The U. S. mail is now carried over 2,000,000 of post routes. Nearly 5,000 new postoffices have been established in 1890.

The last remaining band of wild buffaloes is now being hunted down with lassoes on Red Desert, in Wyoming. The object is to eatch these survivors alive and start a buffalo farm whereon buffaloes will be reared for shows, museums and parks.

Last year the U. S. received $38,000,000 for letter postage. The postmaster general favors a one cent, but Bennie Harrison who rides on the cow-catcher of government don't go much on reduc- easily at the other, who began ed postage.

If Oregon is to be represented at the World's Columbian Exposition it would be worse than nothing to be only half represented. What Oregon needs is more people and more capital, and the exposi-tion grounds is a bill-board on and to the second of the seco which to spread her advertisement.

Derivation of Cravat.

Cravat is a corruption of crabat or Creegon, on Thursday, the fifth day creat. It was introduced into France of February, A. D 1531 at the hour croat. It was introduced into France by some French officers on their return guarded the Turkish frontier of Austria, and acted as secute on the Banks of the army, were linen round their nesks, tied [1]]. in front, and the officers were muslin or silk. When France organized a regi-ment on the model of the Croats these linen neckeloties were initiated, and the regiment wascalled "The Royal Cravat."
