

To Our Patrons.

When we started the News we sent out the first week 350 copies, 38 papers more than any Journal ever had in this county; from that time on the list has rapidly increased until our circulation has reached a point unheard of before in the history of any paper in Oregon as the following will testify:

This paper is now a trifle over fourteen months old, and has a larger circulation than any paper in this State ever had at its age. * * * * * Looking over our mail books we now find 382 names.—Inland Empire.
