

The Grant County News.

ONLY PAPER IN GRANT COUNTY. Official Paper For Grant County. Canyon City, Saturday Nov. 27, 1880. S. H. SHEPHERD, Editor.

THE SINS. The sins of this world are numerous and of various natures. They are classed in likewise: Murder, thieving, profanity, gambling, intemperance, licentiousness, dancing, mischief-making, lying, &c., &c.

From the above it will be seen that murder is at the top of the ladder and is perhaps deserving of the altitude as it embraces so many forms of death. There is murder by shooting, poisoning, hanging, cutting, abortion, burning, starving and other modes well known to history.

Swearing is a foolish sin (except in a Printing Office) and is used to give vent to one's feelings and also to intimidate the meek and lowly. Gambling is a sin that is practiced by all nations and in China's own most expert gamblers can be found, and instead of sending thousands of missionary money to China each year to convert the celestial, more good might be done in the United States by preaching the word of God to the heathen therein.

Intemperance should have been placed a few rounds higher as it is one of the greatest sins known. Some people drink too much, some eat too much, others talk too much, and so it will be seen that intemperance means more than some ignorant people suppose it does. Licentiousness is a sin that has existed ever since the creation of the world and is yet practiced to a great extent by devout (?) Christians in the United States and Oregon.

Dancing is also a sin that has been in vogue for centuries and was practiced by the people in the days of Christ. It is not so great a sin as hypnoy and it is a common saying that some people that would not be seen walking into a ball room will enter some lower to a sitting walk and look down, after an inspection of the dance has been made by some persons.

Mischiefmaking and lying go hand in hand, and it is no common thing to find such sinners in every community, we even have them in Canyon City. All of the above-mentioned sins are only a few of the many that invade our land and just how to checkmate any one of them is a puzzle. For if a few good people talk about a certain sin or else they find to their grief that in the circle are some that are classed in the top sin or else in the bottom one, or perhaps among the intermediate. We hate sin and a sinner. God hates sin and a sinner.

The Ball given at this place, last Thursday night for the benefit of the Agricultural Society was a pleasant success. Five and six set were on the floor nearly all night and everything passed off nicely. It is not usual for us to name the "Belle of a Ball," but as several ladies and not a few gentlemen expressed their opinion that Miss Jennie Baker was deserving of the name we allow them the privilege of saying so, and think they show good judgment. Dr. J. W. Howard opened his house on last Thursday evening for the guests of the Thanksgiving Supper, and Mr. and Mrs. McCoy were on hand and furnished sweet and charming music for the amusement of all.
