General Tannatt, of the O. R. & N. Co., was interviewed a short time ago at Union, by the editor of the La Grande Republican, from which we glean the following items concerning the railroad interests of the Northwest:

"The Seattle & Walla Walla road will be built as soon as it is possible.
After crossing the Cascades it will pass down the Yakima valley to the Columbia River at a point in the neighborhood of Umatilla. Three surveys have been made, and this one is thought to be the best. It is owned by the Oregon Improvement Co., and not by the O. R. & N. Co., as many suppose; but will connect with the latter, at or near Umatilla.

It is expected that the O. R. & N.
Co. will connect with the road that Jay Gould is now building from Ogden, [via Middle Fork or Canyon City, and yet by Col. Wolcott last summer,] at some point between Baker and Boise. This will make a through line from Ogden to Puget Sound and Portland, and the shortest route across the continent. The General was satisfied that in less than two years this line will be completed. While in the Grande Ronde valley the General purchased 20,000 acres of land for the Oregon Improvement Company."

The Reno Gazette says that Col.
Moore, the contractor for the Nevada & Oregon railroad, did not leave New York on the 10th, as he first wrote he would. A letter has been received from him fixing the date of his departure from New York as the 15th inst. The construction of the Nevada & Oregon will not begin until after his arrival.

The residence of C. A. Reid in South Seam came near burning down the other day.

S. M. Lee, a Chinese Merchant at Auburn, Baker County, tried to skip away and defraud the Chinese merchant he owed $1,500 to, but the Mexican holds him in jail at Baker City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

The following synopsis of the President's Message has been given by the New York Tribune. It is for made from direct information, and is thought to be the work of some correspondent who knows the views of the President on the questions touched upon:

The President says the message will treat largely of the executive question and will hardly touch the Administration's reform measures, and also the South's policy. It will speak freely on the New York custom-house, showing how reform has been wrought there; it will favor a six years Presidential term, discuss the finances at length, favor 35 to 40 per cent on tariffs, and say much about compensations. It will discuss the question of the wisest and most successful triumph of the Administration; dwells on the importance of the Chinese treaty, reserving full explanation until the treaty is received, when he will make a special message in July. It will show the Gladstone ministry has bucked down on the fish question, and will ask Congress to pay Duty on Mar tals and Superior salt. It will review the earnest recommencement of the previous messages on the Mormon question, and urge the retraction of Mormonism and pay attention to the question, but do not press it; urges relief of the South from the heavy burden of the tariff.

Queen Victoria has ordered the Lord Chamberlain not to allow ladies who wear bangs and frizzes to attend court receptions.

A CURIOUS FACT.—Bands of music are forbidden to play on most of the large bridges of the world. A constant succession of sound waves, especially such as come from the playing of a band, will excite the wires to vibration. At first the vibrations are very slight, but they will increase as the sound waves continue to come. The principal reason why bands are not allowed to play when crossing certain bridges, the suspension bridge at Niagara, for instance, is that if followed by processions of any kind they will keep step with the music, and this regular step would cause the wires to vibrate. At suspension bridges military companies are not allowed to march across in regular step, but break ranks. The regular trotting gait of a large dog across a suspension bridge is more dangerous to the bridge than a heavily loaded wagon drawn by a team of large horses.

Affairs are still in a very unsettled state in Ireland, on account of the rent difficulties. The entire attention of the British government seems, at present, to be centered on the harvesting of Farmer Boycott's crops. It has been necessary for him to call in the aid of the British army to protect him from punishment at the hands of the tenants whom he had turned out of house and home. The number of the military makes further interference impossible, but he has announced his intention of leaving Ireland, which indicates his fear of future retribution. Oh, unhappy Erin! We would to God that something could be done to relieve the distress of your suffering people!

NEW YORK, December 8.—Ord is retired, being over 62 years of age, and ordered to Washington. The retirement of McDowell is fully decided upon. Howard may possibly be appointed Major General and assigned to the command of West Point. Schofield, at his own request, will be granted one year's leave of absence. Gen. Miles will probably be ordered to San Francisco to relieve McDowell.

THE SAME OLD STORY.—An Oxford graduate was showing his sister over his rooms in college, when some one knocked at the door. Supposing that it was one of his friends and not wishing to be chaffed, he hid her behind the curtains, and admitted an elderly gentleman, who apologized profusely for his intrusion, and excused himself by saying that it was many years since he had been at Oxford, and he could not leave without paying a visit to his dear old college, and the rooms he had occupied as a student.

"Ah!" cried the old gentleman, looking around, "the same old sofa! yes, the same old carpet—everything the same."

Presently he stepped toward the curtains and remarked, "Ah! and the same old curtains." Looking around he beheld the young lady, and turning around, he said, "Ah! you young dog! and the same old game."

"But," hastily replied the undergraduate, "that young lady is my sister."

To which the reply came, "Yes, I know, and the same old story!"

The immigration for 1881 is already preparing itself. We are constantly in receipt of letters from the East concerning Oregon.
