

MAN SUSPECTED OF BUTTERWORTH MURDER ARRESTED

Clothing Worn By Prisoner Shows Blood Stains.

SHERIFF NOT CERTAIN

Man Claims to Be a Rancher from Near Eugene and Was Acting Strangely.

AGE OF PRISONER 37 YEARS

Size of Suspected Man Tallies With That Given by Several Who Saw Suspicious Characters in Vicinity of Crime.

PORTLAND, Oct. 22.—Arrested yesterday afternoon in the Banquet saloon, at Vancouver, Wash., while acting strangely, a man giving the authorities the name of D. C. McClain and asserting that he is a rancher of Eugene, is being held on suspicion of the murder of Henry T. Butterworth, the St. John jeweler. In McClain's pockets when arrested was a revolver, the calibre being .32-20 or .32 Winchester, as it is commonly called. One cartridge was missing from the weapon. Butterworth was killed by a bullet of this size. On the dark coat worn by the suspect the officials have found stains which they are convinced are blood stains. A handkerchief said to be discolored with blood was in his pocket.

Sheriff Stevens and Deputy Leonard took the 10:30 car for Vancouver this morning, on being notified by Chief of Police Seachrist, of that city, that a suspect was in custody. Their investigation has caused them to recommend the holding of the suspect until they can look more fully into the facts and circumstances connected with the affair. They are in communication with Chief of Police Black of St. John, this afternoon, and it is probable the latter official will join them at Vancouver late this afternoon.

At the city prison it was discovered that the coat of the prisoner was stained, evidently with blood. A search of his pockets brought forth three handkerchiefs, one of which was bloodstained, and about $40. An examination of the weapon he carried showed that a cartridge was missing from one of the six chambers.

The suspect gives his age as 37 years and is about 5 feet 7 inches tall and of medium build, with a florid complexion and a sandy mustache. He wears a dark-colored suit of clothes. He says he is an Oddfellow, a member of the Eugene lodge of that order, and bears its symbol.

GRAVE CHARGES FILED AGAINST SYNDICATE

HEAVY ALASKAN MINING PROPRIETOR INVOLVED IN THE CHICAGO COURTS.

JUDGE KOHLSAAT PRESIDES

Factional Fight For the Directorate of the Property at Bottom of the Suit at Bar.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—General charges of fraud made in a petition for preliminary injunction against the directors of the Scandia Mining Syndicate, met with a spirited retort before Judge C. C. Kohlsaat in the United States Circuit Court yesterday. Later in the day counter charges of a serious nature were made against the instigators of the action. The petition which asked the appointment of a receiver to prevent the directors from leasing the corporation's Alaska properties had been filed by E. F. Richardson of Denver, Colo. Mr. Richardson brings the suit as a stockholder and represents himself. He made a brief argument to Judge Kohlsaat in which he reviewed his petition, which among other things accuses Robert A. Childs, attorney for the corporation of dominating the board of directors and carrying out his personal plans.

Judge Kohlsaat took the application for a writ of injunction under advisement, and postponed until today action on the application for a receiver.

JAPAN SHOWS HEARTY DEMOCRATS SAY THAT SPIRIT TO FLEET ROLLS ARE PADDED.

Order Given People to Enhance Pleasure of Visitors.

TOKIO, Oct. 22.—The capital of Japan witnessed tonight a most extraordinary evidence of the spirit of New Japan. After his audience with the officers of the American battleship fleet on Tuesday, the Emperor issued an order directing the people to increase in every way possible the enjoyment, comfort and pleasure of the American visitors who came, he said, as historic friends of the Japanese nation. A response to this mandate was seen and heard tonight. Originally a torchlight procession of 15,000 people was planned, but this feature went far beyond the expectations and was participated in by a demonstration which would make Japan's war celebration after peace with Russia and even a New York's election night revel seem almost insignificant. It would be impossible to estimate the number of people who took part in the parade. Admiral Sperry and other officers of the fleet viewed the spectacle from a specially constructed stand, but were compelled to leave before the procession finished. Every band in Tokio turned out and their favorite airs were "Yankee Doodle," "Dixie," and "John Brown." The entire day was taken up in elaborate entertainments to Admiral Sperry, the other admirals and their aides. Sperry will leave Tokio tomorrow when the scene of celebrations will change from this city to Yokohama and will close with a reception on board the flagship Connecticut on Saturday.

Committee Appointed to Prevent Illegal Voting.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Charges were made today by Chairman Connors of the Democratic state committee that the Republican organizations in the upper state counties had padded the registration rolls with anywhere from 1000 to 2000 names and to prevent the casting of fraudulent votes, the executive committee had appointed a state law committee with Judge Alton B. Parker as chairman. Connors said that the law committee will be composed of about 500 attorneys and that on election day these attorneys will be assisted by special deputies in each election district to see that the ballots be cast honorably.

Chairman Mack declared tonight that the change in Taft's plans by which he will speak in 34 cities and towns in this state instead of only a few of the larger cities, as previously announced, indicated that the Republican managers feel the supreme necessity of carrying this state, which is virtually acknowledging that they feel they are losing in Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Kansas.

FOUNDING RESERVE CORPS

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The formation of a reserve corps of stokers for the United States navy to be composed of gas house firemen from all over the country, is one of the propositions which will be considered by the American Gas Institute, now in session here. It is probable that the whole matter will be finally decided at the National Gas Association convention to be held in Chicago, beginning December 7. It is estimated that there are employed in the gas houses of the United States more than 20,000 stokers who as a class are considered the best stokers in the country. In case of war stokers and coal passers in large numbers will be needed and a reserve corps such as proposed would be of much value.

DETAILS ARE LEARNED OF GREAT TYPHOON

PERHAPS 500 LIVES LOST IN FRIGHTFUL STORM ON LUZON ISLAND.

GREAT HEROISM IS SHOWN

Three Americans Do Great Work in Saving Natives, and Rescue About 100 of Them, Men, Women and Children in One Village.

MANILA, Oct. 22.—Additional details of the damage wrought in the Cagayan valley by the typhoon of October 12 indicate that loss of life in the district will reach 500. At Aparri, where a thrilling rescue of a hundred natives was effected through the heroism of Lieutenant Robert Clark, Lieutenant Treadway and Postmaster Foss, the survivors say that three hundred residents of the submerged fishing village which is located some distance below Aparri were swept away and drowned.

The three Americans, aided by one Filipino volunteer, were informed of the danger that threatened the village and managed to reach it by boat. Approaching the shore in a series of short rushes through breakers that threatened at any moment to swamp their frail craft, the rescuers found scores of natives clinging to the poles of their wrecked habitations. Lieutenants Clark and Treadway, carrying lines from the boat, fought their way through the breakers, and swimming from house to house in the floodwater, saved the lives of about Broughton Brandenburg Arrested at Dayton.

FORGERY IS CHARGED

Prisoner Claims He Had Proper Authority Before He Sold the Article.

MAY BE RELEASED ON BAIL

At the Time of Arrest Brandenburg Was on His Way to New York to Give District Attorney Jerome More Information.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 22.—As he was boarding a train here today for New York Broughton Brandenburg was arrested by local detectives on charges of forgery and grand larceny. A telegram from the New York police department advised the local department to hold him. He is alleged to have sold the New York Times a letter which he alleged to have been written by the late Grover Cleveland in which a statement predicted the election of Taft and which letter is now declared to have been a forgery. Brandenburg was locked up as the amount of bail was not fixed. In a statement tonight Brandenburg says he had proper authority from Mrs. Cleveland and from Mr. Hastings, the co-executor of the Cleveland estate, before he sold the article to the Times and furthermore asks if it is reasonable to suppose that a sane man would falsify the utterance of an ex-President of the United States for $120.

At the time he was arrested he said he was on his way to New York City to give District Attorney Jerome additional evidence. He says the arrest was made by those interested in off-setting Cleveland's utterance, the object being "To secure a dramatic climax just before election."

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A telegram was received at headquarters

RICHARD PEARSON HOBSON, HERO AND STATESMAN, HERE

Comes as a Bryan Orator But Never Names His Man Once During a Two-Hour Speech.

MAKES SPLENDID IMPRESSION ON ALL SIDES

Talks Democratic Doctrines Cleverly While Ignoring Their Chief Sponsor and Afterwards Goes for Sail on the Bay and Talks Interestingly of Coast Defense.

True to his Astoria assignment, ex-Captain Richard Pearson Hobson, U. S. N., now Congressman from the Sixth District of Alabama, and orator-at-large in behalf of the national Democratic ticket, arrived here on the 11:50 train yesterday morning. He was met at the A. & C. depot by a group of rock-ribbed Democrats of this city and section, among whom were Hon. Herman Wise, County Judge C. J. Trenchard, Dr. O. B. Estes and Manager James T. Wallace, of the County Democratic Central Committee. None of the party knew the distinguished visitor by sight, but Mayor Wise saw Mr. Travis, of Eugene, alight from the train, and knowing that gentleman and that he knew Captain Hobson well, hurried the crowd up to Travis and greeted him with the inquiry as to where the expected orator was, and who he was, only to be met by the startling announcement from the supposed Eugeneite, that "I am Captain Hobson, gentlemen"; whereupon there was a vivid pause, and then the party got itself together, and proceeded to make the brilliant young Congressman understand that he was in the hands of some pretty good friends.

Dr. Estes put the party in his big automobile (which was handsomely draped in the national colors for the occasion), and drove them to the Hotel Occident, where lunch was served, after which the hero of Santiago had a shave all by himself, and was then ready to meet "all comers", and there were plenty of them. For the "man of Santiago" is a national figure and therefore common property, hence the eagerness to meet and know him. Long before he was half through greeting those who desired to shake hands and have a word with him, the captain was hurried to Logan's hall, where the speaking of the hour (2 p. m.) was to take place.

At the hall he was met by at least 350 citizens gathered to hear his address, 50 of whom were ladies (the sex, by the way, who are alleged to have had a peculiar penchant for this redoubtable young officer), and after a happy and suggestive introduction at the hands of Mayor Wise, Captain Hobson entered at once upon the work in hand, and began his speech, which lasted full two hours, every minute of which was enjoyed by all who heard him. He is a fine looking, up-standing young American, of 37 years, with a strong mouth and firm jaw (just the jaw that would be behind a project such as he wrought down in Cuba), with a smooth, low-pitched, Southern voice, with plenty of the colloquial tang upon it, and a ready flow of eloquence, but no dash

TAFT ADDRESSES INDIANA CITIZENS

Ridicules Bryan's Charges Of Bribery By Promises of Employers of More Work If Taft Wins.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 22.—During this the first of the three days he is to speak in Indiana, Judge Taft has talked to more people than on any previous day of his campaign. In each of his sixteen speeches the listeners and applauders have numbered thousands. Rejuvenated in voice, energy and enthusiasm, by his one day of rest, the candidate handled the campaign with an even greater degree of positiveness than heretofore. In the first speech he made he ridiculed Bryan's charges of "bribery" in connection with promises of employers to their employees of more work with republican success and orders of business men for goods said to be contingent upon the same results. These were not bribes he said, but business. They do not represent false conditions, but facts. At Linton, to several thousand coal miners he gave the history of the writ of injunction, something he has not done before. At Terra Haute, where he spoke to several thousand coal miners he made a clear distinction between the Republican and Democratic platforms on the question of injunction and declared business to be property. The largest outdoor gathering Taft said he ever addressed was assembled at Terra Haute. Many present said it was the largest gathering in the history of the state. Injunction was the subject of the speech at Terra Haute. Judge Taft's principal speech here tonight was on the labor question.

WILL DEMAND AN INVESTIGATION

Representative Rainey of Illinois Makes Suggestive Statements About Canal Matters.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Representative Henry T. Rainey of Illinois has announced through notices to the democratic committee that he will on the convening of congress in December, introduce a resolution calling for a congressional investigation of the Panama canal purchase. In the course of a discussion of the matter tonight Rainey said: "I am sorry that the president's letter to Senator Knox does not take up the matter of the Panama canal purchase. The president ought to be able to tell whether or not his brother-in-law and the brother of the Republican candidate for president were interested in the American syndicate which it is stated, succeeded in getting control of the securities of the Panama Canal Co., just before the Nicaraguan route was abandoned and the Panama route adopted."

Rainey added that the country ought to know all about it and he intends to see that it is made public.

CAMERA VERSUS GUM.

President Roosevelt Gets A Pointer From An English Friend.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—That a camera instead of a rifle would be the best arm for President to carry on his hunting trip to Africa, is the opinion of Sir Harry H. Johnston, who arrived in New York from England last night. For fifteen years Sir Harry has been connected with the diplomatic service in Africa and is on a six months' visit to America the first vacation he has had, he says, in years. He states that the officials in Uganda are eagerly anticipating President Roosevelt's visit.
