The splendid American-Hawaiian steamship Nebraska arrived in this port yesterday on her third voyage, from Salinas Cruz, via San Diego, bound for Astoria, Portland, Seattle and Tacoma, with freight for each port, as follows: She left Salinas Cruz with 1297 tons, of which 383 tons were for Portland; 511 for Seattle; 123 for Tacoma; 56 for Europe, a small batch for this port, and the balance was discharged at San Diego. The whole cargo made up in 42,894 packages. Her master executed a bond in San Diego, covering her foreign cargo, to expedite matters in passing from one American port to another. The company is immensely pleased with the business and prospects that have arisen to meet the ships of the line, and intends to continue the service indefinitely. It took just 20 minutes to enter and clear her at this port yesterday morning, another feature of despatch that pleased her master greatly.

The steamer Lurline did not reach her dock here until nearly 9 o'clock last evening. She went up with good business, and the following named passengers: Mrs. D. B. Willett, W. R. Whitman, and the Kamn agent in this city, J. J. Day, who went to the metropolis to take on the dignities, honors and privileges of Elkhorn; the boys up there having had a gridiron ready for him for sometime past. He has engaged quarters at the Good Samaritan hospital, in order to save time and unnecessary handling after they get through with him; his return to Astoria depends largely on his constitutional resistance to what they will do to him.

The fine bar pilot schooner Joseph Pulitzer was sailed into port yesterday noon by Captain Gunderson, of the bar pilots, and is at the O. R. & N. piers taking on supplies, and bending a new foresail. She will leave out immediately these things are acquired.

The steamer Shoshone came in from San Francisco yesterday afternoon, and went to the Callender, where she left a few tons of general merchandise and then went up stream for a cargo of lumber for the return trip.

The British ship Wynstay arrived down on the tow-lines of the Ocklahoma yesterday, and is at anchor off the Tongue. She will leave out for Europe this morning in tow of the Wallula.

The steamer F. S. Loop arrived here yesterday from San Francisco, and went on to Rainier, where she will load in part for the return voyage, finishing at Knappton.

The steamer Nome City entered port yesterday morning and docked at the Callender pier, where she left a lot of freight; after which she went on to Portland.

The five-masted schooner H. K. Hall has been taken over to Knappton where he will load out lumber for the Antipodes, at the Columbia mills.

The French bark Mareschale d' Noailles went up the river yesterday on the lines of the Harvest Queen, to load wheat at Portland.

The English coal barge Quatsino, on the hawyers of the Ocklahoma, went to the metropolis yesterday and will discharge her cargo there.

The steamship Geo. W. Elder arrived in last evening and left up for Portland at 8:30 o'clock, with good business in all departments.

What Would You Do?
In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

and shape of our Gowns, Dresses, Waists, Skirts, Kimonos, etc is proverbial among our customers. They are elegant in style trimming and finish, and the prices make them additionally attractive. We have a large and varied stock from which to select, and the colorings are very harmonious. We respectfully invite our lady friends to look over the seasonable offerings we are showing.

DETAILS OF VOTE AT YESTERDAY'S PRIMARIES

Two Results Show That the Republicans Are Ahead by a Ratio of Nearly Four to One Throughout the City.

After the returns were canvassed yesterday and the figures entered of record in a systematic manner in the office of the city auditor, it became possible to get a comprehensive view of the results of the primaries. The forecasts made in the Astorian of yesterday were all virtually correct. The primary was a jumble-like a Chinese puzzle. Some of the figures are rather surprising, but out of it all stands forth prominently the fact that the primary shows the Republicans are strong and the Democrats weak.

Mr. Elmore received 403 votes for the Mayoralty on the Republican ticket. Mr. Elmore also received 20 votes for the same office on the Democrat ticket.

Mr. Smith received only 97 votes for Mayor on the Democrat ticket; but at the same time—and this is incomprehensible—he also received 49 votes for the same office on the Republican ticket.

But on the straight ticket the vote stands 403 for Elmore and 97 for Smith. This presents a ratio of about 4 to 1.

Oddly enough this same ratio was shown in the Presidential election in favor of Mr. Taft, and thus upon the face of the voting it looks as if the Republicans have a voting strength four times greater than their competitors in Astoria—and more than this, for it may be safely said without any intention of making an invidious comparison, the returns tend to show that there really is no voting Democrat party in the city.

At the primary registration the party mustered a strength of only 180 votes; at the primary itself the leading candidate, Mr. Smith, only polled 97 votes. This seems all the more remarkable because of the fact that the Democrats have ruled the city elections for quite a number of years, using the Citizens' ticket as a guise to walk into power. This fact shows that in municipal affairs many voters forget all about party lines.

Naturally the returns from the primary have encouraged the Republicans very much. Yet there is no doubt that Mr. Smith still will make active efforts to win, and if he does win against a ratio of four to 1 it certainly will prove a fine compliment to him.

For two weeks complaint has been made on many sides that the Republicans have been doing nothing. Yesterday there was no indication of any awakening. It is freely prophesied that Mr. Smith will win yet if the Republicans don't take the trouble to win what they can secure withease if they go to the trouble to make their position sure.

- J. H. Hansen.....64
- Scattering.....24

Police Commission

- R. Carruthers.....9
- I. Bergman.....16
- C. W. Barr.....23

Twelve other scattering candidates were voted for, receiving 2 or 3 votes each.

DEMOCRAT NOMINEES

Below is given the full list of all the Democrat nominees: Mayor, A. M. Smith; treasurer, Thomas Dealey; auditor, Olof Anderson; street superintendent, S. A. Wentjar; police commission, C. W. Barr; attorney, C. H. Abercrombie; surveyor, A. S. Tee.

Councilmen—First ward, Charles Wilson and F. J. Carney; Second ward, George Kaboth and C. J. Curtis; Third ward, C. A. Leinenweber and A. L. Fox; Fourth ward, L. O. Belland and P. L. Stangeland; councilman-at-large, Jens H. Hansen.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE HOLY CITY"

With Luella Morey and a Superb Cast.

Theatre patrons will have increased interest in the remarkable performances now being given of last season's incomparable success "The Holy City." In selecting for his beautiful drama the thrilling narrative of St. John, the Baptist, Mr. Bennett chose the most dramatic story ever told. The epoch covering the birth of Christianity provides scenes of vivid comparison; the arrogant and sensual splendor of the Roman, shown with the greater spiritual beauty of the humble followers of the Master, presents enthralling contrasts. No more absorbing tragedy was ever conceived, no greater stage pictures ever presented. Spectacular and powerful acting combined, scenes of enchantment inspire ennobling thought. The interpreting company formed for this, the fourth season, and the support of Miss Morey is the strongest that could be engaged; the performances are again the most important theatrical offering of the year.
