

March 28, 1889.

Our pet angel is out to-day. His appearance always heralds the beginning of a new volume of the paper, and the scroll he bears in his hands this time announces that the News with this issue enters upon the eleventh year of its existence. We shall not waste ink writing the usual "salutatory," but feel proud as every publisher does when his journal celebrates its birthday. For nearly five years we have been connected with the News—as partner, and later as proprietor—and leave the question with our readers whether or not we have been successful in our efforts to give them as good a paper as can well be gotten up in a land a thousand miles from any "excitement," with only a two-horse backboard for a "mail coach," to take us in or out of the country. If our efforts in the past have been crowned with any degree of success we promise that the future will disclose an equal amount of progressiveness as rapidly as the times and circumstances surrounding us will warrant an improvement in the size of our paper. Last fall we ordered material for enlarging to an eight-column paper, but through a mistake of the paper makers we had to defer that enterprise, hoping that with the beginning of this volume we could grow some, but have come to the conclusion that as Grant county has been "pruned" to such an extent by our last legislative body, and is left only one third as large as she was last fall, the News as a seven-column paper will continue to be large enough until something "turns up." In the event of such thing happening and insuring better times for Grant county we shall positively endeavor to keep up with such times, as progression is our motto, and while waiting for better times our aim will be to follow the advice given by one of our valued subscribers and "fill up the columns we have." Furthermore, brethren and sisters, during our connection with the News we have never lacked for patronage, and never had to go to bed without supper. For this we feel thankful, and believe that all who have helped the News along with subscription and advertising feel that they have received a just recompense that they have given their money for value received.

Considerable inquiry being made in reference to the changes made by the last legislature in the game law, applying to deer, we give the following synopsis: It is made a misdemeanor to hunt, kill or pursue any deer or elk at any time, between the 1st day of Nov. and the first day of August. Also to sell or destroy deer or elk at any time for the purpose of obtaining their hides, horns or hams. Also every person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, or who shall sell, or offer for sale, or transport, or carry for the purpose of barter or sale or exchange, the hide or skin of deer or elk, or who shall sell or offer for sale or have in his possession, or buy, or offer to buy any elk or deer during the time above specified from November 1st to August 1st. Upon a prosecution it is made prima facie evidence of guilt for the accused to have in his possession any deer or elk, or their hides, when it is unlawful to kill the same. The penalty for violation of the law is by fine not less than $10 nor more than $300, or imprisonment in the county jail not less than five days nor more than three months, or by both fine and imprisonment.

The millers are the gentlemen who are just now raising their voices to sing of "the flour that blooms in the spring."

A New York city woman has been sent to the penitentiary for six months for beating her husband.

Immigrants are arriving in Portland at the rate of about 1000 per day. Eastern Oregon does not catch her share by a great deal.

An Eastern paper suggests the name of "Kola" for the new state of South Dakota, and for the Northern part that of "Overkota." Very appropriate names, those.

The admission of new states makes it necessary to make new flags for the government with the requisite stars on them. There are 8000 national flags to be made and they will average to cost $35 each.

Rev. Joseph Cook declares that "God is turning prohibitionist." This is of that sort of blasphemy on which preachers like Cook indulge, which affronts genuine reverence and is worse than the sneer of the seafarer.

The most potent person in Missouri Federal politics now, is Mr. Gates. It seems to be understood that Gates is open to proposals from all seekers for soft and salaried spots in the service which may be allotted to his state.

Dion Bonicelli has just married Miss Thornelyke again, this time in New York. He had already married her in Australia and several other countries. It would seem that whenever Dion gets dull he backslides his matrimonial experiment.

President Harrison thinks of abolishing hand shaking at his receptions. He does not mind a common dry shake, but the habit of the hoosiers who call is to spit in their hands before they grab his. This keeps him wiping tobacco juice on his pants, and it is unpleasant.

Seven of the Vice Presidents served less than the term for which they were elected. Three were afterwards elected to the presidency, and four became president by succession upon the death of the president. It is an office in which had luck predominates.

Among the names of the mistresses of the White House have been three Marthas, two Marys, two Abigail, one Elizabeth, one Margaret, one Sarah, one Jane, one Harriet, one Dorothy, two Julias, one Letitia, one Emily, one Angelina, one Louisa, one Lucy, one Frances, and now there is a Caroline.

Jefferson's philosophy has been vindicated in the fact that nine-tenths of our present millionaires began life poor. Entrenched in their inalienable rights, they found a free field for their natural energies.
