A YOUNG MAN MARRIES HIS STEP MOTHER

AFTER HIS FATHER'S DEATH THE SON SUCCESSFULLY WOES HER.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Harry Beckwith, of Chicago, son of the late Dr. Beckwith, has wedded his stepmother. This interesting event took place Saturday when the young man who is 26 years old, was married to Mrs. Elinor T. Beckwith, formerly Miss Elinor Ferguson of Albert Lea, Minn., after a courtship which interrupted his college course in Cornell University. News of the romance and the unusual matrimonial venture has just become known. The bride is 30 years old.

The introduction to the romance is almost as interesting as the final chapter. As a young girl Mrs. Beckwith met George Beckwith. They were married and moved to Ithaca, N. Y. At that time Harry was 13 years old. After the time of his father's death he corresponded with his stepmother and was deeply attached to her.

Mrs. Beckwith became stenographer to Professor Harry Powell in the Bureau of Foreign Travel of Cornell University, and lived abroad for several years. Returning to America, she moved to Chicago.

Young Beckwith followed her when he had completed his preparatory course in the Ithaca high school. He went to Cornell University to study Architecture, was graduated in February and returned to this city.

The Beckwith family is well known in Ithaca and the bride and bridegroom have a host of friends in Chicago.

CHILD LOST ON ROOF.

One of New York's Countless Thousands Likely To Die.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Jacob Cohen, a little tot of three and a half years, died of exposure early today after being found on the roof of a tenement house on the East Side last night where he was marooned for at least 12 hours, possibly for 20. His moans and cries were heard from time to time Tuesday night during Wednesday but not until 10 o'clock last night was he found.

The janitor, who lives on the top floor, heard faint moans from overhead that drifted in through an open window of his room.

Taking a lighted lantern he made his way to the roof. For a moment he stood still and listened and in a little while was guided by the repeated sounds to a chimney. There, huddled in its slight protection, he found the boy in overalls, soaked through with the rain, "Cold as a lump of ice," he said, and dying.

As the child of Ignatz Cohen had been missing since early Tuesday night the parents were notified of the finding of the little form on the roof and the father identified the body of his son at a police station. Cohen told the police that he and his wife thought that the boy was sleeping soundly in another room Tuesday night, but that in some way he had slipped from his bed and left the house. He could not imagine, he said, how the little fellow had made his way to the tenement where he was found, nearly three quarters of a mile from the Cohen home, or how he had reached the roof.

FIGHTING THE SCHOOL BOOK TRUST

CHICAGO TEACHERS MAY PREPARE "HOME-MADE" BOOKS FOR THEIR USE.

CHICAGO, April 15.—"Home made" textbooks, written by Chicago teachers and printed by the school board. This is the policy that is likely to be adopted as the result of the report made to the board of education showing discrimination against Chicago school children. While the district superintendents today are busy checking up the prices for books in various parts of the country, the special committee on text books is turning its attention to the "home made" book proposition.

Members point out that the board has demonstrated its ability to compete successfully with the publishers in printing books for use in the schools. For some time past the school trustees have been experimenting along these lines and the result of their test is said to be favorable to the idea.

WOMEN TIDY UP STREETS.

WASHINGTON D. C., April 15.—Thanks to Washington club women the streets of the national capital are cleaner today than ever before with in the memory of the "oldest inhabitant". Of late the streets and alleys of the city became so covered with dirt and littered with papers, tin cans and other refuse that their condition was a subject for ridicule and comment on the part of visitors.

The Twentieth Century Club, whose membership embraces many women of Washington's prominent families, decided to take the initiative in the reform movement. Not satisfied with adopting resolutions criticising the authorities whose duty it is to keep the streets clean, the club women resolved to do the street cleaning themselves rather than tolerate the dirt and filth any longer. Accordingly, this morning was appointed as the time for the spring cleaning. The members of the club, with the co-operation of their friends and neighbors, donned their old dresses and set to work collecting the dirt and rubbish on streets and parkways in the vicinity of their homes. Before noon, as a result of the women's work, the capital came nearer to looking like "Spotless Town", than ever before in its history.

FIGHTING SOCIALISM

NEW YORK, April 15.—How the National Civic Federation is opposing socialism in this country was told by Seth Low, former president of Columbia University, in the course of an address last night before the members of the National Metal Trade Association.

"Do you know," he asked, "that there are Sunday schools in this city where socialism is taught to little children?" Their literature is on our battleships and circulates in our army urging desertion and mutiny. But we are doing what we can to counteract that propaganda. We began this at the request of the labor leaders in the federation.

"Such men as Mr. Gompers and Mr. Mitchell have been fighting Socialism in their labor union for years."

CHILD LABOR LAW.

Chicago Theater Managers Are Arrested For Alleged Violations.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Six Chicago theater managers were today arrested on charges of violation of the child labor law.

On the complaint of Edgar T. Davies, chief of department of factory inspector warrants charging misdemeanor were issued against M. Cory, manager at the Chicago opera house, and against Augustus Pitou, at the Illinois Theater.

Managers of the Peoples, Marlowe, Thirty First Street and the New Grand Theater will answer charges of violating the child labor law in the municipal court. This round up of theaters is the result of a vigorous campaign waged by the factory inspection bureau during the last few weeks.

It was undertaken in an effort to determine just how much child labor was employed in Chicago theaters and is of particular significance at this time in view of the fact that theater interests have now before the Legislature a bill to nullify the law prohibiting child labor in play houses.

TURK WRESTLER TALKS OF HIS OPPONENT

MAHMOUT SAYS GOTCH WAS SIMPLY THE BETTER MAN OF THE TWO.

CHICAGO, April 15.—The easy overthrow of Ysiff Mahmout, the highly touted Turkish wrestler, by Frank Gotch at last night's contest for the championship robbed the aftermath of comment of much of the usual interest.

"I had him beaten when I laid my hands on him," said Gotch. "He is a strong fellow, but I am stronger and know more about wrestling than he does. I am glad I won because I am an American and the title still remains here. I have made no plans for the future and don't know when I'll wrestle again."

"I did not know Gotch was so good," said Mahmout. "I beat all the men that Gotch did and I thought I had a chance. He is the best man I ever met and I don't know any one who can beat him. I am going to my home this Summer in Bulgaria and take a rest. I may return next year and try to get another match. At present he is a better man."

Ed Smith, referee, made the following statement:

"Gotch simply outclassed Mahmout. I never saw him do such grand work. I was glad there was no dirty work like that which characterized the bout a year ago with Hackenschmidt."

JOHANN'S COURTING.

One of the Royal Romances of the Hapsburgs.

More than one royal romance has occurred in the family of the Hapsburgs. The best of all, perhaps, is that of the Archduke Johann, brother of the Emperor Francis I. One day he was traveling incognito when he arrived in a village where he desired to take a coach for Vienna. He looked around to hire a carriage, for which, having been obtained, he sought a driver. At length a lad was brought to him.

"Your name?" queried the archduke.

"Johann, sir," answered the lad.

The archduke was cute. He had seen at a glance that this was no boy before him, but a girl disguised.

"What do you call yourself when you are at home helping your mother in the kitchen?" he asked, smiling.

"Anna Plochl," she answered. "And what is your name?"

"Johann too. I am an archduke."

"I suppose you will say that you are the emperor himself next?" she laughed back at him. Then she drove his carriage into Vienna.

Here, behold, the people saluted, and she made inquiries, thus finding out the real facts. But she thought little more of the matter until a month later the archduke strode into her father's cottage just at the dinner hour and asked permission to join the family gathering. The girl began apologies, but the archduke laughed them aside and insisted on being called plain "Johann."

The visit was repeated again and again, and at last the villagers began urging desertion and mutiny. But we are doing what we can to counteract that propaganda. We began this at the request of the labor leaders in the federation.

"Such men as Mr. Gompers and Mr. Mitchell have been fighting Socialism in their labor union for years."

CURED BRONCHITIS.

Mrs. Hopkins Says Her Life Was Saved—Choked and Gagged For Breath.

"Some five years ago I was taken with a bad attack of bronchitis. I was affected with a bronchial cough and cold, the cough was generally much more apparent at night, and I would wake up choking and gasping for breath, and there seemed to be a terrible stoppage in my throat and tubes. My throat was tender and irritable, and had an aching sensation, which was especially bad at times. I doctored and used several remedies, but received no permanent relief until I used Hyomei. This remedy is certainly infallible, and it saved my life, and I accord it the credit which it deserves. There is nothing too strong for me to say regarding Hyomei."—Mrs. Ada Hopkins, 8 Cutter Ave., Coldwater, Mich., August 22, 1908.
