

May 23, 1890.

The Heppner Gazette in last week's issue devotes considerable of its space to "presumptuous demands made by the News." The "presumptuous demands" it refers to are probably creatures of his own imagination superinduced by the Gazette editor taking an overdose of Blackmanism on an empty republican stomach.

It is difficult to explain the cause of the persistent and unreasonable opposition of congressmen from the east to bills looking toward the improvement of north-western waterways, unless it is assumed that our eastern statesmen are so intensely human as to be slightly selfish.

The White Cap or Ku Klux organization which exists in the south and middle west, with no apparent object except to terrorize and whip men and women who may incur their displeasure, has met with a just rebuke.

It appears by actual demonstration that the U. S. mails can be "obstructed" in many and queer ways. J. W. Donas, postmaster at a little 1-horse office, was held to answer at Pendleton the other day for obstructing the mails.

Laws relating to the administration of the estates of deceased persons seem to have been enacted for the express purpose of enriching the pockets of probate court lawyers.
