The Week in Astoria Society

Everything has been going along smoothly, in Society's realm this week. Things of course, have been a little quiet, for everyone is preparing for the coming week which is always one of the busiest of the year. Everyone is planning for the Thanksgiving dinner and their is hardly any time to think of anything else, there have been a few card parties, and a few weddings and other affairs which help to make the week a memorable one in Society's bulletin.

Higgins-Stokes.
On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Margaret May Higgins and Mr. W. S. Stokes were united in marriage at the First M. E. church by the Rev. C. C. Rarick, pastor of the church. The church decorations were carried out in green and white, banked with ferns and palms and presented a very pretty scene. Miss Reba Hobson sang before the wedding ceremony and Miss Maude Ross played the Wedding March. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. J. E. Higgins. The ushers of whom there were five in number, were Mr. J. A. Beckwith of Portland, cousin of the bride; Mr. M. C. McClood, Lieutenant Park of Vancouver; Mr. Rob McLean. The bride looked radiant in a beautiful gown of white crepe de chene, made in empire style, with train and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. A beautiful bride's veil completed her outfit. Miss Winifred, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and she looked beautiful in a gown of pink messaline and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

After the wedding ceremony there was an informal gathering at the beautiful Higgins' home, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and the ladies of the Thursday club and their husbands being present. The house decorations were in pink and green. In the spacious dining room where the wedding party assembled the table decorations were pink candelshades, and carnations and smilax. The bride and groom were seated in the center of the room at a small table and the others sat at small tables which formed a circle around the bride and groom.

Philharmonic Concert.
The second Philharmonic concert which was given in the handsome new hall of the Astoria Amateur Athletic Association, was a great success.
