

October 4, 1888.

An Indian took out naturalization papers in Dakota the other day.

A case of genuine Asiatic cholera is reported from Hillsboro, Ills.

A blackbird with white wings is pronounced a strange thing at Huntsville, W. T.

Eighty cooks employed in the imperial palace at Constantinople, who struck on account of the non-payment of their wages, have been sent into exile.

It is said to be regarded as a great breach of etiquette in Arkansas to shoot a man on election day before he has voted. Of course the negroes are the exception to this general rule.

It is calculated that Professor Barnard's new comet travels at the rate of three millions of miles daily. It is the only thing yet discovered that approaches the speed of the campaign lie.

A year of the planet Uranus is equal to eighty-four of our years. What a paradise for the stingy man. Three dollars would give him the News during the three-score years and ten of his penurious existence.

It is only sixty years ago that the first stage carrying the United States mail westward passed over the Alleghany Mountains. The road taken by the stage was from Cumberland, Md., to Wheeling, a distance of 130 miles.

The general M. E. Conference of the United States has changed the Methodist rule of shifting its preacher about every few months. A preacher can now remain five years at a post if he wants to, provided he is not hounded by the elders.

Terrible suffering from starvation is still reported among the Indians of the Canadian Northwest Territory, and it is said that in the Peace River district several parents have killed and eaten their children. Many deaths from starvation are reported in other places.

A nervous and somewhat excitable deacon, after talking for some time in a meeting at his church, finally said: "And not one tit or jottle of his shall fail." Noticing the smiles on the faces of his audience and conscious of his blunder, he attempted to mend matters by saying: "No, I mean not one tittle or Jit."

The "pro tempore" editor of the Harney Items utters a long dismal howl in the last issue of his "Dam & Ditch" organ about county division, in which article he belabors Northern Grant for denying them division two years ago. If he will dig up his threadbare memory, he will find that the remonstrances against division which influenced the legislature to not pass the bill at that time came from property owners in Harney valley outside of the little town of Burns where dwells the "religique" who are clamoring for office, and see in the making of a new county their only show to attain the desired end. Canyon City is accused of aspiring for the new land office, and Vaughn says we have "Mike Hellman" in Washington working for that, which statement is simply and plainly another of his barefaced lies uttered through his jealousy and prejudice. Mr. Hellman is in Washington, but the people of Canyon City did not send him there, and are not keeping him there. If the majority of the people of Southern Grant are in favor of division the News, reflecting the sentiments of the people of this portion of the Co. says let them have it. But when the chronic office seekers around Burns wish or undertake a measure to satisfy their own selfish motives we say let them be defeated. If they desire division let them circulate petitions, and let it be known, and not do everything in a dark corner of Waters' law office as they did two years ago, and in a secret way, so as to "Not let any of those Canyon fellows know anything about it." Such a course repeated will meet the same rebuff, and they will see it. Let your light so shine that others may see what you are up to.
