THE NEWS THE GRANT COUNTY NEWS. THE NEWS Is a newspaper for the people, laboring for the Is the oldert newspajet between The Dalles people and voicing the sentiments of the people of ov! Winnewneca, the lar est simulation, therefore its own Grant County. the best for advertising.

Volume XII.

CANYON CITY, GRANT COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1890.

AVENCED AT LAST; _Or, a World-Wide Chase,

A STORY OF FEIRIBUTION.

HY "WARASH." LOOPENHINE, (BO.].

AREA POPULE NOT

peered and almost sublest press. From the day when Armida saw Eue lively placed up in an unconscious. ers in hiermannersdition after the collision of the grato reagon and the carriage der indifficient had been on the increase. I what was more, was undignised.] most with any screees, valle him to re-Miter his final recovery she insisted turn home," said the widow. at all the supplies in that line for the new should be purchased from the Buffem storry. To this of course no e male any domury nor could they structure congrast Regense supplied. is of a quality good chough for their a week," were Mr. Wilcox's next words. Is a spatial ty good clough for their a week, were Mr. Wilcox's next words.
 But are away to such as extent that share was just the slightest look of user oil.
 Will be not not be no ad spoken to Eugene regarding glatneed up at Mr. Wilcox and quesbenefits which might accene to him tioningly said: "You do not mean that?" a sature 11% if he passessed at least a "Indeed if is true," he replied. In the passessed at least a "Indeed if is true," he replied. In the passessed at least a "Indeed if is true," he replied. The plasma is the passes of the as a significants. So to give the collons some practical shape she happened him," said Mrs. Delars, i unprested giving him lessons in "No. I hardly think that. He may in and is and be had gagerly as have had occasion to go up into the if my deal lover somes not then, to cheer my waiting even. of the notices

The result was that Eugene's press that he might have a message of im-An investory and a second a trequent secure the bias Mrs. It have the the second a trequent secure treatment of the second and the second an "In oil out are ply and that he the paper. The the meantime I think it may be ty in East works any impropries by in East works to chain a woll to chain Armida, middy, about making too free with East of a surging and as the last vibrating sounds of the ar-commaniment died away she turned to supercede the use of soap." "Then soap has made you the wealthy man you are to day." She sang the song right through and as the last vibrating sounds of the ar-commaniment died away she turned "Yes used as the tailed to supercede the use of soap." turned the favor by giving Armida an Bregg, Ard by the by I forget to opprendity to prevent her knowledge, tell you" there Mrs. Delaro indulged in of krouch from mating by nouns of con-versition in that language. At the "that your old friend Mr. Hodger who attesti de la polated out, in as careful turned up again so unexpectedly a few a manuar as his frank, open nature days since has made it his business-to would permit that it would be advisa- investigate into the antesedents of this his not to leave the young couple teo, homptleus young grocer, as he terms most along. In this opinion Mrs. De- him, but he does not appear to have any Lies could y concurred and she resolved. thing to report at present beyond the in v. s. of the fact that so many bigidy fact that Mrs. Bregg is a very estimate young ladies had lately eloped hie woman and knows good wap from with lowshorn conclusion and strengthear | had." unductors that she would excrets at "When Blodger dies," said Mr. Wil-

cust a little care in watching over her cox." I think some one will have to inthis young grocer to whom she had place over his grave, for I never knew a taken such a fancy. Not that she realy immgined Armida was in love with bot insummeli as his for in life sel in he cast in so different a channot to: Armida's she thought it well to enforces her protherly presegative just a little, as a precautionary measure. It was rather strange (a) least so Mr. William thought) that Aroulda's regret over the absonce of Percy Loved had not been as marked as that of her mothe in assuments as the knew bis lower to be The Euclideman had bound a warm and In mug place in the old man's least; outry had been half the pleasure. id and Willow' later years, and he and red Percy sadly. Is was one night about the time when therey was being invited to permit one of the card party at Buenos Ayres to sold his heart's blood, that Mrs. Defaro and Mr. Wilcox were sitting in the li heavy, wondering part of the time and i was any during the remainder in repard to the probability or otherwise of 15 yey Loverie mission being one which would terminate profitably-at least so far as the object was concerned-or scheduler if would be only one more to and to the already long list of failures. mann liner heard holes of music in the partor and the voltow of Armida and: free murats too; he'll begin to think he. the place very soon and all be accurate happened to be faid an a work in the one account of an accident. It would have been failur for all concorned if he ford taken the five hundred. duffars we offered must we should then. have been gid of him with all obliga-Armida terla mo ho makes very rapid progress in Lie studies and is really a surg remarkable man," responded Mrs. Is lars, without accepting Mr. Wilcox's remarks in their serious sense. Then noticing that her apparently light manner of treating a subject which each her pleas rein his second case a more had a short time before thought so serie genating matter. our did not seem to please Mr. Wilcox, tinued to read the evening paper, she most, and she entertained Eugene in again spoker "Mr. Wilcox." in which she addressed her old friend high bred laver who had never known was goite sufficient, had the paper been what it was to wear an apron or roll a has the vetorrable collitionalre could not | tarrel of sugar. The yoan grocer was base dropped requiries and in an in- in an cextacy of delight and almost revstaid he was all attention. "Do you which in the mild enjoyment of the bars, not think it would be wise to concast. Armida's influence had awakened bright none plan whereby we could, for a aspirations in his locarty new teelings time at least interrupt the studies had found birth in that susceptible which are being parented with such ins lorgan and he lived but to leave the "That is consthing which has one bright soushing of his idely pressure. defativable soil in this house?" correct to in core many times of lates (He did not have Armidia the user dipbut I have been walting for the first her with the same adulation which i suggestion to come from you," was the shave might render a princers.

mit von to give your sugression first." "Well 1 was about to say, suppose that when Percy comes back we all go Europent a manner he might have listened to the young man and is sure to prosper "
"You he works very hard," asser to thorse thoughts," was Mrs. Delaro's ready words, but us he sat and fistened to her and noticed the quiet carnestness with Then Percy can not come back a meet which she wrought out the full means running a store. cent too soon and this Mr. Emerick. Ing of each line, his heart beat rapidly doover he is, can pursue his vocation; and lond. The words were simple but eithout interruption. For Armida's they were set to must effective music, future, which is really threatened" (and costs words and music being interpreted here the old man spoke with greatmarne southeir fullest extent by Armida's ex-estness) "is far two serious a matter to measure singing:

true meaning of these words of one of the statistic my here been whom Fre pletared in the manufacture of the manufacture of the manufacture of the statistic my here been and the statisti reposed at their import, but size did truths here or fair and bandsome a reality not or she would have been more earn-

Incol Restau When my ship comes in-will he stoop on head "Lot Percy remain where he is for a

"Let Percy remain where he is for a few weeks houger, thou if he does not most with any screess, vable him to res-turn home," will the widow. And as he slowly rises will be fill my heart with "At any rate I must send him a While be table no closely to him and our lips measure normorrow, for I have not lad ment with a wise? a surel from Jalm new for three weeks. When my ship cames in-will it bring me jewand my instructions were that he and my instructions were that he should word a line or two at least once a week," were Mr. Wilcox's next words.

found with gold!

All the treasures of the indies, its tick carse

When my ship comes in -1 care not if it be eres off, four " near fortcamerry Pack pertanes to send us, has delayed his The timest of craft that ever safled upon the companiment died away she turned aat entranced and spoke not a word. song, Mr. Brozy?" she asked.

March Saula

wated himself on an upturned cracker Unriel and resumed: "Mrs. Brogy, that I It did not take long for Mrs. Brogy to prepare herself, and very soon the peoson of yours is a very industrious ple of the neighborhood poked their "stuck up" woman from the grocecy

'Yos, he works very hard," asserted the lady, "but it is uphill work and walk down the street to the elevated there is a great deal to contond with in railroad with the retired soap manufacturer. Eugene was on the tip-too of expec-"I don't doubt it, for I have had my on experience and know what it is] still perseverance will overcome every thing, and many a hindrance have found in my way," said Mr. Blodger. saw her return. "Good news, my boy," she said before taking off any of her apparel. "Did I understand you to say that usland Mrs. Bregy. 'Yes, ma'am, until recent years was engaged in the manufacture of tha on wore once in the soap business?

Here he picked up a sample from a box at his side, smelled it, examined i am no longer identified with that told," said Eugene. Forever and forever-when my ship comes in | will live as long as there is nothing invented to supersede the use of soats take care of itself here. But before we "Yes, madam," replied the talkative around on ner stool as though to mark old fellow; "I owe a good deal to soap. I the effect on her listener. There he am tolerably well off, and it is a great deal of satisfaction to know that while "Have you nothing to say about my I have been accumulating a fair competence I have at the same time been "It is very heantiful," was all he said helping to make the world a good deal "Now, do not suppose that I am fishe cleaner. And, by the way, I attribute ing for compliments, for nothing was not a little of my ancess to my knowlfarther from my thoughts. But I do edge of the best methods of bringing like people to say something, even if it my soap to the notice of the public and is disagreeable, when I sing a song, and singing its praises in vorse. Allow especially one of my own composing," me," said Blodger, producing what he said in a half joking manner. But looked amaringly like a scrap-book from the young man before her was in no the recesses of his coat pocket, "to read a tital daughter's association with vent as imperishable scap monument to joking mood. Could it be, he thought, to you what was conceded by all to be the moment of almost cestacy, "that my best effort in that line. A genuine the meant those words for me?" And the was lapsing into soap once more) as he pondered he said to himself ilterary production, one which set all

Some day I will ask her." Just at this moment Mr. Wilcow and wondering who wrote it on the "Some day I will ask her." looked over to Mrs. Delaro and said, morning when it appeared, at the foot "Is that Harlem gentleman going to of an elegant cut of a washtub, in al itay here all night?" the newspapers from Maine to Cali "They certainly must be too busily fornia. Here it is: A knetty problem in this world With which we have to cope is how to keep our faces clean engaged to notice the time," was the rendy, that I will remind Aranida, by walking outs the pastor, that I am pro-"Tis saived by History's soup. 1. paring to retire," and with those words st. Paul of old said: "Great are faith he month put her words into effect. And charity and hope"--Hut greater far than those, my friends, is illudger a matching scorp. When Mrs. Delaro walked into the particular pole very kindly to Enterne! and mouth could have told that she downed on any feelings of suspicion "Try used to wash the trotters of His holiness the Pope, And little children slack their thirst sawards ham. They conversed to petient ine momenta, during which Mrs. With suds from Bladger's sump. Delaro scale kinfly inquiries regarding. None genuine without these verses on Mrs. E.ery. This seemed to retuind the wrapper, over the signature of Engene of a duty he had to perform Stephen Blodger. For sale by all Gro and he commenced it by asking Mrs cers and Druggists throughout the Delara if she could give him Mr country." Biol.rer's address, as he and his Mr Hoc Mr. Hlodger looked round with an all mother wished to see him on some of pride as he finished reading and a mess matters. As they had never gracefully accepted the commendation can Mr. Blodger except at their store which his verses drew forth from Mrs hoy had never known his address. Pregy. three I think he should limit his present. Must Delare told Engene where he Before he could continue the conver-sation however, some customers came to personal tollet perpose." that Mr. Blodger had offered to rent Nomemer was the store clear again this matter is getting serious. Here's the leaned back is berchair and listened a little farther down town, and it was they and, in the manner peculiar to New on that account he wished to see him. York nontinent who are alware to not un that account he wished to see him. As Eugene finally rose to go Mr a hurry, he dipped a letter into the Wilcox joined the party and Mrs. store from between his fingers and die Delaro observed that he would probably not even wait to see it drop in the pat willingly carry a message to Mr underneath the molasses barrel. Biologr from Engene as he saw that "That's a gentlemanly way of hand gentleman down town nearly every ing in a letter," said Mr. Blodger, while But Eugene was not dis- Mrs. Bregy picked it up and weped it. posed to intrust Mr. Wilcox with his "I guess the poor fellows are on their insiness, as he said: "Oh, it does not feet so long and have so far to walk that matter," and then hid them all good they won't step a yard farther than the can possibly holp," said Mrs Brezy Before retiring Armida and her symmathesically, mother sat for a long time talking in Then she tore open the end of the ch the firelight. "Why, maxima, how velope and drew out the letter which serious you are becoming," said Armida. she commenced to read.

"Oh, no, I do not think matters are quite as serious as that. But how is it about the woman's supposed husband? heads out of the window to see that Has she forgotten him amid the new excitement?"

"No, indeed, she has not. On the contrary she promises to spend her money when she gets it for the purpose of trying to find her husband."

tation all the time his mother was away and felt greatly relieved when he Mrs. Delaro's next question.

"No, I have not, and it is causing mo-"My Uncle Du Bois, who lived at Amiens has left me a lot of property worth nearly five hundred thousand france. He died nearly a year ago and they have been trying to find me ever They say my uncle was insane when he nade his will and did not know what he 'Did you hear that Mr. Howe, a part-"What did the lawyers have to say | ner of Mr. Emerick's, is dead?"

"No, I did not," replied Mrs. Delare. about it any way?" asked Eugene.

"It occurred some time ago," said Mr. "They say there will be some little Wilcox, "and I heard down-town that this of the great God. trouble getting the matter sottled, but Emerick is returning from Buenos they do not doubt that I shall get the Ayres, having closed out his business property eventually. Still, it will take there. Also that he is going to sell out juite a sum of money to go over there. altogether. He is a rather queer fish, I and fight my groody relatives, and I am told, some of his business transac don't know where the money would tions not being quite as square as they might be. The consequence is that he some from if it was not that Mr. Blodger insists on advancing it at six is not spoken of very well among busiper cent, interest, until the affair is ness men and has few friends."

"Then I hope that you will endeavor to see him as soon as he arrives, for Percy was very anxious that you should. He seemed to have some idea that you will know the man," said Mrs. Delaro.

"You may depend upon it I shall do my best to see him when he gets here, for I am as much interested as anybody in knowing who he really is."

For the next week or two there were no new developments either in regard to Percy Lovel or the Bregys' fortune. "Yes, that is pretty certain, for we Eagene and his mother, acting on the an not take it with us, and it will notadvice of Mr. Hodger, made rapid preparations to leave for France, and take any steps at all in any direction, had even taken passage on the "La Gas-coigne" for the early part of May. we must understand from these lawyers exactly how the matter stands and what Mr. Wilcox was suffering intense the exact chances are for my getting anxiety on account of not hearing from hold of the property." was his mother's Perry, and longed for the time to come guarded reply. Secretly Eugene re-joiced at the prospect of going abroad. when he would receive some information by mail from the American Consul, and when he thought of the wealth to whom he had telegraphed asking him which might possibly come to them it to make inquiries. In fact so great was the old fellow's anxiety that he struck him that after all be might be in a position to make love to Armida Debegan to show signs of it in his featlaro. Yet he kept his own counsel and ures. The old gentleman was very rodid not show any extraordinary eagerbust and could have combatted successness to press after the wealth. Even fully any severe physical trial, but the before his mother he restrained himstress of worry on his mind owing to the self. They talked over the matter to-gether that night and Mrs. Bregy told halo of uncertainty which surrounded the fate of his chosen friend and com her son a great deal more than he had. panlon were too much for him. He ever known before regarding her early grew restless, sometimes even irritable history and the noble race of which she and finally was told by his medical was a descendant. She also told him much adviser that he must cease to troubl about her early life in New York when himself so much or he would be a very sick man. Still nothing could diverhis thoughts, and on the day that Mr. Emerick landed in New York from the Itio steamer, Mr. Wilcox was competied to take to his bed. The strain on his mind had been too much and he had to accumb. Mrs. Delaro and Armida had done their atmost to cheer him, and had endeavored to force him to cat and drink, and take amosement to divert his thoughts, but their efforts were of nal anown what is was to have th friendly, help, material and moral, of Joel Wilcox. Truly of this old man it night be said, as it was said of One greater than he-"he wont about doing good." And now the end was near. It was late in the afternoon of a lovely day in mid-winter, such a day as is only known in the northern latitudes of "That rominds me to ask if you have North America. Away in the western yet heard any thing from Peroy," was sky the crimson sun was fast sinking, lighting all the horizon with a golden radiance and, for the nonce, gilding the closely-built streets of the great memuch concern. I have sent message closely-built streets of the great me-after message, but no reply comes and tropolis until its spires and roofs shone to-morrow I have made up my mind to resplendent as the palaces of a fairy cable the American Consul at Buenos prince. For a few moments a bright Ayres and ask him to investigate. It is ray slanted through the window of the ince. But some of my relations over getting serious and steps must be taken still chamber and rested upon the pleasthere are trying to swindle me out of it at once to find out where he is." A sec- ant and well-loved features of the good ond later the aged friend of the Delare old man. Then as the sunlight gradual-family spoke up suddenly and asked: by faded away to be followed by the creeping shadows of the twilight, the gentle spirit of Joel Wilcox fled to that land where sunlight and shadow are both as naught in the eternal brightness

Number 35.

- Ann

10

.

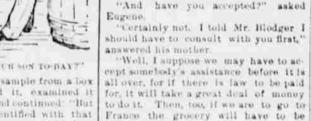

-

22

15

The importance of purifying the blood can not be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and earich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Peculiar Barsaparilla. It strengthens creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla pecul-To itself other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence. Hood's Saraaparilla is sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

was doing.

settled and we can pay it back."

prophetically converged simultan- prophesied that something must soon and bern emiled. Met Delucophyse way with the dangerous should upon which to M - but not show and -1 will wayer they were fast drifting. And so it was a played player, which is the most see. This very night Armida was to change . I say which any life, that the above current of Eugene's though and she did it in a song-one tay whe she have been admitted to Eugene) that she had writ-ten herself and had a one an old Ger man so devoted to it. He must have made a great study of the article, but having made a fortune in its manufacture I think he should limit his present

IT IF PAR TOO SERLOU'S A MATTER DOM: TREFLED WITH."

After this Mrs. Delaro resumed her nerves the hall until she almost full ep nuller its swort influence. As for Mr. Welcox, he read his paper until he too succumbed to the bonign hills encoof the award strains of yoral most Aronifault this may had been offer mately conversing with and teachin Engens in blostal ignorance that als was the cause of so much contorn to he mother and self-appointed guardian [1] had never once occurred to be comoved what that her manyourse with th traghtersoung Record image processors Lexis the slighten element of data a to be felf is any one clar concorned. Y-

To-night there had not been much the commanded perfectly silent and con-study, for Arneida was in too gay a cagendered in that young man's heart. "Dear Madam-inor financial the evening paper, she mood, and she entertained Eugene in financial read the evening paper, she The tone moved the same manner as if he were a may lend him?" 1408 And I am very much puzzled to tone other, and yet were very far avercover of a suggestion which is worth of Nevertheless they asither of them cro-below." Antweevel the ablan. For a few more sets they hoth are, noter of the ground on which they should 25410 they began together. Lappen which would expose to their

"This is a serious matter," said her ""Whatever can this mean" It is from mother. "You know not what hopes a lawyer's office." Then she commenced and appirations you may have already over again and read about Yours very train.

gestion that as it was only just turned two o'clock his mother might as well go

REALSO & TANSER

at your earliest convenience, you will

I had never thought of it in that hear of something to your advantage. manima, doar," was the reply. "Hut it domands your thought, my

"Brouse & Tanner" said Mr. Blodg -daild. And must I tell him not to come or "Why, they are my lawyers in Ten ple Court, whatever can they want with

"Well, no, not quite that, but do not you? invite him quite so often," said the sweet transport undow, as she known the one treasure of her widowhood. "That is something I can not even an. "It may be they can tell me where "That is something I can not even my dear healand is ' "Oh, no, it can't be that. They would CHAPTER NIV. "Gold afternoon. Mrs. Bregy," said have nothing to do with any being the Mr. Biodger, as he entered the store on concerned your husband, that could no possibly by," said Mr. Blodger Just then the following afternoon. His load comeup to Haviem to inspect some building's Eugenn walked in, and after shaking which he was having erected, and hands hearting with Mr. Biodger h thought he would call on his pres-pective tenant on the way home. How handed to him, and as he read it wonto at the boat to thought from which An interested observer would have are you, and how is the grocery hust dered what it could mean. He gave his wonderment expression, and asked as "Well, my health is good, and bush much. Neither could answer him, so ness is as youd as usual," was the ready it remained for him to make the aug Philippings "And where is your son boday?"

"He has put none to put the horse down-town to Brouse & Tanner's office in to estable and well by back in a few and find out all about it.

the spent her honeymoon in the Quartier Francuise. Eugeno was very much atcreated and he forced much informafrom his mother which was entirely new o him.

This conversation of course brought back the occurrences of the past few nonths to her mind more vividly and he could hardly believe that so short a impained also was dragged down almost to the gathers of the twin citles. these thoughts of the past, however, ever had but one marked result, name in the renewal of her love for her husand from whom shy had been separ ated for so many years. Her whole out had gone out for him in those sarly days and had possessed her true love in its purest state, and if to-day he ling, and how well he had proved the had appeared before her in rage and genutieness of that friendship these for or the habiliments of a prince her forlings toward him would have to main unchanged. Had he met her gar between the prison hars still ho would have been the same to her. Only no nun teid lived in this world for Emilie du Baix and that was Alphon is Licery and until the knew the true cause of his describion of her, if such it was, she would hold him just as dear-

"GOOD NEWS, MY SON," SHE SAID.

The new developments in their excit ing history were the cause of much in presting conversation between mother and som for a good many days. The awyers cabled to France and hefore an sther work passed their sgents the had given them full particulars and it car definitely decided that some time during the coming spring Mrs. Bregy and Eugene should start for Amona. As soon as this was settled upon Eagene thought he might venture say something to Armida about it She in turn informed her mother and the consequence was that the Breges were often the subject of conversation Mr. Wilcox rather doubted at first, but he afterwards said. "The lawyers must know something about it, for they are trustworthy mus, and would not send the woman off on a wild goose chase. 1 suppose this young grocer will be a very big man now and may take it into its head to want to marry Armida." He "Containly, said Mr. Blodger, "and Ph was talking to Mrs. Delaro when ho t conductive the realy Mr. Hodger ogo along. You can't be too careful with said this. She quickly replied: these lawyer fellows."

no avail.

In a delicately furnished bedroom in the house near Gramercy Park was gathered a small company, wistfully gazing upon a bed whereon lay the quict form of an old man. The little group consisted of Mrs. Delaro and her daughter, Mr. Blodger and a physician, and they were saily watching their good friend, Mr. Wilcox, the tide of whose life was fast obbing away. Joel Wilcox was an old man who had long since passed the three-score-andten milestone on life's highway, and a slight cold, added to intense anxiety. on account of the man whom he had grown to love as a son, had produced a fever which proved too much for his vitality. The old fellow had outlived his day and generation, though, indeed, he had in his younger days cut adrift from all his relations and early assoprospority he had not made many friends (though he could count acquaintances by the hundreds) as his reserved and simple nature rendered him fearful lest men should only like him for his wealth and the influence which wealth brought with it. For Mario Delaro he had conceived a hearty lik pages have told. Resides the Delaro family, Percy Lovel was the only per son who had found the way to Wilcox's heart, though the old-time friendship with Blodger had been cordiatly renewed of late.

THE MAATH OF MR. WILCOX.

Although so few were the persona friends of the kind-hearted old million aire, very many were those among the poor and needy, the tried and the tempted-those who fought on the losing side in the battle of life-who

FOR THOSE WHO CANNOT POSSIBLY CALL PER BONALLY, HOME TREATMENT PLACED WITH-AN THE REACH OF ALL THAT WILL GIVE ANNTANTANEOUS RELIEF AND A PERMANENT CURE.

The most speedy, positive and perma-neut cure for Catarrh of the Head, Asthma, and all Throat, Bronchial, Lung, Heart, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Affections. Nervous Dehility, etc. Consumption, in its various stages, permanently cured DR. ABORN'S ORIGINAL MODE OF TREAT MENT and his MEDICATED INHALATIONS rom all his relations and barry asso-stations. In the latter days of his restrictly he had not made many revitalizes the whole constitution and system, thereby prolonging life Weak, nervous, debilitated and broken-down constitutions, old and young, invariably gain from ten to thirty pounds in from thirty to ninety days.

DR. ABORN'S phenomenal skill and mar velous cures have created the greatest astonishment on the Pacific Coast and throughout the American continent, during the past twenty-five years. Asthma, Catarrh of the Head, and all Throat, Bron chial and Lung trouble instantly relieved, also Ear Diseases and Deafness ofter cured permanently at first consultatio. DR. ABORN'S essay on the "Curability of Consumption." and a treatise on "Catarrh of the Head," with evidences of some extraordinary cures, mailed free. Call or address DR. ABORN,

Fourth and Merrison Sta., Portland, Oreg.s

Nors. - Home treatment, securely packed, sent & ALL INVITED TO CALL FOR FREE CONSULTATION

To cure Biliousness, Sick Headache, Constipation, Malaria, Liver Complaints, take and the second second