

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, March 27.—The first straight carload of Florida tomatoes ever brought to this market arrived last night. The product is of fine quality and came through in good shape. At $3.50 a crate of six baskets these tomatoes are in good demand, while the inferior products from Mexico at a much lower figure, are generally neglected.

Five cars of bananas came in today. The bulk of the shipment was in good condition on arrival.

The first shipment of telephone peas for the season reached the Front street market today. They were quoted at 17 1/2 cents a pound.

A carload of Winningstad cabbage was reported in from Los Angeles. The cabbage market was firm at $3.50 to $4.00.

Outlook For Potatoes Good.
Trade in potatoes continues quiet, because of the fact that the Southern markets are still more or less loaded with river stock, but there seems to be little doubt that the market outlook on the whole is favorable and that activity will prevail in the near future.

Onions have moved in a steady way this week with $1.75 a hundred the prevailing price to growers.

Butter May Decline Again.
Though some of the city creameries today reported the current make short of actual requirements, there was still some talk of a probable further decline in butter prices next week. The Southern markets show a weakening tendency, and this naturally has some effect here. Standard city creamery butter is now selling at 4 cents a pound higher in this market than at this time a year ago.

Cheese stocks are still very light and it will be weeks before there is anything like an adequate supply. No changes in prices were made today.

Hams and Bacon up Half a Cent.
An advance of half a cent a pound on all grades of ham and bacon were announced in a new provision list issued by one of the leading packing concerns today. Other meats were unchanged.

AS IT SHOULD BE
WASHINGTON, March 27.—Hereafter colored men only will be appointed chief musicians of colored regiments in the United States army. An order to that effect was issued today by General Bell, chief of staff, by direction of the President. White chief musicians previously serving with colored regiments have been transferred to white regiments.

WEEK IN STOCKS
NEW YORK, March 27.—Stocks have risen in price during the week with resulting effect on the tone of speculative confidence tempered by the knowledge that professional charge of shorts was making the principal demand. Scanty supplies offered to meet this demand had a confirmatory effect on confidence. Reports from the steel trade showed continued depression in all departments with exception of further cuts in prices and wage reductions to come. There was some betterment in the demand for copper, but it was not maintained. The outgo of gold was without serious effect on money rates, and the easing off in the exchange rates indicated a check to the gold export movement.

PURCHASED FAMILY HOME
NEW YORK, March 27.—Mrs. Russel Sage has purchased the old Nathan Sage place the home of some of her ancestors at Foxborough, L. I., near Sag Harbor. It is said to be rebuilt in the same style of architecture. It is said that Mrs. Sage paid an almost prohibitive price for the place because of its associations.
