

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, April 29.—There was a distinctly easier feeling in the egg market today.

Some of the dealers held stiffly for 25 cents and maintained that the market had lost none of the strength of the past few weeks.

From this time on the East will be a factor in the Coast egg trade, for prices East and West are now such as to permit of shipments here from the great producing regions of the Mississippi and Missouri Valleys.

In the event of a slight advance in the East or a decline of some consequence here, the situation would of course be changed materially, but it is clear now that production in this state is falling off, while at the same time current receipts show a greater percentage of "rots" than a few weeks ago.

SIX TO DIE IN ONE WEEK. RICHMOND, Va., April 29.—During the week beginning tomorrow six negroes are to be put to death in the electric chair at the State Penitentiary here.

Five of the six condemned negroes are the men who investigated and carried out the crime in Powhatan county the night of February 12 when Mrs. Mary Skipwith and Walter G. Johnson, her farm manager, were robbed, murdered, and their bodies burned in the home they occupied.

More than a dozen negroes were involved in the crime. Five have been convicted and the others are in jail awaiting trial.

John and William Brown, father and son, are to go to the chair tomorrow morning. Joe and Isham Taylor will follow next Wednesday, and two days later Lewis Jenkins will be put to death, as will also Howard Toler, a negro who assaulted a small negro girl in Pulaski.

More interest is displayed in the initial games over the entire circuit than ever before in the history of the league. The clubs appear evenly matched with all of the managers optimistic in regard to their chances for the pennant.

The season will consist of 140 games, closing Sept. 16. The aggregate mileage is 44,850, or about 5,600 to a club, the largest mileage of any minor league in the country.
