

THE GRANT COUNTY NEWS.

April 3, 1890.

It came out in an English court a few days ago that one hundred wornout horses had just been shipped from that country to Germany and Belgium to be used in the manufacture of sausage, and that such shipments were a regular thing.

There is an increasing agitation in California for a division of the state on the line of the Sierra Nevada mountains. Division would mean one democratic and one republican state in place of a now democratic in state elections and republican on national issues.

Congressman Hermann has our thanks for a report of the board of engineers upon certain obstructions to navigation in the Columbia river. It contains a map showing the location of the proposed boat railway at the dalles of the Columbia, and is a very valuable work.

Advices from Central America state that the recent discovery of over a hundred skeletons under the flooring of a room occupied by Colonel Mora, commander at Costa Rica, under the administration of President Zaldívar, has roused the belief that they were the remains of massacred enemies of the president.

An epidemic of diphtheria swept over Lunenburg, Newfoundland. There was no doctor in the district, and the sufferers were attended by Rev. Father Walsh, who with his own hands cleared the throats of the victims. Of forty cases that the priest attended only one proved fatal. The priest took the disease himself and died after a few days' illness.

There are four M's on a silver dollar, two plainly visible—one in the words Liberty and Stockmen have discovered a regularly organized band of horse thieves near Pine City in the Big Bend country. One of the gang, a young cowboy, was captured and he has confessed. A posse is out after the others.

The experience of Paris and New York horse car companies is said to be that gray horses are the longest lived and give the greatest amount of service. Roan horses are about equally good. Black and cream-colored horses lack staying power, especially in summer. Bays show an average. Black hooped horses are the stronger and tougher.
