

ed at Whisky Flat where they found Ems Elliott and the Gree well boys; and he also says they found but four men in the John Day mining district, reasonable prices. Particular whose names were L. C. Johnson, Lazy Wallace and old man Weldy and his son, who exhibited $8 in gold that they had obtained by rocking on that day. They also informed the new arrivals that they had seen some prospect holes in blind gulch, afterwards known as rich gulch. McQuaid & Co. then moved to Pine Gulch on the same day and on the following day commenced the survey of a ditch from Pine Gulch to Rich Gulch and impuediately commenced cutting ditch and continued on the ditch. On the 20th of the same month Mr. H. C. Paige, now in the Pendleton jail for alleged stage robbery informed Hugh that the name of the stream running near by was John Day. Hugh was supt. of the ditch owned by McQuaid, Perry Titus and Dr. Wilburn Williams, of Santa Clara, Cal., which they continued to opperate until the arrival of Paige, Johnny Powers, Hank Rich, Wm. Tuttle, Mag Pie, and Trouty John who disputed said water right of the first named company, who then went to law about the case. Perry Titus and Hugh McQuaid posted notices on the Trowbridge ranch in 1862, in July. Hugh says he would like to ask where Juniper Gulch is and when it was discovered and by whom, and where the above company was at the tim .
