THAT KISS.
The kiss you gave me last year On the load of hay,
I never shall forget, dear, Till my dying day.
[Phil. Bulletin.]

And I, too, remember
The kiss I gave you, pet;
You had been eating onions—Methinks I smell them yet.
[Morristown Herald.]

Methinks I too remember The kiss you gave, dear, 'Twas thickly interlarded With sour-kraut and beer.
[Phenix Messenger.]

The kiss I best remember—It struck me like a clap Of thunder in clear midday—She gave another chap.
[Pottstown Daily Ledger.]

I remember a kiss she gave me While leaning 'gainst the wall; She glued her lips to mine, and said
"Yum, yum," and that was all.
[Pottstown Advertiser.]

We remember the kiss she gave us It was down by the Smoky river, When we think of that sweet buss, It fairly makes us shiver.
[Ellsworth Reporter.]

The kiss she gave to me Was given near Hillis' Mine, And our talk was also free But the kiss was extra fine.

A CORRECTION.
BEAVER PRECINCT, GRANT CO., OR.
Dec. 5th, 1880.
EDITOR NEWS: DEAR SIR:—HAV-seen in your issue of Nov. 13th an article censuring the people of Beaver and Warner for not holding elections or opening polls, I am induced by my love of right and justice to send you a few lines to inform you why no election was held in this precinct: and after hearing me, I am sure you will withdraw your rash judgment; for we of Beaver precinct do not believe that you would intentionally misrepresent us.
As a lawyer would say, now as to the facts: Owing to the neglect or failure of the County Clerk, Sheriff, or some other person, we had no poll book, and not being lawyers, only farmers and stock raisers, we did not know that we could legally hold an election without having a poll book made out by the County Clerk: and in fact we do not know yet that we could have done so, but there are those among us who say that we might have done so legally. These are the facts in the case, Mr. Editor, and I hope you will be kind enough to give them to the public through your columns.
D.

In answer to the above we will say that when we wrote the article referred to we supposed that they had poll books, but we have been authoritatively informed that the books, blanks, &c., were duly sent to said precincts, but through the gross neglect or willful intention of some person or persons, they failed to reach their destination. We beg pardon of the Beaver and Warner people for judging them so harshly, and now feel that they ought to be allowed to vote twice at the next election to get even.

Real estate agents are studying their maps, getting ready for the big rush that is sure to come in the spring.

If love is blind, as they say it is, how is it that they turn the light down so confounded low?
We hope to see every quarter section of land on the reservation settled upon by a good class of farmers by the opening of spring, 1882.

A Difference.
Perhaps many of our sleep men do not know the difference between commission men and in view thereof we herewith give two statements and they can see for themselves: First is a condensed statement from Roub-bush & Larsen, Dalles, to Rogers & Blackwell. Total charges on 3543 pounds of wool from Canyon City to San Francisco, including commission for sale of wool and all expenses, $407.83.

Here is a statement from Allen & Lewis, Portland, to S. Fields: Total charges on 8412 pounds of wool from Canyon City to San Francisco, including commission for sale of wool and all expenses, $410.90.
Blackwell shipped direct to the Dalles men, while Mr. Fields assigned his wool to Overholt & Mul-drick of this city, thus saving clear about $400, quite a nice little amount these times. Just why $400 difference can be made in the above amount of wool between here and San Francisco is hard to tell unless the two houses do a different kind of commission business. Perhaps one uses the old style and the other a patent style. At any rate it will be well for our sheep men to look to their interest and not get robbed after they have raised the wool.
We hope that hereafter they will be more careful. Remember that Van Horn, Venater and other sheep men were robbed of thousands two years ago. Those cases should have been a lasting warning to shippers, but it seems that it was not heeded.

A resident bunch-grasser speaks as follows concerning the advantages of this section: The land is of rich black loam and yields large and excellent crops. Up along the Malheur river for thirty miles, there are numerous good locations, surrounded with the best grazing lands.
Grain, fruit and vegetables grow most luxuriantly, and the winters are milder than anywhere else in the upper country. Since the Pannack war the Indians have left the country, and there are now none within 150 miles. The old Malheur reservation is to be abandoned and thrown open to settlement.—Telegram.

Answers to Correspondents.
In reply to the many inquiries which we have received regarding a most prominent modern remedy we would say: To the best of our belief Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is pure in its nature, efficient in its action and certain in its results.
We have learned of some remarkable cures which it has effected, and believe that as a preventative of disease it is unequalled. For delicate ladies and enfeebled men it is invaluable, and its pure vegetable qualities commend it to the favor and use of all.

The total vote of the nation at the recent election as officially reported, gives Garfield 4,437,415; Hancock, 4,436,014; Weaver, 305,729; Dow, 9,644; Scattering, 1,793. Garfield's plurality on the whole vote, 3,401.

Any ladies wishing to know of the merits of the Excelsior Kidney Pad, its action, etc., are referred to Mrs.
Wm. E. McKee, Photographer Parlors, Toledo, Ohio.—See Adv.

The latest new song is entitled "Hug me to Death, Darling." It is a duet for male and female.

A faint purse never won a fair lady.

Maj. Nutt has been having some fun again in Portland and paid $5 for his spree.
