RAILWAY TRAINMEN WORKING HARD TO ADJUST THINGS.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal. April 23.—The officials of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Santa Fe road have received word from the grievance committee in San Francisco that a similar committee from the Southern Pacific, after several audiences with Southern Pacific officials has been successful in gaining recognition of the order of conduct of motorcycles on the valley division the company agreeing to man each motor car with a conductor, engineer and brakeman, all from the trainmen's order, at standard wages. Their success convinces the Santa Fe committee that the Santa Fe will also grant its demand respecting motor service on the coast division, and the entire matter be settled amicably.

OLD CHICAGO STORY.

CHICAGO, April 23.—A big building in course of erection on the west side was badly wrecked early today by the explosion of a bomb. Several adjacent structures were also damaged. The explosion was heard for miles and occupants of nearby houses were thrown from their beds. A strike has been in progress on the building for some time and the police attribute the crime to labor troubles.

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys, and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints causing rheumatism. Owl Drug Store, T. F. Laurin.

During the spring every one would be benefited by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. It furnishes a needed tonic to the kidneys after the extra strain of winter, and it purifies the blood by stimulating the kidneys, and causing them to eliminate the impurities from it. Foley's Kidney Remedy imparts new life and vigor. Pleasant to take. Owl Drug Store, T. F. Laurin.

SENATOR ROOT ON THE LAW OF NATIONS

OPENING ADDRESS AT MEETING OF SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The opening address at the third annual meeting of the American Society of International Law was made today by Senator Elihu Root of New York, president of the society. He took for his subject "The Relation Between International Tribunals of Arbitration of National Courts."

Particular reference was made to the Drago doctrine, Senator Root contending that the submission to international tribunals implies no impairment of sovereignty.

Senator Root admitted that where there has been a denial of justice in national courts decisions are not to be held conclusive and arbitration and other further action may be called for.

The better rule would be to avoid the danger of denials of justice and to prevent the belief that justice has not been done, which must always possess the parties defeated in a tribunal suspected of partiality, said he, "by submitting in the first instance to an impartial tribunal all such cases as are liable to be affected by the consideration I have mentioned."

The reason of such rule, he explained, would require that when such cases had already been decided by National courts and the impartial justice of decision seriously questioned, they should be re-submitted to an arbitral tribunal, not for proof that justice had been denied, but for re-hearing on their merits.

Senator Root argued that in international controversy the only question is "What is just in this cause." Sovereigns and presidents, ministers and department officers are not insulated by a provision for a court to ascertain what is just, he added, because the common sense of justice recognizes that their relation to the question which arises between the government which they conduct and others, is such that they cannot well be impartial.

If recourse to arbitration is a reflection upon national courts, the people of the United States have been strangely obtuse. Nowhere in the world, surely, is greater honor paid to the courts of justice, yet we have embodied in the fundamental law which binds the states together in a recognition of the liability of courts to be affected by the real sentiment, prejudice and pressure."

He told how the proud commonwealths, like Virginia and Pennsylvania and New York and Massachusetts revered their judges.

"They were prepared to give and did give their courts a degree of authority over them and the executives and legislatures without precedent in the history of free governments; but they also revered justice; they prized peace and concord and friendship and brotherhood between the states and their citizens. When the ever recurring dispute arises between submission of controversies to international arbitration on the one hand and insistence of jurisdiction of national tribunals on the other, the nations look to the framers of the Constitution as an example of high constructive statesmanship and wisdom should not fail to find in their judgment matter to arrest their attention and influence their action."

A VILLAGE WAR.

Back In Illinois There Is A Squabble Over Mayor's Election.

BENBOW, Ill. April 23.—In a typical Venezuelan revolution the government of Benbow City has been snatched from A. E. Benbow, its founder, and president. The enemy is entrenched inside the city hall and violence will follow any attempt of the deposed president to gain control, according to a manifesto issued. This morning Benbow is to the village what Castro is to Venezuela, except that he has control of the city treasury.

The trouble is this: The Illinois Legislature recently passed a law by which villages of a certain class shall elect officers on the local year. Mayor Benbow was elected prior to that law for a term of two years and when the opponents called an election this year the mayor declared it illegal and refused to give up when he was beaten. Out of a male population of 500 Benbow City has 24 voting citizens, the remainder being foreigners. Sixteen of these 24 voted against Mayor Benbow. The mayor seized the ballots and refused to let go his hold on the executive office. The present condition of affairs arises from that.

COURT MARTIAL FOR DEBT

MANILA, April 23.—Captain James D. Reams of the 30th infantry will be tried by a general court martial of which Colonel Granger Adams is president, on a charge of having failed to pay his personal indebtedness. Captain Reames is a native of Kentucky.

Major General William P. Duvall has arrived at Manila and assumed command of the division. Brigadier General Arthur Murray, chief of the coast artillery, also arrived today and proceeded to inspect the defenses on Corregidor island, in Manila Bay and at Subig, at the head of Subig Bay.

ARMY OFFICER DEAD.

A Mysterious Case Comes To Light In Manila.

MANILA, April 23.—Lieutenant Albert N. Brunzell of the First Brigade Marines, was found dead in the rear of his quarters at Olongapo with his throat cut. It is not known whether the young officer committed suicide or met with foul play.

The naval authorities are investigating both the theories. Lieutenant Brunzell had just successfully passed an examination for promotion to captain. He was appointed to the marine corps from Idaho, his native state, in February, 1900.

INSPECTOR NAILED THEM.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Customs Inspector O'Gallagher has seized two Chinamen in a box car in the Wabash freight yards and turned them over to Chinese immigrant Inspector Plummer. The prisoners will be given a hearing next week. Inspector Plummer began an investigation at once in an attempt to discover the identity of the smugglers who are sending Chinese immigrants across the Canadian border. The two prisoners came in a sealed car of merchandise from Windsor, Canada. They were well provided with food and water and were found complacently lunching when the car was opened.

PETER F. COLLIER DEAD.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Peter F. Collier, founder and publisher of Collier's Weekly died suddenly tonight of apoplexy.

SEEKS TO ESCAPE IN WOMAN'S GARB

DRESSED LIKE A LADY, SOLDIER NEARLY SECURES HIS LIBERTY.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—A novel attempt at escape from the military prison has just been reported at Alcatraz, a small island in San Francisco Bay. The island is devoted entirely to the incarceration of army convicts and as life is irksome for the members of the guard, occasional dances are given to which the girls of the cities bordering on the bay are invited. Tuesday night one of these affairs was in progress when the alarm was sounded, indicating that a prisoner was missing.

Deserting their fair partners the guards searched the prison buildings and the rocky shores of the island for an hour before they located the fugitive. He was discovered hidden in a locker, dressed from head to foot in a woman's garb. The toilet was complete, even to a large hat of the latest style. The prisoner, Henry Gallagher, who is serving two and a half years for desertion, from the coast artillery at Fort Barry, has been noticed sitting among the "wall flowers" in a secluded corner earlier in the evening.

How Gallagher obtained his feminine apparel is a mystery to the authorities.

"My little boy, ten years old, was pale and had but little life. He began to use Peruna the day his mother began. To-day his face is rosy, and he is out in the yard running and jumping with the rest of the children."
