The steam schooner Hornet of San Francisco entered this port yesterday at high noon, and docked an hour later at the Callender pier where she discharged about 20 tons of local freight before leaving up for Portland. This is the Hornet's first voyage to Astoria. She has a heavy general cargo, with lots of cement, a commodity that is wanted very badly in this port just now, and a goodly share of what she carried of cement, was for Astoria, but could not be had as it was cargoes below the Portland stuff, and will have to be freighted back here. The Hornet is a "three-year-old" Aberdeen-built vessel, of 660 gross tons, 402 tons; 176 feet long, 38 feet beam, and 12.5 feet depth; carries a crew of 18 men and officers, and is registered out of the Bay City.

The steamer Lurline went up stream from here last evening with plenty of cargo, and the following named people as passengers from this city: Rev. W. Seymour Short, Frank Spittle, Jos. Driscoll, F. Jacobson, S. Turner, H. J. Hemstreet, H. E. Deputy, G. D. Shreve, G. M. Hunter, Mrs. William Oxman, and D. B. Smith.

The dandy lighthouse tender Columbine came into port on Sunday last from Seattle where she went on the drydock to have her hull painted. Captain Richardson and his officers and men are all well, and the ship will be promptly put in shape for a cruise in Alaskan waters for the purpose of delivering supplies of all sorts.

The Alaska Fishermen's Packing Company's cannery tender North Star, the last of the Columbia salmon-fleet bound for Bristol Bay, departed yesterday morning, with about 20 of the company's people on board, and was given a string of farewell "toots" and she ran down the bay and over the bar, on her way to the far north where she will figure for the next four months.

The 3000-ton British tramp steamer Century is due to enter this port sometime today, having left Victoria at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning. It is not known just what she is billed to carry away nor where she is bound for, but this will develop very shortly after her arrival.

The steamship Senator, on her next to the last trip in her present service arrive in yesterday, at 6:30 p. m., from San Francisco, and after discharging freight and passengers at the O. R. & N. docks, went on up stream. She discharged 40 tons of local freight here.

STAGE HANDS NEARLY STRIKE, THEN FIRED

LITTLE COMIC TRAGEDY BACK OF THE SCENES ON SUNDAY NIGHT.

The little handful of people who sat in the Astoria Theatre Sunday night and listened to the troubadour-like notes of the Black Patti and her dusky followers probably were unaware of the fact that there was something in the nature of a strike or a lockout going on back of the drop curtain.

Yesterday Manager Hanlon was busy engaging a new stage force. He also "fired" some of them Sunday night, but took them back when he saw that all started to walk out together. Now it is hinted that the five members of the stage force are going to call their affair a lockout and will try to see that no one else gets their jobs—after the improved fashion of modern unions.

The trouble happened something like this: The manager pays $10 for each performance for the stagehands. Out of this the stage manager is supposed to pay the other four helpers. Sunday night, the men say, Manager Hanlon walked back of the stage and announced that he would cut the $10 down to $7.50—which meant there would be less money for each man. They felt they couldn't do the work at the reduced wage and kicked. The stage manager for the Black Patti show also got into the game; he alleged that his company has as much right to a full stage force as any other aggregation that played there, and he insisted on the full force. The house manager told them they could take it or leave it and they immediately walked out.

Finally the matter was patched up by Mr. Hanlon agreeing to pay the old rate, with an assurance, so the men understood, that they were not to be docked in the future.

Had the demands of the men not been agreed to Sunday night there probably wouldn't have been any show, as they were prepared to go out in a body.

GIRLS WANT HUSBANDS TO BE MASTER

INTERESTING EXPERIMENT MADE IN CHICAGO BRINGS THIS FACT OUT.

CHICAGO, April 26.—More than 100 Chicago girls, pretty, vivacious and fairly well to do, want husbands—that is, if they can find the right ones. The responses of these young women, describing their ideal man, were read last night at the Halsted Street Institutional church by the Rev. D. D. Vaughan, during the course of a sermon on "The Model Husband."

A majority of the young women writers surprised both the pastor and congregation by stating positively that they wanted their husband to be "the real boss." They also declared it was not necessary that he be handsome, wealthy, talented, or a "swell dresser" but it was insisted in every case that he be a man who was capable of real love. The word "love" was underscored in most of the letters. The feminine candidates practically were agreed that their future "better halves" must be "good hearted, kind and affectionate." Business or professional men were not preferred by most, but "clean, honest men, who make clean money" were desired.

Dr. Vaughan secured the opinions of the young women by sending out a letter in which he propounded the following questions regarding the model husband:

1. Do you want him to be the head of the house?
  2. Do you want him to always follow your bidding?
  3. Do you want him to give his time to succeed in business or to his home?
  4. Do you care whether he loves you or do you merely want a home?
  5. Do you prefer a business or a professional man?
  6. Must he be wealthy?
  7. Must he be handsome?
  8. Must he be a swell dresser?
  9. Must he be educated or talented?
- Next Sunday night will be devoted to the model wife.
1. Must she be pretty?
  2. Must she be a good cook and a good housekeeper?
  3. Must she be vivacious or quiet?
  4. Must she be stylish?
  5. Must she be a society or a home girl?
  6. Must she be a college graduate?
  7. Must she be talented?
  8. Do you prefer a "new woman" or the old fashioned kind.
  9. Must she have a good disposition?
  10. May she be a clubwoman, reformer or interested in politics?
  11. Do you want a clinging ivy or a sturdy oak?

KANSAS CITY FIRE.

Destructive Blaze in Famous Missouri City On Sunday.

KANSAS CITY, April 26.—A fire which for a time threatened buildings in the heart of Kansas City's principal business district early this morning resulted in the destruction of the Ridge building, a four story brick and stone business and office structure on Walnut street near Ninth. The fire was discovered at 2 o'clock in the basement of the building. Fed by old wooden floors and partitions, the blaze spread with an incredibly short time to every part of the interior of the building and the efforts of the firemen were devoted to the saving of adjoining structures, including the six story building on Main street owned by The Ridge estate, which also owned the burned building. The total loss is estimated at $200,000. The entire stock of the Olney Music Company, one of the occupants of the building, valued at $25,000 was destroyed. The insurance is said to cover considerable more than half of all losses. Only one person—Mrs. Hollington—who lived on an upper floor, was in the building when the fire was discovered. She was taken out unhurt. A stiff southeast wind fanned the fire and filled the air with sparks, starting a dozen smaller fires all of which were extinguished without much damage. The Bank of Commerce was among the buildings threatened.

CHAMPION COON.

Johnson Thinks All His Money Prospects Pretty Easy.

CHICAGO, April 26.—Champion Jack Johnson, according to his own statement, has no intention of cancelling the match with Stanley Ketchel, set for October 12, at San Francisco, unless in the near future he can get a definite date set with Jeffries.

The colored pugilist has arrived from Pittsburg to fulfill a theatrical engagement. In speaking of Ketchel Johnson said: "I will fight Ketchel unless I can get something definite from Jeffries. If Jeffries would agree to meet me I would willingly forfeit the $5000 I have posted for a fight with Ketchel. Why not? I think I can easily beat Ketchel, but why take even a chance with all the great honor and money in a match with Jeffries for I would receive no credit for beating Ketchel that would really amount to anything. I will meet Jack O'Brien in a short bout. It means I am taking no chances and it looks like a pretty easy $5000."

ON FOREIGN CRUISE.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The training ship Newport will leave today on its annual cruise in foreign waters. After stopping at New London, Conn., the Newport will proceed to Falmouth, England. After 10 days there the vessel will go to Copenhagen and thence to Amsterdam, England, the Newport will start for home on August 8. The ship's mail should be addressed "U. S. S. Newport, care postmaster, New York City."

THE DRIVE FOR A LIFE

(Dramatic)

A thrilling story of a woman's Jealousy.

This is a most exciting picture story of a young man who upon being engaged to an estimable girl, returns the letters of a former sweetheart with the intelligence. The sweetheart is incited to revenge by jealousy, and poisoning some candy sends it to the nance as coming from the young man. He discovers her intentions, however, and after a most thrilling drive in an automobile arrives at the girl's home in time to prevent her partaking of the sweets. The drive is one of the most daring attempts ever done in motion pictures.

The Jewel has secured the services of Mr. Jack Colburn, violinist of the Royal Hawaiian Orchestra who will render several solo selections on the violin during the evening performance.
