COUNTY NEWS.

We have turned over our right as agent for the Chicago News and San Francisco Chronicle to our worthy Postmaster, E. Hall. The Grant County News will be furnished hereafter independent of all other papers for $3 per year, cash in advance. We get all the new subscribers we can attend to without clubbing with any other paper.

The Entertainment last Friday night was a success in every particular. "Tenting To-night," "Dumb Orator," and "Stage Struck" were played to perfection. The troupe, being composed entirely of home talent, is hard to beat by more pretentious companies.

W. O. REYNOLDS, a former typo in the Bedrock Democrat office, has purchased an interest in that paper. "Billy," we wish you success in your adventure.

Dr. Dodson called in and gave us a friendly shake a few days ago. Dr. says they have measles enough to go around up at Prairie.

JAS. CLEAVER and his brother Charlie were in to see the News this week. James says he had all the measles he wanted.

Mrs. W. J. COOKSEY contemplates going to Lakeview in a few days to spend the Summer.

BORN.—To the wife of Wm. Ingle, near Mt. Vernon, on Monday last, a son.

O. P. CRESAP spent a few days in town this week.

Every young man should buy his "lollipop" a bottle of Dandelion Bitters.

How about the races? we have not heard much about the race track for some time.

A Fine piece of marble, suitable for a top to a bureau, for sale. Inquire at this office.

Mr. E. Buckley and wife have removed up to the Southworth mill to spend the Summer.

Freight teams are now coming in and buyers will soon have a lot of new goods to select from.

Mrs. SAM'L Carpenter, of Robinsonville, has been spending several days in town visiting friends.

The Stages have been running a little irregular for a few days past, in consequence of the new change.

The Sunday School re-union that was to have taken place in this city, this month, has been indefinitely postponed.

SEVERAL of the candidates for office in this county are out electioneering and politics around town is rather quiet.

COL. LANG has started several bands of his cattle towards the East. He is driving about 1500 head out of this section.

FINE PRESENTS.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jacobs, of this city, received, from East Weymouth, Mass., a few days ago the following presents as wedding gifts from friends and relatives in the above named State: Two silver napkin rings, two silver casters, cake basket, two dozen silver knives and forks, silver gravy ladle, silver soup ladle, three butter knives, pickle jar and fork, silver butter dish, silver spoon holder, two desert spoons, two table spoons, silver card receiver, berry dish, vase, pie knife, dozen teaspoons, majolica fruit dish, plaster statue of Ruth, one volume Encyclopedia of poetry and other volumes of poetry, pair gold and turquoise earrings, pocket travelling companion also numerous handsome pictures a bronze clock and $25 in money.

FINE PORTRAITS.—Mr. J. N. Townsley is in our city soliciting for that well known artist, Mrs. R. C. Springer, of San Francisco, who copies and enlarges from small pictures of all kinds to any size and finishes in India ink, water color, crayon or oil, in the finest style of the art, any portrait he may send to her. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever," therefore we would advise all who desire to have a beautiful picture of their friends to give their order to Mr. Townsley. He will visit John Day, Marysville and Prairie City soon, and it will be well to have your pictures ready to give to him when he calls on you. He will also visit Baker City.

We received a call from Mr. Burstow, father of Harry Burstow, who was murdered on North Fork, a few months since, by Gid Beacham. We refrain from saying anything about the matter as the case is on trial. But we hope that justice will be done as this murdering business is getting to be altogether too common in this county.

We have received the initial number of the "Silverton Appeal," published by H. G. Guild, formerly of this city. It is a neat little paper, and if Bro. Guild keeps up the present appearance of his paper the people of Marion County ought to secure him at least 2,000 subscribers, and plenty of ads. Success attend you, H. G.

PERSONAL.

The following persons have either subscribed or renewed their subscription to THE NEWS since last issue: T. Pruitt, O. P. Cresap, E. S. Penfield, A. Sproul, J. D. Combs, Vanata Bros, Joseph Robertson and S. Hillis.

By referring to another column the readers of this paper will see that a Grand Ball is on the tapis. Let all attend and your hearts will soon be cheered by sweet music from the Brass Band.

A fine baby carriage for sale or trade for grain, chickens, flour, or cash.

We are informed that a few weeks ago a man by the name of Heldy attacked J. J. Cozart with a revolver, shooting him through the wrist. Not serious.

Mr. E. S. Penfield has gone to Salem to attend the State Grange meeting. He is the delegate from this county. The State Meeting will be held on the 25th inst.

A Base Ball Club is being organized in this place, and soon arnica will be in demand, as black eyes, sprained fingers and such will be numerous. Boys, where are you going to find a place large enough to make the bases?

Overholt & Muldrick have just received a full and complete assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, Clothing and in fact everything usually kept in a first class general store. Before purchasing elsewhere buyers will do well to see and price their goods, as they offer extra goods. Look out for their new "ad." next week.

At the next term of Circuit Court in this county three murder cases will be tried, and also one for attempt to commit murder.

State and Territorial.

The Corvallis Brewery is no more. There are 142 voters in Eola precinct.

Some improvements in the way of moving and refitting buildings in chronicled at Perrydale.

The narrow gauge is now all the talk in King's Valley. Over $6,000 of the subsidy has been subscribed.

Onward Lodge, I. O. G. T., at Knox Butte, Linn county, initiated twenty members during the past term.

Albany congratulates itself that the Columbia has sailed, and its new hook and ladder truck is on the way.

Four women of Amity met in the store of W. C. Brown recently whose united weight was 838 pounds.

The Standard Mills, at Milwaukie, have resumed business, the water having receded sufficiently to release the machinery.

The Reporter calls the measles a "tame contagion." The editor of that paper evidently had them before he can remember.

The people of Alsea Bay want an addition of bona fide settlers who will build school houses and churches and make homes.

Excelsior Lodge, I. O. G. T., of Corvallis order their Lodge room to be draped in mourning for 30 days in memory of W. B. Carter.

In addition to the six attorneys who reside at Dallas, 22 were in attendance from abroad during the session of the Circuit Court at that place the past week.

It is quite the fashion this year for country newspapers to sell out their columns to political parties. It is easier and more remunerative than to run politics on their own account.

The trial of R. M. Johnson for the murder of Mason Crockerly began in the Dallas Circuit Court on Friday morning. The trial is one that will attract great attention, and will occupy several days.

Albany will be supplied with water by the new works from the canal above the city limits and conducted through a pipe down the canal through probably three filters, and will be forced directly into the mains by the use of a large turbine water wheel.

Last Saturday a 50,000 pound Loeffell turbine wheel was taken out of the Magnolia Mills to be sent to Shaw & Young at Turner's. It will be used at that place in propelling the machinery of a flouring mill. This wheel has not been in use since Mr. Fossler's return from the East in 1870.

Freights have been reduced on the Western Oregon Railroad, from McMinnville to Portland and vice versa, as follows: First class, per ton, $3; former rates, $5 20. Second class, per ton, $2 50; former rates, $4 20. Third class, $2; formerly $3 20. Grain and mill stuffs are held at the former price. This reduction began with May 12th and will hold good until further orders.

The commencement exercises of the Agricultural College will be held at Corvallis from the 23d to the 26th of May, inclusive. The public generally and the farmers of Oregon in particular are invited to be present at public examination of the students on the 21st instant.

SOUTHERN OREGON.

A man named Burlison, living on Gray's Creek, a tributary of Applegate, in Josephine county, was thrown from his wagon last Friday and instantly killed, his neck being broken by the fall. He was about sixty years of age.

The Sentinel mentions the death on the 7th inst. of Mrs. Benedict, a pioneer of the Rogue River Valley and a heroine of the Indian war of 1855. She was at one time in company with her husband overtaken in an attempted flight on Slate Creek and narrowly escaped with her life, four bullets piercing her clothing. One by one these actors in Oregon's early history depart.

The Oregon Kidney Tea.

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well-known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

Pendleton, Ogn, Jan. 12, 1880.
Having used the OREGON KIDNEY TEA for one of my sons, whose urinary organs were injured by taking turpentine, I cheerfully certify to its beneficial effects, and recommend the same to the public. LOT LIVERMORE,
Agent for Wells, Fargo & Co.

Portland, Ogn., Jan. 22, 1880.
I hereby certify that I have used the OREGON KIDNEY TEA and been greatly benefited by it. I heartily recommend it to the public.
CRAIGIE SHARP, JR.,
Traveling Agent for Wheeler & Wilson Mfg. Co., 30, Geary St., S. F.

YOUNG Kallach, now in jail in San Francisco, is a preacher, the son of a preacher, and the grandson of a preacher. He was brought up on the Bible. Prayer has been a familiar sound in his ears ever since he began to understand the meaning of words. He has heard hundreds of sermons, and latterly he has preached them himself. As a minister it has been his professional business to expound to sinners the ten commandments and the precepts of Christ, including that one about returning good for evil. Yet all this has not prevented young Kallach from shooting the man who shot his father.

Williamina a five miles from Sheridan on a small stream of the same name that empties into the Yamhill river. The bridge which was blown down here during the Winter is being rebuilt by St. John & Stone. The contractors fully understand their business and we expect to have a fine bridge soon. We are in need of a good bridge, as we have a very poor ford.—Bet.

A Eureka young lady, about to join the Good Templars, having been assured that she would have to climb a greased pole, has made a pair of tights for the occasion. Since the above fact has become known, seven young men have sent in their applications for membership.

Many citizens of Monmouth were called before the grand jury to testify in regard to the killing of Mason Crossley. The grand jury has found an indictment against Dick Johnson for murder in the second degree.

Hon. M. C. George, Judge Bellingee, and other dignitaries were banqueted at the hospitable board of E. B. Fellows and wife, Oregon City, last Monday.

Mrs. Rebecca Parrish, mother of Mrs. R. L. May, of Salem, died at San Jose, on the 13th inst., aged 77 years.

The frost that visited Yamhill county Tuesday night nipped the early "garden peas" and caused the wheat in some localities to take on a sickly hue. At the present stage of vegetation, however, the damage is trifling.
