

The Daily Market Report

MKTS. PORTLAND, March 5.—The egg market held about steady at the 25-cent level today, and the outlook is for a general clean-up tomorrow.

There were no new features in the butter trade today. City creamerymen still report current make a little short of requirements, but the supply is slowly increasing and probably before very long it will be adequate.

Orange Crop Over-estimated. "The California orange crop this year has been greatly overestimated," said Tim Pearson, who returned to Portland today after a trip through the Southern and Central California fruit districts.

Two Cars of Celery in Today. Two cars of celery came in from the South today. Otherwise receipts amounted to little or nothing.

Rev. Joseph H. Pesperman, Salis bury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days, unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.
