That queer sect, the Dunkard church, in conference at Wabash Ind., has denied the petition of its young men to wear mustaches and have their hair cut.

As John McMurtrie, of Homer, Mich., was filling his pipe a few days ago he found a diamond in his tobacco. The jewelers say it is worth $150. Fill your pipes often, boys.

Of the ten presidents renominated for the offee, only three were beaten for a second term. Washington, Jefferson, Madison Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln and Grant were re-elected, and the two Adamses and Van Buren were beaten.

The government should send all its Piute and Digger siwashes to Minnesota. There they could secure grasshoppersenough to last them for years, and no other rations would be necessary. At Fergus Falls, they have a maching for catching the insects and are capturing bushels and bushels of them. What a lot of dried meat they would make for the Indians.

The latest postal law decision is to the effect that publishers of newspapers can under the law, arrest any man for fraud who takes the paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law it is a dangerous trick for a man to allow his subscription account to run on from six months to a year and a half unpaid and then tell the postmaster to mark it "refused" or send the editor a postal card to discontinue the paper.

The customs division of the treasury department is in receipt of a list of Chinese medicines as exported from Hankow and other ports, among which are the following: Tigers' bones, ground blood, bears' gall, tree bugs, elephants' gall, fossil crabs, fossil teeth, fowl's gizzards, "insets of nine smells," Job's tears, cow hair, glass, rhinoceros' horns, cows' knee, puff balls, dragons' teeth, straw, hedge hog skins, dried silkworms, snake skins, crabs' eyes, horse tails, and centipedes.

Great preparation is being made by the Grand Army of the Republic for the next National Encampment, in Columbus, Ohio, on Sept. 15th; it is expected that nearly 150,000 old soldiers will be encamped in Columbus on this occasion. The following programme has been arranged for the Pacific coast delegation. Comrades will leave Los Angeles on a certain day, and in Sacramento will be joined by the delegates from California, whence they will proceed to Portland and St. Paul. The Pacific coast delegation will accompany Commander-in-Cheif Rea and staff from St Paul to Columbus. The Oregon and Washington territory delegates have signified their intention of going with the California delegation.

The governor of the Chickasaw nation is asking for U. S. troops to protect his people against white men who are pasturing their cattle in the Chickasaw country, in defiance of the laws and treaties, and of the decision of the secretary of the interior. In order to secure their pasturage against the depredations of cattle men the Chickasaws limit the number of cattle to be kept on their public lands, by the "permit men," so-called, who are white men permitted to reside in the country. But these "permit men," disregarding the law, are pasturing large herds in the nation. The Chickasw authorities being about to enforce the statutory penalty of one dollar per head upon these cattle, the "permit men" appeaued to the secretary of th interior, who decided in favor of the Chickasaws. Then the permit men armed themselves, raised the United States flag, and by force prevented the Chickasaw authorities from collecting the penalty. Governor Guy has called for federal troops his cowboy enemies outnumbering his own militia two to one. He says the cowboys will not fire on federal troops.

Seventeen divorce suits were begun in a period of twenty three days at Portland, recently.

The Albany Democrat is responsible for the statement that there is a live man sn southern Oregon, named Coon, a hard-shell Baptist. In addition to these terrible afflictions he has been a subscriber for the Democrat for twenty-four consecutive years. If that old coon don't receive a free ticket up the golden stairs it will be because patient suffering brings no reward. —Sunday Mercury.

The democats and greenbackers have nominated a fusion ticket in Michigan. Their candidate for governor is a protectionist and a salt manufacturer. He states that he stands by President Cleveland's message but does not approve of the Mills bill. He even voted against the clause endorsing the bill in the resolutions committee at St. Louis. There is hardly one principle on wich the two partles agree, except that they want to divide the offices.

The brutal and brutalizing evictions in Ireland continue. At Kilrush a family of four brothers and sisters resisted, until a battering ram was brought and their house was battered to pieces and tumbled round their ears and they were left to face the night in the ditch. Such scenes and worse constantly repeated year after year in a country must have a terrible effect on the people, and it is not to the credit of England that centuries of its rule have produced no better way than brute force brutally applied.
