CITY COUNCIL MEETS IN REGULAR SESSION

MAYOR'S VETO SUSTAINED ON CURFEW ORDINANCE AND SALOON ORDINANCE IS DEFEATED.

The common council met in regular session last evening. Mayor Smith and all councilmen being present except Belland. The principle business transacted was passing resolutions for the improvement of several streets, the veto message of the mayor on the curfew ordinance, the introduction of the dog ordinance and defeat of the general saloons ordinance. A large number of property owners from Upper Astoria were present to remonstrate against the establishment of the grade on 50th, 51st and 52nd streets in Alderbrook, but as the petition circulated by Mr. Van Dusen was insufficient, there was nothing for the council to take action on.

A petition from John A. Nelson and others asking for the establishment of grades on Commercial street was filed.

A petition from Gus Anderson asking that the arc light between Grand and Franklin avenues on 27th street be removed to the corner of 27th and Grand was referred to the street committee with power to act. This light has been moved back and forward several times.

A remonstrance from Fred Sherman and 20 other remonstrating against the erection of oil tanks on Second and Astor street, stating among other things that the insurance would be increased was read. Councilman Schmidt stated that the insurance on his property had been reduced. Councilman Fox stated that the insurance was no higher on the Astoria Iron Works and he did not consider the building of oil tanks dangerous. The remonstrance was filed, as a permit had already been granted and work commenced on the improvement.

A remonstrance signed by 20 property owners against the establishing the grade of 50th to 54th street was filed.

A communication from Mayor Smith calling attention to the necessity of providing a public playground for children was read and referred to the committee on public property and ways and means.

Report of T. H. Curtis on the Adair drain was read. He recommended two drainage districts where the trouble exists. The seepage runs southeast and northwest and that 38th street is not as bad as some other streets in the district. One cause of sliding ground is the obstruction of natural drainage by improvements, also by tapping small streams for private use, allowing the surplus to run over the ground. He recommended the establishment of a system of drains commencing at the river front and extending to the seat of the trouble. There are many springs on the property caused from swamps 300 to 400 feet below Irving avenue and the slides will not be stopped until the swamps are drained. The report is quite lengthy and covers the question thoroughly. It will be published in full in tomorrow's Astorian.

Report of the committee on streets and public ways on the sewer on Commercial street; establishing the grades of several streets in Alderbrook, and recommending awarding of contracts to lowest bidders on Duane street and Hume avenue were filed.

The committee on fire and water reported favorably on permitting the Union Oil Co. to erect tanks on their property, corner of Second and Astor streets, providing a gate valve is put in, water pipes extended around the entire plant, putting in of a hydrant for fire purposes, building a concrete wall around the property with an iron fence five feet high, concrete walks all around the property and said warehouses and tanks to be absolutely fire proof. The report was adopted.

The committee on health and police recommended that liquor licenses be granted to Norris Staples, Frank Cook, Swan Wilson and J. J. Kenney.

The assessment for the improvement of the alleyway in Upper Astoria was filed.

Ordinance establishing the grade of 14th street between Jerome and Lexington was passed.

Ordinance appropriating money to pay Leander Lebeck for the improvement of Commercial street from 14th to 17th was read a second time.

Ordinance appropriating money to pay for the drain in Trullinger's Astoria for the benefit of C. G. Palmberg was read a second time.

Ordinance appropriating money to Leander Lebeck for the improvement of Commercial street from 14th to 17th was read a second time.

Ordinance appropriating money to pay for the drain in Trullinger's Astoria for the benefit of C. G. Palmberg was read a second time.

An ordinance confirming the special assessment for the improvement of the alleyway in Upper Astoria was passed.

An ordinance appropriating the sum of $2797.00 for the benefit of C. G. Palmberg for improving the alleyway was passed.

Ordinance known as the curfew ordinance accompanied by the mayor's veto was read and the veto sustained by a unanimous vote.

Ordinance establishing the grade on Grand avenue was passed.

Ordinance known as the liquor ordinance providing for the manner of licensing, taxing and regulating saloons and prescribing the districts in which saloon should be allowed, was defeated by consent of the introducer with the understanding that an ordinance prescribing the districts and making a few minor changes should be prepared and introduced at the next meeting. The ordinance will not conflict with the Prael or Belland ordinances.

An ordinance was introduced by Councilman Curtis at the request of the grocers and butchers, prohibiting dogs from going in grocery stores, meat markets or restaurants unless a string was attached to the same and kept in charge of the owner, was read a second time.

Resolutions improving Grand avenue and 5th; improving 14th from Commercial to Bond; establishing the grade on 1st from Commercial to Exchange; improving Bond street from 12th to 14th; assessment for the improvement of Commercial from 14th to 17th for viewers to meet on June 5th and equalize the same were passed.

Councilman Curtis called the attention of the Council to a petition presented by Mrs. Grant and Mayor Smith suggested that his attention had been called to the existence of three or four streets dedicated by J. M. Shively, running east and west, north of Commercial street, now claimed by D. H. Welch and others and the matter was referred to the city attorney for an opinion.

Mayor Smith called attention to the damage being done by the oil on the Columbia river and suggesting that the matter be taken up with the United States engineers, was on motion referred to a committee consisting of Leinenweber, Fox and Wilson.

Councilman Karinen called attention to the fact of the existence of two or three blind pigs, one on 6th street between Bond and Astor and one near a bath house on Astor streets. Chief Oberg stated his attention had been called to the existence of the blind pigs and the police force proposed to put a stop to all of them. It was said it was not fair to saloonkeepers who pay a license and close their places on Sunday to allow blind pigs to run on Sunday and one of them was the cause of considerable drunkenness.

There being no further business the council adjourned.

DEATH FALLS QUICKLY ON HOME BUILDER

JOHN ISAACSON KILLED BY FALLING TREE AT KNAPPA, FALLING TREE AT KNAPPA

John Isaacson was instantly killed at Knappa last Saturday night by a burning tree falling on him. He and his brother Axel, who had recently arrived from Santa Idaho, had made arrangements to purchase the Carl Ross farm and had selected a site for a house and were burning some slashing and dead timber. John saw that the burning tree was about to fall and called to the men working there to look out. No sooner had he spoken than the tree fell on John crushing him instantly to death. Coroner Gilbaugh was notified and left yesterday morning. After investigating the matter he decided no inquest was necessary. The body was brought to Astoria and prepared for shipment to Idaho. It will be accompanied by his brother, and it is doubtful if he will return again to Knappa. The deceased leaves a widow and five little ones at the Idaho home, and was but 38 years of age.
