ONLY PAPER IN GRANT COUNTY.

Official Paper For Grant County.

Canyon City, Saturday Aug. 2, 1879.

S. H. SHEPHERD, - - - - - EDITOR.

LEAP AND REGRET.

By accident we received a Walla Walla Statesman this week and in it we find an article in which the base ass-tute editor thereof goes after us in the manner of his daily life, by saying that he questioned his military title. We never knew that he had a "military title," and knowing him as we do, we would not believe it even if we were to see his commission, unless he brought proof, undeniable, that it was not a forgery. He also says he does not know who or what we are. Well, Frank, we are the one whom you could not frighten into telling you who our correspondent was that got his report of the Camp Curry fight into the Bedrock Democrat before you got yours into the Chronicle, and also the one who refused to drink several times with you in Baker City, for the reason that we never drink with any persons but gentlemen. Perhaps it is on account of his barbarous mind that he does not recollect us. No, the truth of the matter is that he is "hostile" because we do not see fit to vilify honest men, like Major Rinehart, and lisp such gimmls as Frank Parker, acting editor of the Walla Walla Breech-Clout.

THE Postmaster General has issued orders that no money order shall be paid and no registered letter delivered to any of the following named firms: Sunbeam Publishing Co., Russell & Co., Leavitt & Co., New Bedford, Mass.; H. A. Burknett, New York City; Royal, Man & Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.; Arizona Lottery, Prescott, Arizona; Edward A. Eggleston, Rossita, Colorado; Kentucky Land Co., New Bedford, Mass.; Rev. Jos. T. Inman, Alison & Hearn, Francis H. Hearn, N. Y.; Michael Goldwater, Prescott, Arizona; A. Jones & Son, Hopkenton, Mass.

Reader, cut out the above and paste it in your hat.

On Leave of Absence.

Lieut. R. P. Wainwright came in on the Thursday morning stage from Walla Walla. The Lieutenant is on a four month's leave of absence, and will visit friends in the East during that time. He has been on this coast four years and has spent a great portion of his time either on duty at some one of our frontier posts or in the field. Full of courage, energy and ambition, he is a very useful man in this part of the service. During the last campaign he bore his share of the fatigues and hardships of long marches by day or night, and whether riding in dust under a burning sun, or making a night march to surround a wily foe, he was always the same genial pleasant gentleman. He deserves great credit for the coolness and bravery displayed in the charge which closed the battle at Umatilla Agency a year ago this month. — Idaho Democrat.

THE Indian fighter of the Breech Clout, Walla Walla, says he will come over here some time and get more subscribers in a half day than we have on our entire list. If you do, Frankie, you can start a daily paper through which to slander honorable men that are best liked where best known. You have seen fit to open a fight on us without the least provocation, or we would not have disgraced our columns to notice you, thereby giving you prominence throughout the state.

AN APOLOGY.—We hope our readers will excuse us for devoting so much space to a nunny this week. The people here all know Maj Rinehart, ourself, and—are sorry that they—know Frank Parker. This is the first time that we have mentioned his name in the News and hope it will be the last. It is our rule that when a person lies about us we do not feel easy till we tell them our mind. Adieu.

THE SCAVENGER.

Frank Parker, now of the Walla Walla Statesman, prior to his employment by the military last summer seems to have been playing the role of scavenger around the Malheur Agency slaughter pen. And while engaged in this laudable rivalry with crows, blowflies, and maggots, he got into his possession about one hundred beef-hides. These not being putrid enough to suit his cess-pool appetite, he sold them, and then refused to account for the price thereof. The agent made him pay for these hides, at which he became very wrathful, and true to his carrion crow instincts he is now perched on a three legged stool in Walla Walla trying to blow his foul breath upon the agent who made him pay.

A Quaker Printer's Proverbs.

Never send an article for publication without giving the editor thy name, for thy name often secures publication to worthless articles.

Never do thou loaf about, nor knock down the type, or the boys will love thee as they do the shade trees—when thou leavest.

Thou shouldst never read the copy on the printer's case or the sharp and hooked container thereof, or he may knock thee into pi.

Never enquire of the editor for the news, for behold it is his business to give it to thee at the appointed time without thou asking for it.

It is not right that thou shouldst ask him who is the author of an article, for it his duty to keep such things unto himself.

Prefer thine own town paper to any other, and subscribe for it immediately.

Pay for it in advance, and it shall be well with thee and thine.

Military Notes.

Col. Granville O. Haller, U. S. A., having reported at these headquarters, pursuant to orders from the war department, will proceed to Coupeville, W. T., and there await further orders.

1st Lieutenant Frazier A. Boutelle, 1st cavalry, is appointed captain of the department team of eight, selected by competition to compete for the division prize in rifle shooting. He will at once take charge of the team, and proceed by the steamer of the 23 instant from Portland to the headquarters of the military division, reporting on arrival to the assistant adjutant general for further orders and instructions.

The first State election will take place in Kentucky on the 4th of next month, when State officers and a Legislature are to be chosen. California comes next on the 3rd of September, the Maine election on the 8th of the same month, and the Ohio election on the 7th of October. Elections in Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Wisconsin, will be held on the 3d of November.—Standard.
