

The Grant County News.

ONLY PAPER IN GRANT COUNTY.

Official Paper For Grant County.

Canyon City, Saturday Aug. 16, 1879.

S. H. SHEPHERD, - - - - - EDITOR.

The Grant County Dish Rag is edited by a notorious leech they call S. H. Shepherd; he is the get of some old drab imported years ago, who never could, with all her filth, raise enough to take her out of peonage. Of the thousands who might have been no man ever claimed him for his son.—Walla Walla Statesman.

The Editor of the Walla Walla Statesman, and because we got the best of him on "ink flowing," in his last issue calls us names that no man has ever called us to our face. Now, understand that our mother, a Christian lady whom we loved dearly, died nearly ten years ago in Iowa, and our father, Col. James Shepherd, now at Baker City, and the oldest editor in the United States, being now over 79 years of age, cannot be referred to by the editor of the Walla Walla Statesman, or any other editor, if there be any so low, as he has done, without a personal reproach from us. Mr. Parker, you can say what you please about us or our paper, but remember now and forever that you cannot blackguard our family. In speaking as you have in the above will only show to the people, who do not now know you, what you are, and also injures Mrs. Newell's paper to an alarming extent—you cannot be injured, you are too low. This is the last time we notice you in our paper.

CHANGE IT.—Our exchanges will please change the name of the Times of Grant county to the GRANT COUNTY NEWS, as it gives us inconvenience often for the reason that no such paper exists as the Grant County Times. Also remember that J. M. Shepherd, of the Bodrock Democrat, is OUR BROTHER and not our father. The lamented Delazon Smith, "the lion of Linn," was also a brother-in-law of ours.

THE GRANT COUNTY NEWS published at Canyon City by Mr. S. H. Shepherd is doing much to advertise the resources of that rich section of Eastern Oregon. The proprietor's long service on his father's (my brother, please.—Ed.) paper, the Baker Democrat, fitted him specially for the work he is now doing so well.—Portland Oregonian.

ENTERPRISE.—Judge M. L. Olmsted, who by the way is imbued with a full share of public enterprise, took upon himself the duty to enlarge our list of subscribers and as the result of his labors handed to us quite a list last Sunday. The papers will all be sent as directed, and we, with the people, thank the Judge for his earnestness in the matter. Mr. Olmsted did the soliciting for the love he has for the county.

AT HOME.—We have often thought that if any couple deserved a nice home it was Mr. and Mrs. Philips, of this city. And if one goes up to their beautiful home and for a few hours leisurely walk over the place and see the moss literally heaped down to the ground with the choicest of apples, pears and plums, besides every variety of small fruit in abundance, and then go down to the house and have a talk with the magpie, who is ever ready to converse with you and that in a clear, plain tone that any child can understand, you will unite with us in saying that they really have a fine home. The bird will invite you to "come in," in as plain words as you can speak yourself, and will then enter into a conversation with perfect ease and without lack of words. It is a truly wonderful bird. Again we say that with the fine fruit, beautiful home and their numerous pets, Mr. and Mrs. Philips have the place they so richly deserve and are at home.

A stage leaves Fort McDermitt for Canyon City via Whitehorse, Juniper Lake and Fort Harney, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 6 A. M.—Avalanche.

FUTURE PROSPECTS.

Our investigation of the reports from the Granite Creek district are very encouraging, and confirm our previous assertions that Grant county will in a few years be the best mineral producing county on the coast. Veins of ore are being struck every day in the Monumental and other mines as have never been found before except on the Coast. We have an abiding faith in Granite district, based upon the various reports that we have received from men whose judgment we can rely upon, and we extend to the parties interested in that district our best wishes for the fulfillment of their most sanguine expectations. As the most of them are our immediate citizens their prosperity adds another factor to the prosperity of our inviting county. Every new ledge discovered, and every pound of ore extracted in this county brings its advantages to our already prosperous towns and county, and instead of living in an out-of-the-way place we will soon become the center of a grand thoroughfare, with our daily line of coaches filled with passengers, and heavily loaded teams passing and re-passing on their way to these rich camps.

We are already largely benefitted by the camps now in operation and any new development adds to our commerce and brings the circulating medium among us, to benefit the store-keeper, hotel-keeper, saloon-keeper, stage lines and every other agent depending upon new developments in mines or agriculture.
