HEPPNER, OGN.

The warehouse has two floors, 80 x 100 feet, and is well lighted, affording favorable display of wools on sale. It is situated near no other buildings and bears a low rate of insurance.

Last season this company handled over 2,000,000 pounds of wool, and in anticipation of an increased amount for the coming season, they will build an addition to the warehouse.

During the season, an experienced wool grader is employed. The warehouse being furnished with a wool compress, buyers are enabled to have their purchases put in condition for direct shipment to eastern mills at a cost much below that which the wool must bear via Portland or San Francisco.

Cash advanced on consignments for 1890.

At Mud Creek, Oregon, the boys got up a dance which took place immediately after church services.
This riled the good deacons, and they sought redress in the courts.
The matter was, however, allowed to drop. Now the goodly and un-godly are both heartily ashamed of themselves.

will receive about $5.

Law in Texas is often practiced under difficulties. In court the other day the defendant in a murder trial was shot by his victim's friends. The judge had to fly before a shower of balls and two other people were hit by the bullets.

The Masons of Chicago are making preparations to build a $3,000,000 edifice. The plans provide for the grandest structure of the kind ever built, and the building is expected to be completed in time to be dedicated during the world's fair.

The class distinctions which produce social barriers, and the financial distinction which appears to be widening the already impassable gulf between rich and poor, are evils which must operate for the destruction of the best interests of civilization, and are not in accord with the true teachings of nature.

The discovery of gold in a recent meteoric stone suggests some very interesting queries. It is commonly believed that meteors are fragments of other worlds accidentally thrown outside their usual orbit into that of the earth.
The question is whether this gold where it originated was the cause of as much strife and contention as it has for ages been on this planet.

Every man lives for others as well as himself; and, while the tenor of his life should be that of cheerful industry in his calling, he should keep open every avenue to compassion and liberality. The business of such a man is habitual, and includes no unreasonable cares; his benevolence is uniform, and finds opportunities for exercise.
He lives reputable, and is beloved by his contemporaries. In this way he secures a fair share of happiness.

The editor of the Goldendale Sentinel gave notice, recently, that a certain man in the town could find sufficient muscular exercise by that office.
