the representative of the financial concern probably finds at every turn, and Thursday night there will be a chance to let him know a little more of this thriving community. The members of the Chamber are requested to attend the smoker and help make it a cheerful occasion.

His quarterly Report—

Thomas Dealey, the city treasurer, announces a summary of the business of his department for the quarter just ending, and the facts and figures therein will be of interest to all citizens. The summary follows: Bal-

All of the Good Peaches Don't Grow in Jones's Orchard

Copyright 1908 by SCHLOSS BROS. & CO. Fine Clothes Makers Baltimore and New York

And all the good clothes are not made in one factory. There are scores of high class factories in these United States where skill and science are striving to produce the BEST clothes ever made.

BUT after all it is your home merchant who has to be behind every article sold.

An inexperienced grocer may allow a box of the finest peaches to spoil.

Herman Wise started to work in a cloth house a third of a century ago. There he learned the difference between good cloth and shoddy.

Since that time, as the ready to wear garments improved from the crude ill fitting sloppy clothes to the masterpieces of today, Mr. Wise has learned where to get the BEST.

No man can sell you a stylish all wool suit for a song, but if you really desire good up to the minute togs, you may depend on it WISE has it with the WISE guarantee behind it.

Young men and old men can step into the fine WISE Toggery and get clothes to suit both their tastes and their pocketbooks—$15 to $35.
