

THE DALLES IN ASHES!

A $200,000 FIRE.

Nearly all of the Business Portion of Town Burned.

FRENCH'S WAREHOUSE IS UNINJURED.

Only one Hotel Escapes The Conflagration.

The Dalles was almost totally destroyed by fire on the 21st, inst. The fire commenced in the Pioneer Hotel, about 8 o'clock in the evening, and swept everything before it on First street from Waldron's drug store and Moody's to the Umatilla House, including that, and burned one side of Second street clear, as far as French & McFarland's. The blaze crossed over and burned everything from the corner opposite Fred Derber's old stand down as far as Michelbach's shop, including Humanson's brick, occupied by Mr. Newman, and burned up to Condon's law office, on the corner of Third street. The Churches are occupied by homeless families. The people are all under a disheartening gloom.

Following is a list of the Business Houses that were burned out

ON MAIN STREET.

Z. F. Moody, warehouse; Nickelson & Freiden, Maz Vogt & Co., Cohen & Cooper, S. Blumauer & Son, B. Wolf, Jos. Freiman, boot and shoe store; F. Dehm, building; Henry Clerish, saloon; B. Korten, building; Renfro & Ball, R. Lusher, barber shop, two buildings; F. Wickman, H. Neilsen, Mt. Hood saloon, E. Martin & Co building; Tim Baldwin, two small buildings—fire proof stone building didn't burn; J. Dougherty, store and building; Jos. Diamond, H. D. Merwin, saloon; Page, carpenter shop, buildings, N. H. Gates; E. Martin & Co., Martin's Hall and two stores; John Ogilbee and Charles Cooper, Williams, Marchbanks & Co., jivery stables, warehouse, wood yard on the beach; Baldwin Bros. two buildings; Umatilla House, Handley & Sinnott, new and old buildings; China wash house; H. Sunshine, A. E. Ditzel, barber shop; three China wash houses; Oaks & Co., fruit store and saloon; A. H. Bonzy, saloon; H. Burstow, fruit store; O. S. Savage, paints; Wm. Snyder, restaurant and two buildings; gunsmith shop; Empire Hotel, two buildings; Haudley & Sinnott and Thomas Smith owners; fire was stopped by fire-proof building of Snipes & Kinersly.

SECOND STREET.

Geo. Ruch, store and bakery; A. Bettingen, occupied by A. Baum, general store; Walla Walla Hotel, J. B. Smith; F. G. Bochow, cigar store; Henry Drew barber shop; Pioneer Hotel, Louis Kiss; H. Jacobs, cigar store; John Law, watchmaker, building belonging to Handley & Sinnott; H. Gerson, and Jacobs, cigar and variety stores; Henry Groner, saloon; two buildings, Emile Shanno; Jackson Saloon, Thos. Cook; Good Templar's Hall; Hosc, Hook and Ladder, and Jackson Engine Company rooms, N. H. Gates, proprietor; Mrs. Kate Springer, two buildings; John Morgan, residence; Charles Kron, three buildings; Berbring & McInerney, store partly damaged; A. Bettingen, tin store; J. B. Cickerson, butcher shop; C. T. Miller, drugs and E. Beck Jeweler, the last three buildings, Max Vogt & Co.; Ed. Weeks, saloon, building, N. Matthias; M. & L. Newman, store, brick building, Mrs. Phoebe Humason.

WASHINGTON STREET.

F. Vogt & Callenberg, store and building.

COURT STREET.

Henry Schmidt, saloon and reading house; Judge Whitten, law office; W. H. Gillhousen, photograph gallery; J. B. Condou, law office.

O. S. N. COMPANY.

The offices and locomotive house of the O. S. N. Co., were also destroyed. The above is the list of those whose places of business were destroyed, but who, as a general thing, saved the larger portion of their goods. Nearly all are able to stand the loss, and no doubt will resume business immediately.

The story is that one of the employees of the Pioneer Hotel, while engaged in filling the lamps in the lamp-room, accidentally set fire to the oil-soaked floor.
