INTEREST AND USURY BILL

Washington Senators Debate It, But The interest and usury bill was up for lengthy debate in the senate again Monday morning, but after debate no action was taken and the bill was left suspended in the air, when the senate adjourned to participate in the joint ballot for United States senator. The Mantz-Gray contest was taken up by special order, at the afternoon session. H. J. Snively, of Yakima, on behalf of Mantz, and W. H. Smiley, of Colville, on behalf of Grav, were each given 40 minutes in which to address the senate. The majority and minority reports of the senate judiciary committee practically held that there had been no election in the Stevens-Spokane district. The hearing and discussion was continued until Tuesday afternoon. One bill was introduced. It provides that in cities of over 5,000 inhabitants justices of the peace shall receive $2,000 and constables $1,200 per year.

JOINT MEETING HELD AT TACOMA

Measures That Are to Be Recommended to the Two Legislatures for Enactment.

An unanimous agreement has been reached by the joint legislative committees of Oregon and Washington touching fishing industries of mutual interest to both states. They formulated resolutions making such recommendations as will, it is thought, obviate differences between the two states arising from conflicting laws.

Among the points of agreement eached may be mentioned the follow-
