Prudence! Prudence! In medication, as in aught else, prudence should be our guide. Yet thousands cast it to the winds. Every new nostrum finds its patrons, the medical empiries of every false school have their guils. Every change in the gamut of humbug is rung successfullyfor a time at least-the notes being furnished by the credulous. In happy contrast to the many advertised impostures of the day stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, now in its third decade of popularity, approved and rec-ommended by physicians, indoesed by the press of many lands, sought and prized by luvalids everywhere. It is an ascertained specific for and preventive of malarial discases, chronic indigestion, liver complaint and constipation, checks the growth of rheumatism and neuralgia, is a peerless in-vigorant and useful diuretic.
