CORRAL and FEED STABLE
W. R. CUNNINGTON,
Proprietor.
(Wood & Church's old Stand)
Good buggy horses and also Saddle Horses furnished at all hours of the day or night at reasonable prices. Particular attention paid to boarding and grooming transient stock.
Main and Washington streets.

Go to the Red Front Billiard Hall, Canyon City, for fine wines, liquors and cigars.

One quart of sifted flour, well heaped, weighs one pound.
Stoves & Tinware, Doors & Windows, cheaper than anywhere, at Coffin & McFarland's Heppner.

Two million, two hundred and thirty-five thousand human lives is what the wars of the past thirty-four years have cost.
Rye, Barley, Timothy, Alfalfa, always on hand in large quantity, at Coffin & McFarland's, Heppner.

This emperor of China has had a court astrologer beheaded for making a false prediction. The emperor is very progressive.

Make a covering of the cheapest cotton cloth; tack it down like a carpet, paper as you would a wall, with paper resembling a carpet in figures, and let dry. Varnish with two coats of varnish, and with reasonable usage it will last two years.

The celebrated Mitchell Wagons, Hacks, Carts, Buggies and Buckboards at Coffin & McFarland's, Heppner.

In 1880 Wyoming had a population of 20,759. Its present population is variously estimated between 75,000 and 100,000.

A tin peddler who travels through Canada can exhibit forty-one scars where farmers' dogs have taken hold of him.

Stetson Cow Boy Hats, Silver Bits and Spurs; Callikin Coats and Vests; Cheyenne & San Jose Saddles, at Coffin & McFarland's Heppner.

There are said to be about one hundred exiles in San Francisco who succeeded in making their escape from Siberia through Alaska.

The Indians living in New York state number about five thousand, and control nearly eighty-eight thousand acres of land.

You can save big money by going to Coffin & McFarland, Heppner, for your Fall and Winter Supplies. They keep everything, and have cut prices down so that they are the lowest priced store in Oregon.

Arizona boasts of a woman who can drive a nail with a bullet at forty yards. When Arizona can produce a woman able to drive a nail with a hammer at a distance of one foot, without wounding her fingers, it will have a curiosity worth boasting of.

Good grass and water all the way to Heppner and 600 miles of travel saved on the round trip, over the Dalles route. Prices of goods lower and wool higher. Go to Coffin & McFarland; they keep the largest stock and sell more goods than any store in Oregon. Why? Because their prices are lower; they buy everything by the car load.

An English gentleman was pigeon-shooting in his grounds recently with an Irish friend. He shot a pigeon very high up, and it came down with a plump at their feet. "Faith, that was a waste of powder and shot," said his Irish friend. "Why?" "Because, in faith, the fall alone would have killed the poor baste without any of the shooting."
