The Final Meeting of the Woman's Convention.

We take the following from the Portland Daily Bee:

The meetings of the Suffragists still continue to attract a great deal of attention by reason of the interesting topics of debate and the uniqueness of the idea of ladies—some of them of great intelligence good standing and wealth—throwing down the glove and taking a bold stand against the customs and ideas that have been in force since "Adam delved and Eve span." The arguments of the ladies are not without weight, and the proceedings are conducted with harmony and propriety. The most natural incident of the entire series of meetings happened yesterday afternoon, when Mr. E. F. Heroy was elected President of the Association by acclamation, thus proving beyond cavil that, let woman say what she will, she must and does rely on "down trodden man." She can't get along without him; she can't accomplish anything but by his aid. This morning the attendance at the final meeting was good, and President Heroy appeared to be at home in the congested crowd.

The following is a synopsis of what was done up to the time of adjournment:

MORNING SESSION.

E. F. Heroy elected President by acclamation. Mrs. J. Devore Johnson, Recording Secretary, and Mrs. M. A. Edmunds, Corresponding Secretary, were elected in the same manner. Mrs. Keenan was elected Treasurer by ballot. Mrs. Dunaway led the married Heroy to the chair.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Mrs. J. Devore Johnson, Recording Secretary, and Mrs. M. A. Edmunds, Corresponding Secretary, were elected in the same manner. Mrs. Keenan was elected Treasurer by ballot. Mrs. Dunaway led the married Heroy to the chair. The following vice-presidents were then appointed: Mrs. Anna Colburn, of Multnomah; Mrs. E. A. McCown, of Clackamas; Mrs. M. Munn of Marion; Miss Maggie Foster, of Linn; Miss Lillian Cooks, of Yamhill; Mrs. M. J. Flynn, of Jackson; Mrs. E. Geane, of Douglas; Mrs. Shaw Smith, of Clatsop; Mrs. Nettie of Polk; Mrs. Dannel, of Wasco; Mrs. Taylor, of Washington; Mrs. Webster, of Coos and Curry; Mrs. Myers, of Josephine; Mrs. Curney, of Grant; Mrs. Eaton, of Union; Mrs. Cleaver, of Baker; Mrs. Olney, of Lake; Mrs. Chas. C. of Benton; Mrs. Remm, of Lane.

Resolutions were then in order and the following were adopted: Resolved, That the thanks of this association are hereby tendered to the ladies in the great National Woman Suffrage organization, who, with Susan B. Anthony, at their head, have secured repeated hearings before the judiciary committee and committee on privileges and elections in the Senate of the United States.

Resolved, That our thanks are due, and are heartily tendered to Wheeler, Vice-President of the United States; Beck and Williams, of Kentucky; Allison and Kirkwood, of Iowa; Dawes, of Massachusetts; Ferry, of Michigan; Kernan, of New York; Pendleton, of Ohio; Cookling, of New York; Davis, of Illinois; Anthony, of Rhode Island; Baldwin, of Michigan; Voorhees, of Indiana; Saunders, of Nebraska; Farley, of California; Vest and Cokrell, of Missouri; Paddock, of Nebraska; Booth, of California; Burdick, of Rhode Island; Wallace, of Pennsylvania; McPherson, of New Jersey; Cameron, of Pennsylvania; Hoar, of Massachusetts; Plumb, of Kansas; McDonald, of Indiana; Hamlin of Maine; and Thurman, of Ohio; for their just action in presenting petitions for a sixteenth amendment declaring suffrage based upon citizenship without distinction of sex, and memorial praying for the removal of individual woman's political disabilities before the Senate of the United States. And,

Resolved, That copies of the New Northwest containing this resolution be forwarded to the honorable gentlemen who have thus invoked our grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That this Association tender thanks to the Oregon railway and steamboat companies; to the newspapers for their courteous reports; to D. W. Prentice & Co., for the use of piano, and to Dr. O. B. Bird, Miss Mary Test, Miss Jones, Mrs. Cruzan, Mrs. H. W. Scott, Miss Annie Fearnside, Miss Sonora Witherell, Judge Adams, Rev. Mr. Cruzan and others for their able assistance in the convention.

Mrs. H. A. Laughery offered the following:

Resolved, That each woman of property should send a personal petition to the members of the Legislature and Senate of her precinct requesting to be relieved of taxation on her property, or be allowed to represent it by a vote.

EVENING SESSION.

A large crowd was present and interesting proceedings were the order.

MORNING SESSION.

The following is the account of this morning's business as furnished us by the secretary:

The session was called to order at 10 A. M., President Heroy in the chair. Minutes of the previous session read and approved.

The President appointed Mrs. A. S. Dunaway and Mrs. H. A. Laughery assistant members of the executive committee.

The following report of the finance committee was read and accepted: Receipts, $14 62; disbursements, $14 10; balance in treasury, 53 cents.

It was voted to hold a called session of the Association at Salem during the next Legislative session.

Ex-Governor Gibbs waited upon the Association and tendered delegates the free use of the public library during their stay in the city. The invitation was accepted, with thanks, and the Association adjourned sine die.

Servant Girls' Kisses.

The following from the Carson Appeal, is given weight by the circumstance that it was written by a minister's son—Sam Davis—who is supposed to know a great deal about the subject he treats of here.

During the past few weeks a very unwholesome epidemic has broken out among the servant girls. Hardly a day passes but one or two of them, heretofore carrying a spotless reputation, is caught kissing a preacher. It seems strange that a servant girl can not know her place and attend properly to household duties intrusted to her care, without neglecting their work to take liberties with unprotected preachers straying about the house alone. A servant who would deliberately take advantage of an innocent pastor, should be utterly tabooed by the employment agencies and be compelled to find her level. A minister of the gospel, earnestly endeavoring to follow out the ramifications of the plan of salvation, is entitled to be protected in his own house, which is rightly his castle. The hired help seem to be getting so emboldened by success that no divine is safe if his wife happens to walk out for a few moments. It is high time that some law was passed in all of the States clearly defining the duties of servants and fixing penalties for overstepping the bounds of modesty. A preacher has scarcely any show when once in the clutches of a bold, bad servant girl, who cares little for her own character, and ignores the fact that she is sapping the foundations of religion and attacking the bulwarks that have surrounded the Christian faith for ages. The servant girl should be suppressed, even if it takes an amendment to the Constitution to bring about the necessary reform. In a crisis like this the church needs the strong arm of a great Government to protect it.

The Princess Sallie.

The Princess Sallie Winnetuoca is on the war path. The Silver State mentioned the fact of her being drunk here in town, and she has sworn vengeance against all connected with it. Yesterday she sent a dispatch threatening to have the heart's blood of the editor, and if she did not succeed in that, to fight him with pistols or knives, just to show him how a drunken woman can shoot. The operator who telegraphed the dispatch from Lovelocks, says white men wrote the dispatch, and probably incited her to send it. They will have an opportunity to explain their connection with the matter, as warrants have been issued for the arrest of all who are known to have been connected with the affair. A drunken savage, who threatens to take the life's blood of a white person, should be given to understand that there is such a thing as a jail in the community.—Silver State.

Married Men's Indicator.

Edison is very well in his way, says the New York World, but the inventor that will be remembered when all others are forgotten is a party named Miekley, of Boston, who has just rendered his fellow-men an inestimable service by producing an apparatus called the "Married Men's Indicator," or the patent "Domestic Barometer." This ingenious device is simply a wonderfully sensitive arrangement of the ordinary barometer, which infallibly detects the most minute alterations in the atmospheric conditions. The married men returning late from the alleged "lodge," or other locality contraband of war, indulges in no fearful speculations as to his reception. He simply takes the "Indicator" from its case and inserts its projection arranged for the purpose through the key-hole. Instantly the domestic temperature within is recorded by the dial. If it marks S. E.—set fair; S. A.—sound asleep; or even C. S.—cross but sleep, he brings his proprietary box of fried oysters well to the front, chews a clove and enters boldly. If, however, the faithful little instrument reports S. B.—storm brewing; or V. S. L.—very squally, with lightning, he doesn't lose any valuable time in warfare, but lies him to the nearest hotel and sends an "up all night with a sick friend" note, with some matinee tickets and a new bonnet home in the morning. Truly, if science keeps on in this way, this world will be quite a comfortable place to live in after a while.

NEW ORLEANS Feb. 17.—Owing to the remarkable increase in the price of printing paper, the proprietors of newspapers last evening adopted the following:

Resolved, That the representatives of Louisiana in Congress be and are hereby earnestly requested to use their influence to have the duty on printing paper, chemicals and materials used in the manufacture thereof, removed or materially reduced.

The Republican Central Committee met at Salem on the 18th inst., at 2 o'clock. The committee decided on Portland as the place to hold the next State Convention, on Wednesday, April 21st. The apportionment was based on the vote cast for Secretary of State, one delegate for every one hundred and for any fraction over fifty votes so cast. The following is the delegation under this apportionment: Baker 4, Benton 6, Clackamas 10, Clatsop 5, Columbia 2, Coos 6, Curry 2, Douglas 11, Grant 5, Jackson 6, Linn 11, Marion 17, Multnomah 24, Polk 7, Tillamook 1, Umatilla 7, Union 5, Wasco 6, Washington 8, Yamhill 9, Josephine 2, Lake 2, Lane 9; total, 165. It is recommended by the committee that the primaries be held on the 3d of April and the county conventions on the 10th. The committee was principally made up of proxies.
