W. B. Scott, of Coburg, an his son Bert, while hunting treed a big brown bear. He never stopped climbing until 150 feet aloft in the branches of a tall fir. A rifle ball made him tumble off his perch and he fell to the ground with a thud that fairly shook the earth, making a hole nearly as large as the body. He weighed 450 pounds.

Russia is very particular in regard to religious matters. At least it would seem so from the fact that a clergyman who spoke disparagingly of the Greek church has been sentenced to ten years' exile in Siberia. The judgement may seem harsh, but he will have time to learn the virtues of silence, and probably will increase his reverence for the State church in that country.

SUMMONS.

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for Grant county.

W. R. Cunningham, Pif.
vs
Rachel J. Cunningham, Deft.
To RACHEL J. CUNNINGHAM, THE ABOVE NAMED DEF'T.

An order having been made on the 16th day of July 1890, by the Hon. Morton D. Clifford, Judge of the above entitled court for the service of summons upon you in the above entitled suit by publication thereof, now, therefore.

In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in said suit on or before the first day of the regular September term 1890, of said court, to wit: Monday the 1st day of September A. D. 1890, and if you fail so to answer or plead, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the said complaint, to wit: A decree dissolving the marriage contract now existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and awarding plaintiff the custody and control of Margaret J. Cunningham, minor daughter of the plaintiff and defendant, and for the costs and disbursements of said suit and for such further relief as to the court in equity may seem meet.
