COUNTY NEWS.

HYMENEAL.

On last Monday evening at the residence of Mr. M. V. Thompson, of this city, a few invited friends of the beautiful and accomplished Miss Frankie H. Smith, of Prairie City, were assembled to witness the solemn ceremony of marriage between her and Mr. J. D. Sutherland. At the appointed hour the lovely bride leaning upon the arm of her future protector entered the room, followed by the charming bridesmaid, Miss Ada Worswick, and Mr. Sweetzer, as groomsmen, and were met by the Rev. Geo. E. Wilson, who with the usual form made the two one. The bride and maid were both neatly dressed in black, as were the groom and groomsmen also. It is the wish of the News that their lives may ever be as cheerful as on that evening. After congratulations the Brass Band appeared at the door and serenaded the happy pair, after which the friends bid Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland good night and departed for their several homes.

CANYON CITY, Ggn. Sept. 27, 1880.

To the citizens of Canyon City and the policy holders in the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, California, will say that on Monday, Sept. 27th, 1880, A. McKinnis, acting agent for the above company, called on me and paid in hand the full amount of claim under policy No. 7740, on the life of my husband, E. E. Turk, provided for in Section Nine of said policy, and will further say that I consider that I have been equitably dealt with and am perfectly satisfied and hereby return my thanks. CAROLINE TURK, PHIL. MITSCHING, witness.

After the wedding last Monday evening Mr. Sweetzer was walking up street and in front of the Brewery was stopped by a stranger and accosted with, "Allow me to congratulate you." Sweetzer, of course, was somewhat surprised and replied: "I guess you have got hold of the wrong man, sir." "Oh, I thought—" It was all we heard.

"Darling I am growing old, Silver threads among the gold;" don't you call me darling, said his wife, for any man that will attempt to live in this county, keep house and raise a family without the GRANT COUNTY NEWS when it can be had for three dollars a year, ought to grow old; he ought to have tar in his hair and feathers on top of the tar; he ought to go blind and never be able to hear again; he ought to die; that's the kind of a housekeeper I am."

W. H. Clark, informs us that in a short time he will move his stock of goods from here to John Day, also that he intends to make it "the people's store", and with that aim in view has enroute to that place the largest and finest selected stock of merchandise ever shipped to Grant County. W. H. Clark, has been in business in this city for several years and is well and favorably known. He will no doubt carry an immense stock as he intends to do a full share of the county trade.

N. G. KIMBERLAN,
J. STEINER.

Quite a sensation was created in our town last Tuesday by the appearance on Main Street of John Garrison's vegetable cart loaded to the guards with seven bewitching females. The girls no doubt enjoyed their ride, even if it was behind a deaf mule.

"Tom," Mills and Wm. Sally formerly of Baker City, are in the city under arrest for stealing a horse. It appears that two horses were taken from them last spring under a six shooter, and they proved the horses theirs and returned and got one of the horses this week near Harney, were coming to this city to get out a warrant for the other horse when they were met only a short distance from town by Lockwood and Jas. Allen, who had a warrant from Harney for their arrest. They still have the liberty of the town and they are easy.

That Kidney Tea man, Spaulding, traveling salesman for Hodge, Davis & Co., was in the city yesterday.

We refer our readers to the first page for more locals.

The Ball given in this city on last Friday night was largely attended by Prairie City, and John Day people.
