Bryan Judged by Democrats. Inasmuch as Mr. Bryan is importing the Democrats who revolted against his candidacy in 1890 and in 1900 to return to the party fold and vote for him this year, it is interesting to recall how contemptuously he cast them out twelve years ago. A few references will suffice. In his speech at Knoxville, N. Y., Aug. 28, 1896, he said: "They tell us that certain prominent financiers are going to leave the Democratic party because it declares for the restoration of silver. We shall not go into court to seek an order to prevent their going. The Democratic party has been weighed down by those who want to use the party organization for private gain and their country for public plunder."
Speaking in Columbus, O., Sept. 1, 1896, Mr. Bryan remarked: "Of course we (the Democratic party) always hate to lose anybody, but if we have to lose anybody I do not know of a set of men on earth I would rather lose than those we have lost. All the people we have lost have been people who called themselves 'big people.'"
The same sentiment appears in the following extract from Mr. Bryan's speech in Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 10, 1896: "If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."
In the course of a speech in Lansing, Mich., Oct. 10, 1896, Mr. Bryan exclaimed: "While I do not want to prevent gold Democrats from leaving the party, we do want them to take their baggage with them and not expect to come back. We want them to understand that it is going to be easier for them to stay in the party than to come back after they have stained their hands in the sins of plutocracy."
It is no less interesting to recur to the things which the honest money Democrats said about Mr. Bryan. Take Henry Watterson to begin with. He was in Switzerland when Bryan was nominated the first time, and when the news reached him he made the cable tingle with this stirring message to the president of the Courier-Journal company in Louisville: "Another ticket our only hope. No compromise with dishonor. Stand firm!"
Later Colonel Watterson, gallant warrior that he is, fired the editorial columns of his newspaper with righteous wrath against the Bryan betrayal of his party. Note a few simple expressions of his unleashed emotion: "Mr. Bryan is nothing but a Populist in doctrine and practice." "The flag that floats over the name of Bryan is the flag of pirates." "The three R's of Bryan's campaign seem to be repudiation, riot and ruin." "Mr. Bryan is a boy orator. He is a distinguished dodger. He is a daring adventurer. He is a political fakir."
The speeches which William J. Bryan has been making on his tours are without exception the most incendiary and dangerous utterances ever addressed to the American people by a presidential candidate. "He has gone even further than to countenance an open revolution; he has asked the American people to become hypocrites and liars."
Bourke Cockran of New York is on record with the following tribute: "Mr. Bryan is a dealer in enormous declamation based upon a fundamental misconception of facts. If his doctrines are true the exercise of the taxing power is an act of tyranny."
Roger C. Sullivan of Illinois, a member of the Democratic national committee, has said: "Mr. Bryan's boasts put the stamp of insanity all over him. He is a shrewd advertiser. He is in politics because it helps the gate receipts."
To the above Democratic estimates of Mr. Bryan's ability and strength should be added the following from the New York World: "One vital, dominating fact confronts the Democratic party which no orator, which no eloquence, which no rhetoric can obscure: BRYAN'S NOMINATION MEANS TAFT'S ELECTION."
Since January, 1896, the United States government has granted more than 900,000 patents. But none was issued for the Bryan contraption to transform 50 cents' worth of silver into a 100 cent gold standard dollar.
Wisdom and moral courage are two qualities that, on the authority of Mr. Roosevelt, are requisite to a great president. Judge Taft has proved his possession of both on the bench and in the cabinet.
Bryan wants the people to forget the past. He must be surprised at the long memory of New Hampshire Republicans regarding Franklin Pierce.
"The south is quietly Democratic," says the Charleston News and Courier. Yes, with a quietness that seems ominous for Bryan.

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CURED

Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved by External Use of Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

Infantile eczema, which has baffled the skill of the best physicians for so many years at last seems to be curable-and curable with great ease. Results of the last two years indicate conclusively that baby's itch, infantile eczema and other skin diseases of children can be very simply cured by the application of a compound composed of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription.
The Rev. Lewis Steeley, of Weatherly, Pa., writes: "Our baby boy's little face was so dreadfully covered with eczema that blood and water ran from the sores nearly all the time. After using 31 bottles of D. D. D. Prescription we are so happy to tell you he is entirely cured and the disease has never broken out again. If this letter is in any way a help to other sufferers, you may publish it."
If you have a child which is suffering with this terrible itch, we assure you will not neglect one hour's time at all in recommending the remedy for your children. Charles Rogers & Son.
to give your baby the right kind of relief. We have seen too often how quickly the remedy mentioned above takes the itch away at once and how all the cures seem to be permanent; we have seen this too often to hesitate.
