AMONG THE PUGS.

NEW YORK, May 17 .- Stanley Ketchel announced last night that he would fight Billy Papke, who knocked out Hugo Kelly in one round Saturday, and that he would agree to make 158 pounds, but would insist on much larger purse than the $6000 which has been mentioned previously. betchel intimated that he would demand a purse of from $10,000 to $15 cco. As Ketchel has many engagements ahead and his demands are not considered promising for a fight with Papke, there is some thought of matching him with Tommy Ryan, the veteran, who has just come forward with a broadside challenge.

INGALLS DEAD AT HIS FARM HOME

HE SUCCUMBED YESTERDAY MORNING TO A BRIEF ILL. NESS OF PNEUMONIA.

Walter Jones Ingalls, one of the best known citizens of Clatsop county, is no more. He died at his Lewis & Clark ranch yesterday morning at 4:10 o'clock, after but a few days' illness from pneumonia. The news came as a distinct shock to this comfigure of importance for many years, although it was known that he was dangerously sick.

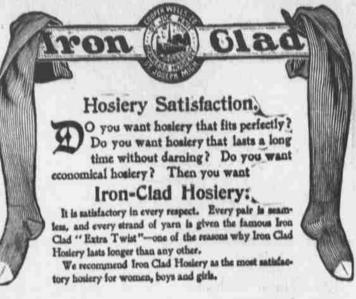

Mr. Ingalls was a native of Rich ford, Franklin county, Vermont, and was born there in December. 1841. John Pox, Pres. which gave him just 68 years of lift. 25 of which he spent in this county and section.

When quite a young man he went to Lawrence, Mass, and was there when the awful disaster of collapse overtook the famous mills of that party that was beneath the walls when they fell. He afterward went to Lynn, Mass, where he worked at the shoemakers' trade; and there in vented an axle-cutter with which he went on the road and canvassed a greater part of the country. The deceased came to Clarsop in 1884, and was so deeply impressed with the possibilities of this country. that he remained and built his home on the Lewis & Clark, and raised his family; becoming almost at once one of the active political figures of this section, and always a consistant and ardent Republican. Mr. Ingalls was of resolute and aggressive character and yet was one of the freest and readiest in all emergencies of interest and aid and neighborly good will He was strictly honorable in all his dealings and very exacting in allmatters of business. He was a worker for the uplift and advantage of There has been a number of his home section and many of the
