RIGHT WRONGS NO ONE.

This issue of this paper is the last before election. Until a few weeks ago nothing was said by the editor in regard to political affairs, and only then after evidence came pouring in so fast that we were assured that the Supreme Court of this State had rendered very bias decisions and remembering that we were running a paper to do the most good for this particular county, and as the selection of Supreme Judges "is NOT A POLITICAL MATTER" (see article in another column from the Daily Standard, the democratic standard bearer) we claim that we have not as yet entered into politics but have only acted as the Catholic Sentinel, Christian Advocate, New Northwest, and several other neutral non-partisan as well as a number of Independent Democratic papers are doing, that is warning the people of this State as to how Kelly and Prim are unfit for Supreme Judges.

It has been said by some persons that being a democrat we ought not to have allowed anything said in the News about democratic candidates.

We quote from our columns of months ago: "It will not be controlled by any party, sect or creed, ring, clique or clan, but each and every one can have space to give vent to their feelings, or room to express their personal, political or religious views by paying for said space at our advertised rates. It knows no party."

Because certain persons have seen fit to pay for and use space in accordance with the above it is not our right to refuse them simply because it was about a democrat. The democrats certainly had the privilege of denying all charges, or charging any other candidate with what they wished to.

Our sentiments are these: As long as men are on our ticket that are honest, capable and just we will stick to it from head to tail. But when they are the opposite we will not vote for them. To vote for men whether thieves, murderers, or what not simply because they are on your ticket is not democratic, but instead encourages a monarchy; and all that would be necessary after one party got in power would be to appoint all officers in the Government, and of course the most noted trickster or highwayman could control affairs for life. It is democratic to oust men when they become corrupt, and any one that says nay does not know what democracy is and should not recognize as honest men.

"Let Justice prevail though the Heavens fall."

We think voters now understand and on next Monday will place the Supreme Court in the hands of W. P. Lord, John Burnett and E. B. Watson.

J K Kelly, one of the Democratic nominees for Supreme Judge, concurred in the following infamous Supreme Court decisions:

The Greenwood Will Case, The Knot Case, The Jo Teal Case,

And was also the imbecile tool of Patrick, according to his own confession, in the cipher dispatches of 1876.

Oh James!
"For ways that are dark
"And tricks that are vain,"

We commend these as "chief among ten thousand and the one altogether lovely."

DIED.—At Prairie City, May 30th, 1880, Mr. Levy Anderson.

Circuit Court will convene in this City next week.

Politics are hot in this burg

Let the People Consider.

"As the time for the election approaches, the people should carefully consider into whose hands they propose to entrust the execution of the laws. The selection of Supreme Judges is not a political matter. It is a question above party, and one which decides the choice of the people as to who shall sit as final arbitrator where may arise the question of life, and the rights to all their property. It is well to consider the great issue presented. While each political party has placed in the field a party ticket, yet the offices are not partisan and the voters should not regard them as such.

Would it not be a mockery of justice to appeal a case from men of ability on the Circuit bench to tools of a ring, and put the rights of every citizen beyond a possibility of a redress? This is a question for the people to decide on the 7th of June. It is a matter above party."

We take the above from the Daily Standard. Voters will read carefully and vote accordingly.

THE GREENWOOD WILL CASE.

Upright courts are the safety of the people, and before voting for Kelly and Prim every one should read the review of this case which is now scattered through the county and over the State. It has been prepared by "Junius Brutus" who did it at the request of Mrs. Clive on the wish of some Salem citizens who felt that a great wrong had been done by the court. It is in the shape of a new paper with the title of this caption, and embraces the facts testified to by each witness, the opinion of the court in full and a review by "Junius Brutus" in an open and unhesitating way. It is in order for Kelly and Prim and Gov. Thayer and Bellinger to defend it if they can. But Prim's own opinion condemns him and Kelly.

P.P. PRIM.

The only argument in favor of Prim's election is, that he is poor and poverty stricken, and can't make a living at the bar. No one ever claimed that he was anything more than a third-rate lawyer, or that he possessed a single qualification for the position which he aspires to.

To elect him judge, will be an endorsement of the most gigantic and corrupt decisions ever proclaimed from the bench. As poverty is the only qualification that can be urged would it not be more honorable and less expensive to extend to him temporary aid from time to time as may be necessary.

The law makes simple provisions for the care and support of our poor folks, therefore there is no necessity whatever for Prim or his family, or any other paupers to suffer.—Exchange.
