Six of Grant County's best stock men are on their road to Portland to see what they will have to pay for keeping the grass from rotting on the Indian Reservation in 1879. What a blasted shame and disgrace to our county that Reservation has been!

Mr. Church brought into our office, yesterday, an egg that was laid by one of his full blood white Leghorn hens. The egg measured 7 3/4 inches one way and 6 1/2 the other way. It is somewhat of an egg.

Mr. Dennis McAuliff, of this place, has been paying Harney a visit, and looking out for business, the past week.
