One of them said today:

the month of heaviest production. At per dozen; cucumbers, $1.75@2.25 per this time in 1908 there were accumula- dozen; celery, $4.50 per crafe; artitions of eggs in the Front street chokes, 80c per dozen; beans, 25c stores that made the market a weak per pound; peas,, 15c per pound; toaffair, and prices for a time were matoes, Mexican, $1.00@1.75; Floridown to 16 and 17 cents. The demand da $3.50 per crate; squash, 2c per in the North fell off largely and East- pound; peppers, $1.75 per box; cauliern eggs were available at prices that flower, $2.50; asparagus, 7@124c per made the maintenance of anything pound. like a good market a difficult thing-

There was a slightly weaker feeling n the butter trade today, and some dealers look for a further decline in lon $2.25; per sack $4.50; Toke Point, the near future. In this state and $1.60 per 100; Olympias (120 lbs.), California production is now heavy $6; Olympias, pr gallon, $2.25. and the Sound markets are the principal outlet for the two states. In black bass, 20 cents, strrped bass, the South the trend is oward weak- 18c; herring, 54c; flounders, 6c; ness and the heavy shipments that are catfish, 9c; shrimp, 124c; perch. 6c; coming in from that quarter naturally sturgeon, 12%; sea trout, 15c; tom have a depressing effect here. The cod, 8c; salmon, fresh, steelhead, 10c; chances are that city creamery will Chinook, 124c; frozen salmon, 8c. drop to 30 cents early in the present

Cheese continues very scarce and weeks and dealers look for no immediate change. The last shipment that came in from Tillamook is already practically out of dealers' hands.

Halibut is the most plentiful of fish in the local market. Liberal supplies are coming from the Flattery Coast and elsewhere, and as a result the price was lowered to 6 cents a pound today. In other fish generally there was no change. The salmon supply is still moderate, coming for the most part from the Sacramento river, but the high price at which the fish is held tends to restrict consumption. There were practically no razor clams $3@5. n the market today, the result of tormy weather on the Coast for the past few days.

Thus far this week poultry arrivals ave shown no excess over the demand, and as regards fryers and proilers the supply has been short of equirements. The market conseo remain so through the week-

In country dressed meats the martet has weakened slightly, though 20c. rices thus far have held up fairly rell. Both yeal and pork have come gather freely for some days, and oth lnes for the tme are a lttle slow-

Ultimate Consumers League Is To

CHICAGO, April 1.-Further proest against the Payne bill will be made tonight at a meeting of the Ultimate Consumers Tariff League.

"Mr. Payne, author of the tariff bill, says that the ultimate consumer makes no objection to the proposed tax on coffee, tea and other household necessities. The Ultimate Consumers Tariff League is organized for the purpose of demonstrating the fallacy of this contention and putting consumers on record in every practical manner as being unalterably opposed to the imposition of any tax whatsoever on coffee and tea and other household necessities and for putting into effect every legitimate means of preventing such calamity.
