ONLY PAPER IN GRANT COUNTY.

Official Paper For Grant County.

GRANT COUNTY NEWS.

On the 4th of September, the News will be enlarged to a 40 column paper and we wish to inform our citizens that it cannot live on wind, but must have support, and, therefore every man, woman and old bachelor in this county should subscribe for it. It gives you all the local news. Tells where you can buy and sell to advantage. Chronicles your births. Rejoices when you are married, and weeps over you in death. It is a weekly exponent of your personal and public interests. It not only goes into nearly every home in the County, but it goes weekly into nearly every state in the Union, and Europe, and tells of our beautiful country. No other paper in the whole country does these things for you. Any kind of produce is the same as money to us, so that you need not say you have no money to spare. A cord of wood, a half dozen chickens, three dollars worth of butter, eggs, potatoes, gold dust, wheat, flour, meal, meat or anything else that a white man can use will pay for your home paper for one year. If you want to buy or sell anything it will cost but a few dollars to put a card to that effect in the News for four weeks then the people will know it. In the job line we can furnish anything at reasonable prices and get your job out for you sooner than any paper in Grant County or Eastern Oregon. Remember that you will get more reading matter than you ever got before for the money. It speaks well for your County to have a large paper and you should aid the enterprise.

Remember it will be no patent outside, but will be rich, rare and racy. It will cost you less than 6 cents a week to pay for it. An old hen will make money enough for you to pay for the News. Don't wait for our return to subscribe, but call in and run up a list of a few hundred while we are gone.

We have labored hard for the last 18 months and now we are proud to say that we are the only man that ever carried a paper through the crisis in this County and now intend to establish the largest weekly paper in Oregon, in this city, and all we ask is the continued support of the citizens of Grant County. We know what we can do and we will do it—if it is all for glory.

ON THE WING.

THE DALLES, OON., Aug. 16, 1880.
Well, here I am at the new Umatilla House and although the roads were dusty and dry, I must say that it was a pleasant ride.

On last Thursday we put our beloved family aboard the stage of the Dalles Line and saw them safely landed at the home of Mr. Wm. Luce, where they will spend a few days, or a week. With Tom Crawford as driver, we proceeded on our journey, and passed the night pleasantly with him, arriving at Rattlesnake for breakfast. The above station is the first place that we strike that is owned and fully operated by the company. In passing over the road we noticed many places that are sadly in need of the attention of the road company for the County and in one place, in particular, it does need much work. The Road Company should either fix the grade near Belshaw's or let some other person have the opportunity to do so. But we will speak in the future of the condition of the roads and in fact, rather "go for The Dalles Military Road Co.

At Rattlesnake, Mr. Weddel "mounts the box" and we proceed to travel. At E. Schtz's the horses are changed and the journey continued. A few miles this side, the Supt., Mr. Williamson, met the stage and, upon an invitation from him, your servant (?) took a seat in his Concord vehicle and had a very pleasant ride. At Mitchell all took dinner, and a view of a hard looking location, for a town. We were informed that it did not deceive its looks. At Bridge Creek the pleasant faces of Mr. and Mrs. Peffer met the writer, and we must say that they have a fine, beautiful ranch. Arriving at Mr. Saltzman's for supper, we did justice to the meal and bid good-night to the Superintendent. At Bridge Creek Mrs. Gage was waybilled, and at Antelope a young man by the name of Saml. Robinson was added to the load of passengers. Long will all remember that night's ride. The dust was immedse and the night was cold but for all, we each avowed the next morning that the night had been joyous, owing largely to the exertions of Mr. R. to keep the load awake. He has been travelling for the last six years through India Sandwich Islands and other places and is a jolly boy to have on the road. At Mr. Scheneckans all took refreshments and a rest. Bake Oven is the next home station and Mr. Tom—leaves the stage and Mr. Pearce takes charge and the ride is resumed; three changes of horses are made between there and The Dalles and good time is made.

THE DALLES

We find to be a lively city, and the Umatilla House a first class Hotel and, perhaps the finest House this side of San Francisco, Cal., and in justice to Messrs Handley & Sinnott, we must say that nothing is left undone that will please the guests. It is a hard finished house and every convenience conceivable is placed therein. We have just arisen from one of the best nights' sleep and the finest bed we have ever slept in on this coast. As much as we have heard about the Stage line we expected a hard ride, but to our pleasure, we must say that we have enjoyed no ride on a Stage Line on this Slope as we did the one from Canyon City to The Dalles. We hope the people that think the Line is a rough one will just take our word that it is much more pleasant to ride on one of their Stages than on the Stages from Kelton to Baker City. Our time is up and we will have to send this as a substitute, for this issue. Next letter will be a descriptive one.

SMITHLAND, IOWA.

SMITHLAND, IOWA, Aug. 1st, 1880.

EDITOR NEWS:—As you so kindly took notice of my last letter, I thought you would not object to hear from this little obscure place Smithland, again. Now for a description of this one great city of the west:

Smithland is beautifully situated on the west bank of the Sioux River. One cannot see the town until they get almost into the heart, as there is such magnificent groves following the winding course of the ever sparkling river. Smithland consists of three stores also one drug store, one hardware store, two blacksmith shops, two very nice churches, Methodist and Advents, two Hotels, one of which bears the honored title of "Iowa House," which I am now writing in. The most convenient part about the make up of this city is, you can trade at the store every day in the week, as one of the merchants is an Advent. So Smithland has its good points as well as poor ones. The R. R. is some nine miles distant from here.

Smithland will be all life, for once, now, for the next two weeks to come, as the SCHOOL MARMS will be here, and where they are there is life. It is normal time and many a teacher's heart is beating in dreaded anticipation of what is to come after the two weeks normal. Some say it will bring on a rain for so many teachers to get together in this city, for the first time, I think, since the creation of time.

As there is a famine in Ireland partly on account of too much rain, there will be a famine in Western Iowa if it does not rain. If the wind would pay us for the property which it took up in the Spring, by letting us have some rain in return, we would be very thankful, indeed. Harvesting is over with, now. The small grain does not yield as much to the acre as usual. The corn! that makes one dread the Winter to look at it. It is dying, as though it had had a heavy frost on it. Unless it rains within one week there will be acres and acres of corn that will make good feed for stock, and that is all. This is rather a lengthy letter, but I trust it will receive some attention among your correspondents.

The Oregon Kidney Tea.

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well-known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

CANYON CITY, GRANT COUNTY, Ogn., July 28, 1880. }

To my friends and all others whom this may concern: I wish to say that after suffering for a long time with severe backache and pains in the loins and kidney, I was induced to try a bottle of the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, and to my great surprise, as well as my satisfaction I was entirely cured of my complaint. I do most earnestly recommend it to all my friends who may be suffering from similar troubles, believing as I do that it is the CHIEF of all Kidney remedies.

CHARLES A. GRAY.

WARM SPRINGS, Grant County, Ogn., July 15, 1880. }

Messrs. Hodge, Davis & Co.: Dear Sirs.—I have been troubled for about 3 years with a severe pain in the back, loins, and hips, so that at times I was unable to rise or do any kind of work whatever. Hearing through a friend of the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, I obtained one package, and though I have not used all of it, yet I am a new man, and feel like recommending it to my afflicted friends. n15-3m THOMAS HOWE.
