OCEAN, BAR, BAY, DOCK AND RIVER

When the dandy little Columbine sails for Portland on Tuesday next, Leslie, the young son of Captain Charles Richardson will go with his father as guest and mascot for the Astorian cruise. The Columbine will take on lighthouse stores at the metropolis and return down on Thursday next, leaving out for sea and Puget Sound at once. At Seattle she will take on coal for the long voyage to the north, and sail from there on the 11th inst. Captain Pond, U. S. N., commanding the 13th lighthouse district, will make the voyage with her, and will board the ship either at Portland, or at Seattle; and she will return to this port on or about June 5th.

Supt. H. B. Settem, of the Columbia Mills, at Knappton, was in the city yesterday, and reports that there is some business doing over at that busy plant. They are loading the Russian ship Dunbee there, for London delivery, and the schooner Mabel Gale, for San Francisco, and the steamer F. S. Loop reached the mill docks just before he left for this city. He expects to have a good line of foreign shipments to make during the summer season.

The steamer F. S. Loop was the first vessel to disturb the waters of this harbor yesterday morning early, when she arrived down the river and proceeded direct to Knappton. She will carry 800,000 feet of lumber to San Francisco, having cleared from the custom house here with 400,000 from Portland, and 200,000 feet each from Prescott and Knappton.

The steamer Charles R. Spencer will be down from the metropolis at a little afternoon today, on the first run of the season, and will begin her regular service on the Astoria-Portland run, just as she did the business last summer. Captain Charles R. Spencer, Jr., will be in command.

The Lurline was doing plenty of business both ways yesterday. She went up at 7 o'clock last evening with the following named passengers from this port: M. Durkee, N. H. Owens, J. Straites, J. H. Luebbe, Mrs. H. Heckman, A. Honeyman, Dr. C. C. Burrow.

The government steamer Arago arrived down from Stella yesterday afternoon with a barge load of fine piling for use at the jetty.

The steamer Eureka was among the entries in these waters yesterday, coming in from her name-sake port late in the afternoon, and going directly up stream, after a short stop at the Callender dock.

The Callender steamer Myrtle has been in regular service for her company of a week now, and is pronounced one of the best and handiest craft in the company's fleet.

The fine oil tank steamship Rosecrans entered port yesterday morning and proceeded directly up the river.

The steamer Alliance is due to sail from the Callender dock at an early hour this morning for the Coos country, with freight and passengers.

The steamer South Bay is due in this port at any hour from the Golden Gate and will load lumber for the return voyage.

The steamer Shoshone is expected in and at the Callender docks at any time, from San Francisco, after another load of lumber.

The steamer Thomas L. Wand did not arrive in yesterday afternoon, but is expected this morning early.

The fine oil tank steamer Asuncion, Captain Bridgett, is due to enter this port at any hour from the coast of California.

The steamer Johan Poulsen is expected here today or early tomorrow, from San Francisco.

A Cleaner That Cleans.
W. H. Fellman, the furniture man, is at the head of the carpet cleaning industry in Astoria, because he possesses the best and only Vacuum carpet cleaner in the city. He will send it to any house, on demand at moderate rates, and clean your carpets on the floor, without an atom of dust appearing anywhere in the process, and to the saving of household drudgery in this line for the women of the homes. It is the cleaner that cleans, and operates quickly, silently, and admirably. Drop in and leave your order.

The Proper Place.
Go to the Occident Barber Shop if you are particular and desire first-class service. Satisfaction guaranteed. An expert bootblack and porter has also been engaged.

THE BISHOP AT GRACE CHURCH TODAY

HE WILL PREACH AND ADMINISTER RITE OF CONFIRMATION TO CLASS.

Rev. Wm. Seymour Shorts, rector of Grace church, and Attorney Frank Spittle, who were delegates to the Eighth Missionary Conference at Spokane, returned to Astoria last night and report a most successful meeting. Bishop Scadding also came down on last night's train and will preach at Grace church this morning and will also administer the rite of confirmation. There were many of the big men of the Episcopal church in attendance at Spokane.

The Bishop of Sacramento, the Right Rev. Wm. H. Moreland, D. D., will visit Astoria this week. He was an old seminary charge of the rector of Grace church and desires to look over the sights of the lower Columbia. He will be accompanied by Archdeacon Swan of Sacramento, and expects to arrive Monday evening in time to address the vestry of Grace church and Holy Innocents, who are arranging a supper in the Sunday school room of Grace church for Bishop Scadding.

These gentlemen have been in attendance at the missionary council in Spokane during the past week and will visit some old friends on their way home. The council was one of the most helpful and inspiring church meetings ever held on the Pacific Coast. The board of missions was represented by three of its most prominent members, the Right Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D. D. L. L. D., Bishop of Central Pennsylvania; the Rev. Dr. R. F. Alsop, Rector Emeritus of St. Ann's, Brooklyn, and Mr. John W. Wood, the corresponding secretary of the board.

Much important business was done for missions to seamen on this coast, as well as for the general work of the department. A request was made for the board to help us to touch and consecrate our own resources. A most inspiring occasion was the supper given to the members of the council by the church club of Spokane, at the Spokane Hotel, at which speeches were made by Bishop Talbot, Bishop Moreland, and Bishop Spaulding of Salt Lake, and Dr. W. Johnston. A sadness came to the council just as they met by receiving the news of the death of Mr. George C. Thomas, the treasurer of the general board, who was buried in Philadelphia on Saturday, April 24. The council adjourned Friday to meet two years hence at Sacramento.

Line Up Of Has Beens
After a week's arduous labor with a drag net, Manager Hardesty has decided to electrify the public by announcing the line-up of the "Has Beens" who will this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Athletic grounds cross bats with one of the strongest aggregations of ball tossers ever organized by the A. A. A. The line-up is as follows: Right field, Bert Ross; left field, Ross Trullinger; center field, Nace Grant; first base, Millard Frankfurter Hardesty; second base, Bill Grimes; third base, Roxy Graham; shortstop, Watson Binder; catcher, Harry McDermott; pitcher, Charles Halderman; substitutes, Will Madison, Andy Reed. The four "A's" have not announced their line-up, but it will be sufficiently strong to capture the lower boxes at the Astoria theatre tonight and the tourists chairs at the Imperial. The games promises to be interesting and bets were made last night that so good will be the game that neither side will score.

Don't Diet For Fat

You have no appetite for gruel, have you? By the same token, if you scale in excess of 150 pounds, I know you have no great liking for gymnastic stunts. As a rule fat folks are neither athletic nor ascetic, except under compulsion, and nowadays they are not under compulsion to be either, no matter how necessary it is for them to reduce. There is a third, better, and surer way of getting rid of superfluous flesh.

The trouble with both dieting and exercise is, first, the trouble; second, the danger (fatty heart); third, wrinkles; and, fourth, stomach disgust. You are liable to all four if you exercise or diet. On the other hand, you can sidestep all four, and still reduce as much or little as you please, even up to losing a pound a day if you see fit, by taking a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime of the following simple home receipt: One-half ounce Marmola, 1-2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 34 ounces Peppermint Water.

Any druggist will fill this prescription for you cheaply, and you may take it with perfect confidence that it will do no manner of harm. Instead it almost invariably improves the health and, likewise, the complexion.
