

September 21, 1888.

A meeting of ex-union and confederate soldiers will be held at San Antonio, Texas, next month.

Forty years ago the United States stood sixth in point of population among the civilized nations of the globe and twenty years ago it stood fifth. Twenty years hence it will stand first.

A Maryland widow named Hallett set a bear trap at her smoke house door, and the first catch was a man who was courting her. He had packed up one hundred pounds of bacon to carry off.

The political fight in Indiana is being waged with great determination by both sides. The state is literally alive with orators, and all good sized towns have "political speaking" nearly every night.

President Diaz, in his message to the Mexican congress, recommends a new extradition treaty with the United States, as the present one is too limited, crimes on the frontier requiring a more ample extradition treaty.

More than three hundred Italian laborers sailed from New York for home the other day, being unable to find employment. Two brigands, who have been confined ever since their arrival were sent back by the same steamer.

While trying to avoid being kissed by a woman, George Vindle, of Baltimore, fell down a stairway and was instantly killed. This is probably the only case of the kind on record. A man sometimes is willing to give his life for a kiss, but never to avoid one.

A Republican and a Democrat in Jackson county have made a novel election bet. The former sells the latter a head of Cleveland is elected and two dollars a head if Harrison wins. They both agree that this is about a fair thing all around.

Judge Leneham of Waterloo, Ia., has denied the application of the Chinese laundryman, Fong Wing, to be a citizen. No opinion was delivered, but the denial was made on the ground that Chinese are not eligible to citizenship under the laws and constitution of the United States.

The campaign in the Northwestern States promises to be the hottest and most bitterly contested that has taken place since the war. Indications show that the Democratic National Committee will make a determined and exhaustive canvass in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Iowa Courts now decide that under the Prohibitory law of that State it is a penitentiary offense for a man to make cider out of his own apples for his own use. As an apple cannot be eaten without swallowing its juice, we don't see why this fool decision does not cover the chewing of raw apples.

The exact amount down to a cent of the surplus in the treasury of the United States, on the 31st day of August, was $133,420,069.87. New York World. The exact amount down to a cent in the pockets of the writer of this article is thirteen dollars and sixty cents; but when the month's bills are paid, this surplus will be greatly reduced, if it does not entirely disappear.

John L. Sullivan, of Boston, who has won fame for himself as a prize fighter, is very sick and on the verge of being ushered out of the world which has never been made better because of his presence in it. Sullivan's character and make-up is the embodiment of all that is brutish and vulgar, lacking in every attribute of refinement or morality. If he dies the slums of Boston and the deadfalls of humanity will only feel the loss of a frequenter.
