HIS SUNDAY SUIT.

He Was a Good Dresser and Careful With His Things.

"The line which separates those who 'dress for dinner' from those who do not is an invisible crack compared with the yawning gulf that divides those people of London who 'dress themselves of a Sunday' from those who have none but their workaday clothes."

"I had often noticed," said the writer, "that one highly respectable old agricultural laborer wore very much the same clothes at all times, but unfortunately it was not until after his death that I heard of the tragedy that had darkened all the Sundays of his later life and bitterly mortified his wife and daughters."

"Thirteen years ago his clothes were stolen by a tramp, and we never had no money for to put 'em back. 'U did feel it, going to chapel and all. There's a many an' would have stopped at home, but he wasn't that sort, the old man wasn't. 'It's the garments of our souls as matters,' he'd say. But for all that he was ashamed to wear his week day ones. He couldn't never get used to it."

"His proper suit, was made by an Irish tailor who came over to these parts in a cattle boat and stayed a month or two, earning what he could all roundabout. Twenty-nine years they'd lasted him, and they'd have seen him through to the end. Yes, he was always a good dresser, and pretty careful with his things too."

He Was a Warbler.

You could tell from his hair that he was a musician or something of the sort.

"Yes," he said to the company at large, "the greatest tenor in the land once paid me the biggest compliment I could wish."

"Oh?" remarked some one interrogatively.

"It was like this: I sang without accompaniment—I always have trouble with accompanists; they're so unsympathetic, you know—and at the end of the song he said to me:

"Do you know when you began without an accompanist I was surprised; when I heard you I was astonished, and when you sat down I was delighted!"

And the sun shone down and lit up the youth's beatific smile of satisfaction.—London Mail.

The Sun's Light.

It has been calculated that the amount of light received from the sun is about 600,000 times that of the moon. The intrinsic brightness of the sun's disk is about 90,000 times that of a candle flame.

How to Fish.

On many occasions one might imagine the fish saying to the anglers, "Take me while I am in the humor," but they take no notice of it and often attempt the feat when they are not.

He Was a Negative.

"He said he felt greatly encouraged because you turned the gas down low when he was calling on you."

"Well, he needn't feel encouraged. It takes a dark room to develop a negative, you know."—Philadelphia Press.

Advice.

"You wants to look out fob de man dat's always givin' advice," said Uncle Eben. "De chances are dat he's one o' dese folks dat likes to watch experiments while some one else takes all de risk."—Washington Star.

AMUSEMENTS

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

From the Spokesman-Review September 28:

Spokane—"A Poor Relation," one of the brightest jewels in the dramatic crown of the late Sol Smith Russell, was given a creditable presentation by Lee Willard and his company at the Spokane theatre last evening.

It is a tale that tugs at the heart strings, that of the seedy genius whose first thought was for others when success crowned his grim struggle with poverty for recognition of his invention.

His simple faith in humanity and his tender solicitude for the little children of the poor, with whom he shared his garret, its crusts, its bad and good fortune, were convincingly portrayed.

"THE HONEYMOONERS."

Twenty corking musical numbers in a single song show is the unsurpassed record held by Geo. M. Cohan's "The Honeymooners," which comes to the Astoria Theatre next Sunday evening direct from an all summer run at the magnificent New Amsterdam Theatre, New York.

A Healthy Family

"Our whole family has enjoyed good health since we began using Dr. King's New Life Pills, three years ago," says L. A. Bartlett, of Rural Route 1, Guilford, Maine.

RATIONAL CURE FOR ECZEMA

No More Dosing the Stomach—Cure the Skin Through the Skin.

When you have a scratch on your hand you wash it out and cleanse it and then the skin cures itself. You do not take blood medicine to cure a festered wound.

The best skin specialists today are agreed that the only way to cure the skin is through the skin.

The fact that eczema is a skin disease and not a blood disease is evident from statistics which show that nearly all eczema sufferers are perfectly healthy in all other ways except as to their skin.

You can prove immediately the relief of a true skin cure by using oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription.

This liquid attacks the disease germs, numbing them while building up the healthy tissue of the skin. We have now handled this meritorious and thoroughly scientific remedy for so long and have seen its reliable result so many times that we freely express our confidence.

LIVES LOST IN FIRE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—Three persons were burned to death and the lives of 100 tenants of a six-story tenement on East Third street were imperiled in a fire that broke out in the building shortly before 1 o'clock this morning.

The flames, breaking out on the ground floor, spread rapidly through the structure and the fire escapes were soon congested with panic-stricken tenants. When the fire was controlled, within half an hour, firemen found three persons dead in an upper hallway who had been caught by the flames.

Where Bullets Flew

David Parker of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well. 50c at Charles Rogers & Son's drug store."
