New Under the Sun.

Marshal Wheeler is the author of the news and startling theory or science the earth has a third motion.

His theory, which is borne out by all the traces on the surface of the earth—and the wonder is that it has never been advanced and adopted before—is that at certain regular periods the earth reverses its position.

so that the equator becomes the poles and the poles becomes the equator.

At each of these turns the water is thrown over the earth, and the nations and continents disappear in the great oceans.

while new continents and new nations rise, in the march of ages, where the oceans of former periods rolled.

The last turn brought the continents that now exist out of the great waters, and, at the next turn, where we now live and where the great American republic flourishes, the oceans will again roll; the great ice fields of the poles will be thawed out and run down over the land under the torrid zone.

and the present tropics will become solid ice in their new position at the poles, thus accounting for the vast quantities of the remains of tropical animals and plants found frozen up in Alaska and Siberia.

He maintains that the earth is not a temporary body, but a permanent part of the universe that has always existed and never will end.

and has been washed over and created anew at regular periods throughout countless millions of years.

man and all its other productions having been swept off, leaving only here and there enough for seed, and their locations changed at each turn, and that this process will go on forever—a new earth washed clean and a new deal at regular periods throughout eternity.

He is collecting a vast array of facts, gathered from all climes, to prove this theory, which he thinks is already established by well-known facts that cannot be explained in any other way.

Further Investigation.

A well known citizen who is a wag in his way, was standing on the east portico of the city hall, the other day when a colored man came up and inquired.

"Boss, kin you dun tole me if dis ar de place whar deo pay taxes?"

"I can. This is the place where they used to pay taxes, but you won't have to pay any this year."

"Hu! Cost for dollars last year."

"Yes, but you needn't pay any this year."

"Owing to the subserviency of the syndicate, the city has decided to emulate the consanguinity of of the reflection and aemit the taxes of all poor men."

The colored brother scratched his head and scraped his foot for a moment and said:

"Boss, may be all right, but I'll go inside and see. It substantiates de propaganda, den I was werry much obliged. If de investigation opinioanates de sublimity, den I'll know you was foolin' de o'e man, and de first time I hev a load of ole cans an' bottles to draw off I'll dump it in yo' alley, snah!"—Detroit Free Press.

FOR CHICKEN CHOLERA.

418 Huron St., Shtoygan, Wis., Nov. 12, 1888.

I have used St. Jacobs Oil for chicken cholera with great success. Every fowl affected with the disease was cured by it and I recommend it as a sure cure. It has saved me many dollars.

H. A. KUENSE, BREEDER OF FINE FOWLS.

Bakersfield, Cal., Oct. 12, 1888. I have used St. Jacobs Oil for sorehead of chickens with prompt permanent cure.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.—Mix a pill of wood or dough saturated with St. Jacobs Oil. If the fowl cannot swallow force it down the throat. Mix some corn meal dough with the oil. Give nothing else. They will finally eat and be cured.

MEXICAN WHISKY.

A traveler, riding horseback along a lonely road in Texas, was startled by what seemed to be a violent commotion.

He rode into the woods and there came upon a man who stood striking a large trunk with a hammer.

"What are you doing?" the traveler demanded.

"Trying to break into this trunk," the fellow answered.

"What do you want to break in to it for?"

"Want to rob it."

"Why, you trifling scoundrel, I'll arrest you right here."

"What for?"

"What for?" the traveler exclaimed. "For stealing the trunk."

"Didn't steal it."

"Then how did you get it?"

"Took it out of the house."

"Whose house?"

"Whose trunk is it?"

"Mine."

"Yours?"

"That's what I said."

"Then why are you trying to break it open? Have you lost the key?"

"No."

"Why don't you unlock it, then?"

"Because I want to rob it."

"You're a fool."

"Reckon you've hit it."

"I don't understand why a man should rob his own trunk."

"I do. A feller come along here this morning and gave me a quart of Mexican liker. I took three mild snorts and then slipped into the house and got the trunk. There ain't nothing in it but a hair lariat and a pair of cottonade britches, but I'm going to steal them and run away."

He turned about and struck the trunk a terrific blow.

"Say, have you got any more of that liker? I need a drink."

Inventions of Our Age.

Those of us not yet fifty years of age have probably lived in the most important and progressive period of human history.

Within this half century the following inventions and discoveries have been among the number: Ocean steamships, street railways, elevated railways, telegraph lines, ocean cables, telephones, phonograph, photography, and a score of new methods of picture-making.

aniline colors, kerosene oil, electric lights, steam fire engines, chemical fire extinguishers, anesthetics and painless surgery, gun cotton, nitro glycerine, dynamite, giant powder, aluminum, magnesium and other new metals, electro-plating, spectrum analysis and spectroscopy, audiphones, pneumatic tubes, electric motor, electric railway, electric bells, typewriter, cheap postal system, steam heating, steam and hydraulic elevators, vestibule cars, cantilever bridges.

These are only a part. All positive knowledge of the physical constitution of planetary and stellar worlds have been attained within this period.

Homiletic Review.

The Canadian Pacific railway runs the furthest east and west. It runs from Quebec to the Pacific coast.

Europe uses about four bushels of wheat per capita each year, of which only half a bushel is imported.

An old lady in Vermont who had been maintained for years by charitable acquaintances, fell heir last week to $30,000.

Old ladies received on subscription at the News office.

"Gentlemen," said the candidate for office, as he squirted a stream of tobacco juice on the pavement below, "my character is spotless."

"Then it's a pity," said one in the crowd, "that you can't wear it for a shirt."

Somebody tied tin cans to a Hillsboro cow's tail and she rushed out into the world at the rate of a mile a minute.

In half an hour she encountered a luck, and ran under it. After carrying the vehicle on her back for ten minutes she laid down and begged to be killed.

Texas has what is called a weeping peach tree. It is located in Denton, and attracts a large number of visitors.

It throws off a perfect mist, which sometimes has the appearance of spray. The phenomenon is vouched for by a correspondent of the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

The function of a negro's black skin is supposed to be the conversion of the sun's light into heat.

The heat thus generated remains in the skin and does not penetrate to the deeper tissue.

Being thus provided with a sun-proof, armor, the negro can stand an amount of heat that would be fatal to the white man, and he runs hardly any risk of sunstroke.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

Bharacter is true wealth. Any one can act natural by keeping still.

Every throb of the heart is a new birth.

None but the rich can afford "dear" friends.

The only "fall of man" is when he falls behind.

Competition is a necessity to the activity of life.

Education that restrains the desire to learn is false.

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Charity and personal force are the only investments worth anything.

Most people would succeed in small things if they were not troubled with great ambitions.

We do love beauty at first sight; and we do cease to love it if it is not accompanied by amiable qualities.

He who is false to present duty breaks a thread in the loom, and will find the flaw when he may have forgotten its cause.

Candor is the seal of a noble mind, the ornament and pride of man, the sweetest charm of woman, the scorn of rascals and the rarest virtue of a liability.

The training a man gets is the staging by which, if he chooses, he can guide himself up, but if the structure rises to any great height it must support the staging.

Whatever the number of man's friends, there will be times in his life when he has one too few; but if he has only one enemy, he is lucky indeed if he has one too many.

People who speculate about the future from their devoted study of the past, may as well be pronounced dead, for surely they do not live in the present, which is all the time there is to exist in.

The Willamette valley is boasting of a threshing machine which averages 2,200 bushels per day.

Neither private individuals nor the Mexican government give encouragement to the scheme of taking negroes from the southern states and colonizing them in selected portions of Mexico.

Samuel Roop, well known Republican politician of Westminster, Md., was badly injured while opening a bottle of cider. The bottle burst, and a piece of glass struck him in the eye, cutting open the ball. The sight will be destroyed.

Swept by the Tides of Popularity To the topmost pinnacle of success, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands a shining proof of what genuine merit, backed by the living force of proven facts, can attain.

The North and South American continents, Europe, Australia, the West Indies, Guatemala and Mexico have all contributed wide patronage and testimony of the most favorable kind—but unalloyed to swell the reputation of this sterling remedy. Among the multitudes for which the most convincing public and professional testimony proves that it is a benign, curative, and healthful, reliable, remedial, dumb, age and acute, dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, debility, indigestion and bladder complaints, it mitigates the infirmities of age, hastens convalescence, has a tendency to prevent all consequences from exposure and exhaustion. Formulas of sanitary habits and laborious occupations will find it an ever useful tonic.
