Old Spinning Wheel-In the windows of the Astoria Furniture Company on Commercial street is an old spinning wheel, and it attracted much attention yesterday and last night from the Saturday shoppers. This old spinning wheel came across the plains in 1849 to Oregon, and then was owned by Mr. Buharell's grandmother, and has see remained in their family. It is intantially built, and looks as if and been made "by hand." It was made to be run by a tread, howbut the wheel was turned by
